A London dispatch tells of a terrible loss of life from an earthquake in ble loss of life from an earthquake in Italy. It says: The town of Casamic-ciola, on Ischia, near Naples, was al-most entirely destroyed by an earth-quake last Sunday night. The neigh-boring towns of Forio and Lacceameno were greatly damaged. It is impossi-ble, as yet, to give the number of the dead. In the latest accounts the num-ber is estimated at 3000. The Hotel Piorola Santhalla sank is the earth Piccola Sentinella sank in the earth and buried many of its inmates. Some of the inhabitants of the town escaped to the sea at the first shock and made their way to Naples with the news of the calamity. The centre of the area of the shock was the same as that of two years ago, but the radius was wider. The shock was felt at sea, and, according to some accounts, even at Naples.

CAPTAIN ROBERT TAGGART, OF WARREN, FOR AUDITOR GENERAL

Captain Robert Taggart, the demo cratic candidate for auditer general, was born in Pittsburg, May, 1836. He received his education in the public schools of that city and served an apprenticeship at pattern making. At the close of his apprenticeship Mr. Taggart connected himself with the Pittsburg Commercial Journal but left that paper to take charge of a night school. He taught but one term, giving it up to enter the army as a private in company C, Ninth regiment, Pennsylvania reserves, in 1861. During the three years' service he was promoted to the captaincy of his company and participated in all the battles in which his regiment was engaged.¹ Captain Taggart was breveted major of the regiment when that body was mus- piration of his commission. tered out of service in May, 1864. At the close of his military career Captain Taggart returned home and from there went to the oil country, taking ventures in oil fields of Venango and War-ren counties, and he has for the past fifteen years been an oil producer. Cap-tain Taggart settled in Tideoute, Warren county, and has always labored in the interest of the oil men.
