ITEMS.

Considerable interest is manufested by the republicans in the threat of the colored people to hold a separate convention. They have been so neglected by the republicans, who profess to be their friends, that they now propose to act for themselves. Fred Douglass is at the head of the movement. A convention is called for September.

The anti-discrimination and free pipe bills were passed almost simultaneously women, clerks and others out of insolon Friday, after a struggle of fourteen vent sales was among those passed years. The free pipe bill passed finally finally. The conference report on the Danville insane hospital was agreed to. Other senate bills were considered in free pipe amendments. Forty-three senators voted for the anti-discrimination The greater part of the night session bill on final passage, and only two voted against it. The house concurred by a vote of 148 to 7. The names of the opposing are as follows: Brosius and Snaden, of Lancaster ; Bierer, of West Touche, of Lackawanna; Roher, of Blair; and S. N. Mitchell, of Susquehanna.

An Extra Session Called.

On Wednesday morning Governor Pattison issued a call for an extra session of the legislature for the purpose of apportioning the state into congressional, legislative and judicial districts, the session to begin on Thursday, June dollars. The Post Office Department is making arrangements for the postal note, a new style of money order for all sums less than five dollars. On the left of the blanks are columns for the years, months and days of the month, and on the other side similar columns headed the session to begin on Thursday, June dollars. dollars, dimes and cents. In issuing them the clerk, instead of using a pen, handles a punch like a conductor and nunches for the date and the amount. This new style of money order will be both convenient and popular and will probably go into effect about September

The Pittsburg Iron Manufacturers had a settlement with their workmen, and made an advance of fifty cents on a ton to the laborer. The new rates took effect on June 1st, and nearly all the workmen commenced anew. This concession of the manufacturers has made a boom in business all over. It is an indication that the iron men have anticipation of large orders in the fu-ture or they would not have consented to the raise. Pittsburg is the great bright prospects in view for that city will give new impetus to manufacturers all over the country. The Mormons who come from foreign countries to our shores are by no means to the Legislature no apportionment bills have been passed. "Taverakeepers will all recollect that their bondamen as well as themselves are liable for a violation of the law to a penalty which may run up to the sum of two thousand dollars, and the bondsmen will see that they are interested in having their principal keep within the law. This penalty is besides the imprisonment that may be imposed as part of the punishment. There is still another hold which the court has upon licenses, and that is the power to revoke the license granted; and this we are disposed to do whenever there is made known to us a violation of the law. And we wish it to be understood that the evidence which would justify the court in taking away license need not be such as would be required to convict of the offense upon a trial before a jury. It is sometimes almost impossible in a criminal prosecution to prove the charge laid in the ndictment. If, for example, on a Sunday, persons are seen hanging about a place where liquor is sold, going in or coming out at a front or a back door, we will take t as sufficient exidence that they obtained liquor at that place on that day. We have so held in Columbia county, and have revoked licenses in cases where that kind of evidence was all that was exhibited before us.

Persons who are licensed obtain a motopoly in a dangerous business, and it is therefore necessary that they should take special care to observe and obey the law, which is plain and with which every licensee should make himself familiar. We all know that more or less of the disturbances in a community occur around saloons, sometimes in hotels, but more gencount of the pay there is in it. There crally in or about saloons. Even though licenses are disposed to maintain order in given why the several apportionments and about their establishments, if they are were not made, as the Legislature has unable to do so there is no other way for the preservation of the public peace than for the court to revoke the license. We do not intend to be more stringent than the of the Executive Committee of the State law (these licenses are granted under the Firemen's Association, held in Allentown law); but we desire to have it understood recently, it was recommended that the that we mean to maintain the law and second day of the meeting of the State compel him who receives a license to keep within the line of his privilege as defined by the statutes under which the license is paratus and supplies. An invitation was granted-not only with reference to the extended to the Veteran Firemen's Associ- prohibitions contained in the statutes (as against selling on Sunday, or election day, or to minors or known inebriates) bu also with reference to their positive requirements (as beds, &c.,) for the accommodation of the traveling public. The law must be obeyed in all points, and a violation clearly shown in any point is a sufficient ground for revocation of license.

The tenth annual Inter-State picnic and xhibition under the auspices of the Parons of Husbandry of Pennsylvania. Maryland, West Virginia, New Jersey and Delaware will open at Williams' Grove, Cumberland county, Pa., on Monday, August 20, 1883, and continue until Saturday, August 25th. Excursion rates at reduced fare will be arranged over all the principal roads in Pennsylvania and adjoining States. Agricultural and scientific addresses, by prominent farmers and statesmen, will be delivered on Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. Friday, 24th, will be "Editors Day," and many of the most prominent newspaper men in the country will be present on that day. Manufacturers of agricultural and breeders of good stock will do well to make note of this exhibition. Last year over fifty thousand farmers, representing fourteen States, attended this gathering; and from present indications the number will be much greater this year. Over two hundred manufacturers of agricultural implements, and a large number of raisers of fine stock have already made application for space for exhibition. Members of the Order of Patrons of Husbandry, and their families and friends, may be supplied with tents on the grounds by making early application. Circulars, giving full details of the arrangements, will be issued by July 1st. For further particulars address. R. H. THOMAS.
