GRAND JURYS REPORT. COLUMBIA COUNTY, 84 The Grand Inquest of Pennsylvania inquiring

for the body of Columbia county respectfully re-port that we have discharged our duties in the natter of the presentment of bills of indictment that have been laid before us:That we have examined the public buildings and make the following recommendations:

That the county jail be thoroughly cleansed and disinfected, and that a competent engineer be em-ployed at once to examine into the matter of drainage for said jail, and report thereon; and that the proper drain be made as soon as possible, at the county's expense. The building in its present condition is utterly unfit for the residence arceration of human beings and must remain so until properly drained. Also that the roofs of said jail be examined by competent work-men, and repaired. That telephones be placed at the County's expense, in the Court House and paid for, for the use of public officers.
