It's too bad, Sir or Madam, but don't get frightened. Your hair is falling off—that's certain. A glance in the mirror, or an in-vestigating committe of fingers tell the dis-mal story. We won't discuss the possible cause. It's enough that Parker's Hair Bal-sam used now will prevent further destruction. Is your hair somewhat gray, too, and crisp? Alas, yes. The Balsam will give back the original color, softness and gloss. Not a dye, not oily, elegantly perfumed, a perfect dressing.

Gents—Feeling grateful for what your medicine has done for me, I desire to make the following statement: I desire to make the following statement: For two years or more I have suffered from rheumatism. Much of the time I could not dress myself nor put food to my mouth, and suffered the most intense pain all the while. Some five weeks since I was persuaded to try your rheumatic syrup. Before I had used two bottles, the pain had all left, so that I slent soundly nights: I fore I had used two bottles, the pain had all left, so that I slept soundly nights; I can now dress myself and need no one to feed me, and, in fact feel as well as ever I did in my life, all from the use of the best

WILL WONDERS EVER CRASE? Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Jan. 9, 1883.
Mr. Phelps, Dear Sir—I consider it my duty to tell you how much good your Rheumatic Elixir has done me. For ten years I had Rheumatism in my left arm and last fall it extended through my whole body and limbs. I could hardly turn in bed, and several days I could neither feed myself nor walk without sticks. I took everything that I could hear of, but got no better, and I began to get discouraged. Mr. Good, the druggist, advised me to take Phelps' Rheumatic Elixir. I did so, and after having taken the first bottle I felt sat-isfied that it was helping me. When I had taken three bottles I was entirely cured. I feel very grateful for what your medicine has done for me. I will cheerfully recom mend it to those afflicted with Rheuma tism. You can use my name as you wish in behalf of your Elixir. Yours, with many thanks, CHAS. H. KNIFFEN, No. 14 Magnolia Avenue, Wilkes-Barre, $2,500 VERSUS $1.50. "I spent $2,500, with other doctors, writes Mr. J. W. Thornton, of Claiborn

Miss., "Samaritan Nervine however alone cured my son of fits." This is on par with hundreds of others, speedy but thorough. If C. A. Kleim, the Druggist, does not succeed it is not for the want of faith. He has such faith in Dr. Bosanko's Cough and Lung syrup as a remedy for Coughs, Colds, Consumption, and Lung Affections, that he gives a bottle free to each and every one who is in need of a medicine of this kind.
