DEMOCRATIC STATE TICKET. FOR AUDITOR GENERAL, ROBERT TAGGART, of Warren.

FOR STATE TREASURER, JOSEPH POWELL, of Bradford.

The Governor has signed the judicial appointment bill.

Judge J. S. Black is very sick at his home in Lancaster.

Candidates Taggart and Powell were entertained at Lancaster by the Jefferson club on Monday.

Oscar Wilde has returned to this country. He has had his hair cut, and has discarded the velvet coat and knee breeches.

The result of the delegate election on Saturday has proven that the time has come when the people should say for themselves who shall be chosen to fill the county offices.

It is evident that nothing can be accomplished by a continuance of the session of the legislature. The senate has refused every offer that has been made it, standing on their ultimatum, and have carried out their determination to violate the constitution to trample on the rights of the people.

The convention on Tuesday decided to count two votes for Buckingham in the West Bloom district, where the tickets voted contained the heading for the East District, and the names of delegates and committeemen for that district.

Whenever the future local authorities are called on to deal with great thieves, whether they are of the Republican or Democratic persuasion, they generally do it promptly and emphatically.

It is known that Gould and his associates and certain prominent New York financiers contributed liberally to the Dorsey corruption fund by which Indiana was carried for the Republicans in October, 1880.

A rumor has been circulated that Col. Piollet intended to oppose the election of Hon. Joseph Powell as state treasurer.

The officers of the State Agricultural Society have made the announcement that no fair will be held in Philadelphia this year, owing to the impossibility of creating necessary buildings for the exhibition.

The Democratic Conference.

DECIDING TO STICK UNTIL THE APPOINTMENT HILLS ARE PASSED. A conference of democratic senators and representatives was held in the state library Monday afternoon which was in session three hours and was largely attended.

In his great speech on the Tariff Commission, delivered in the House of Representatives, May 5th, 1882, the Hon. Samuel J. Randall said: "I do not regret the tariff enacted upon the ground of protection simply for the sake of protection, because I doubt the existence of any constitutional warrant for any such construction or the grant of any such power."

It is possible, even probable, that the telegraph strike will end in a few days. The submission of the strikers. They have been so feeble; their wants are pressing, and they must succumb to fate.

It is a public thief and a common defamer of honest men. He would not, and should not, be believed in his venal accusations against those who employed him to carry Indiana in 1880 by debauchery and fraud, and then deserting him when the Indiana bar had been secured.

Another Victim for Niagara Falls. On next Tuesday afternoon Captain Julius D. Rhodes, the diver and swimmer, will attempt to pass through the rapids in a suit of cork armor.

The common custom of Congressional investigations solely for partisan purposes, has become offensive to the country, but the corrupt control of a Presidential election by any party, and the position of the power of both the Executive and the Judicial departments of the government to debauch elections, demand the most exhaustive exposure and the sternest punishment.

Stand Firm for the Right.

The reasons for obedience to the constitutional mandate that this legislature shall pass appropriation laws, are as strong as they were when Gov. Pattison issued his proclamation, so universally approved, convening an extra session.
