

The Columbian.

BLOOMSBURG, PA. FRIDAY, MARCH 7, 1884.

Correct Railroad Time Table.

Table with 4 columns: Direction, Station, Time, and Notes. Includes routes to Philadelphia, Harrisburg, and York.

Public Sales.

The administrator of Samuel Hagenbuch will sell personal property in Centre township on Thursday March 27th at 10 o'clock.

Sleeping Together.

Somebody has said that more quarrels occur between brothers, between sisters, between hired girls, between clerks in stores, between apprentices in mechanics shops, between hired men, between husbands and wives, owing to electrical changes which their nervous systems undergo by lodging together night after night under the same bedclothes than by any other disturbing cause.

The Care of Children.

Coughs and colds are prevalent now, especially among children, too often from the ignorance or carelessness of the parents. Many mothers appear to accept with resignation the repeated and violent colds from which their children suffer as providential and unavoidable.

A Strange Horse Disease.

The new horse disease known as the Arizona, which has been afflicting horses in the eastern cities, has reached Pennsylvania and a number of animals are reported as being affected.

The Coming Railway Ticket.

A new kind of railway ticket is coming to the front. It is best explained by taking the Grand Trunk as an example. That road prints a book of tickets containing 1,000 or 500 or 100 tickets on a page, each ticket good for one mile.

Fees of Officials.

What justices and constables receive in criminal cases. Clerk Kahler, of Dauphin county, has prepared a neat pocket calendar of the fees of aldermen, justices of the peace and constables in criminal cases.

The Meat-Man Deal.

It was learned Monday evening that a peculiar character died suddenly at the Wilkesbarre hospital, giving the name of T. B. Vaine, of Louisiana.

Shooting at Hazleton.

Edwin Botheras shot William Nichols at the street at Hazleton last Saturday night about 8 o'clock. The two men met at the former accused Nichols of being too intimate with his niece.

Still in Litigation.

Simon P. Kase, formerly of this place, who originated and built the Danville, Hazleton and Wilkesbarre Railroad, is still in litigation with that company which has been before the courts for the past fourteen years.

A Journalistic Club.

A great deal has been said concerning the organization of a Journalistic club in this county. The club was organized generally, but this is all that has been accomplished thus far.

The Sixth Annual Purim Ball.

The Sixth Annual Purim Ball Masque will be held at the Danville Opera House on Wednesday, March 13th. This is considered a prominent social event in Danville. The best of order always prevails, and the finest music is furnished.
