BLOOMSBURG, PA. FRIDAY, JANUARY, 18 1884.

Governor George Hoadley of Ohio was invagurated at Columbus on the Congressman Hewitt denies the story set affoat concerning his conduct in the O'Donnell case.

The Pardon Board exercised no clemency in any of the cases heard by it at its January meeting.

States Senator of Ohio by the Legislature of that state on Tuesday. Speaker Carlisle will be given a reception by the Commonwealth Club of Philadelphia on Saturday evening. The trial of James Nutt, for the killing of N. L. Dakes is in progress at Pittsburg, having been removed from ittsburg, having been removed from yiding for the r gulation of, voluntary tribunals, to adjust disputes between employees and employers, in the iron, steel, glass, textile fabrics, and coal Fayette county. been reported favorably by a majority of the congressional committee. A mi nority report has also been made opposing the bill. It will probably pass the House, but may have some trouble in the Senate. In the Senate on Monday Senator Anthony of Rhode Island was elected Vice-President of the United States, and presiding officer of the Senate. He declined the honor on account of ill

Senator Edmunds to the position. The Winter Carnival will be celebrated in Montreal during the week com-mencing February 4. Lord Lansdowne, the Governor General of Canada, has accepted an invitation to be present. Ten thousand blocks of ice will be used in the construction of the ice palace.

The Republican conventions in Phil adelphia last week nominated Smith for Mayor, Pirie for tax receiver, and Warwick for city solicitor. The fail-ure to renominate John Hunter for tax receiver has caused great dissatisfac-tion, and the outlook now is that the whole republican ticket will be defeated. The Democrats will probably nominate King Hunter, and Sheppard, and if they do, they will elect them, Hunter has already consented to rnn as a People's candidate.

OUR ELECTIONEERING SYSTEM.

The indications now are that there will be from twenty to thirty Demo-cratic candidates in the field this year asking for county offices. An active and thorough canvass will undoubtedly be made by each one of these, and it is right and proper that every man should do all in his power, not exceed-ing the limits prescribed by law, to secure favorable action in his behalf by the county convention. In order that the candidate may know what these limits are, he should familiarize himself with the rules of his party, and with the several Acts of Assembly relating to the subject, and govern himself accordingly.

The system of electioneering that has grown up in this county, and elsewhere, is to be regretted. Any man who asks for preferment is compelled to spend weeks, and even months, in travelling through the townships, going from door to door, soliciting votes. is a great tax upon his time and purse, and cannot be otherwise than humiliating, in many cases. While it is an inconvenience to the candidate, it is also an annoyance to many who are subjected to these solicitations. The farmer is stopped in the midst of his work, the mechanic is obliged to lay down his tools, the business man to close his books, each to be told of the special demands which the applicant has upon the party. And this is re peated twenty or thirty or more time within the space of a few weeks. The practice is a frequent topic of conversation, and whenever it is discussed it is condemned, and yet it has so engrafted itself on our political system that it seems almost impossible to abandon it. No one would rejoice more than candidates if it were abol ished, but, the one thing that compels its continuance is the unfortunate fact that there is a large number of voters whose harvest is when candidates are on the wing and whose votes are cast generally for the man whose liberality most trequently exhibited at the wayside inn. They are not the men men who lead public sentiment in their respective localities, but they are the leeches of society who measure the claims and qualifications of the candidate by his capacity for "treating," and who consider him the best fellow who allows himself to be the most co piously bled.

Another, and smaller, class look upon voting as a mere means of conterring a favor upon another, and therefore vote for those who ask them to do so, without regard to qualifications, on the ground that if their vote is not worth asking for, it is not worth having. This, too, is wrong. The right of suffrage is the safeguard of the people, and should be exercised with caution, by voting for the best men, whether personally invited to do so or not. We do not mean to say that no candidate should solicit votes but the fact that a vote has not been solicited by any particular candidate should not, of itself, be sufficient reason for refusing to vote for him. In other words, every voter should inform himself of the qualifications of all candidates and then vote for those he considers the best, regardless of solici

There is but one way that this prac tice can be stopped, and that is by an agreement among caudidates not to use the methods that have been employed for years, and a rigid adherence to the agreement. If every one would take his chances of election without spending two or three months in travelling over the county, all would relative to discrimination by railroads stand on an equal footing, just as they do when all travel. This may seem impracticable, but the only difficulty in the way of carrying it out is the dan-ger that all would not adhere scrupulously to their covenant. It is not probable, nor hardly possi ble, that such a change in our system of electioneering can be effected this vear, but as no reform can be effected without previous agitation and discussion, we begin in time, with the hope that in the near future something may be accomplished in this direction for sell by false beams, scales, weights, or the benefit of candidates and voters.

Rupture

Its relief and cure as certain as day follows day by Dr. J. A. SHERMAN'S method, without the Injury trusses inflict, hinderance from labor or danger of inflamed or strangulated rupture, of which thous-ands die yearly. No one is safe with rupture and truss; both are a physical and mental tax, triin the nervous system, induce kidney, bladder and other organic alliments which effect general health more than age or labor; besides effecting manhood and destroying all incentives to social pleasure. These distressing aliments by Dr. Sherman's treatment, are avoided, and where they exist removed in patients any age. No man is safe who has a rupture, though everyone who has died from it felt so. The horrors of strangulated rupture are equaled only by hydrophobia. Since the reduction of Dr. Sherman's terms thousands are coming from all parts of the country for treatment, even those examined years ago. Patients from abroad can receive treatment and leave for home same day. Bound books mailed for 10 cts. containing valuable information, and continued endorsements for a period of thirty-five years from physicians, elegymen, merchants and farmers who have been cured.
