Dennis S. Doyle writes us to correct a statement made last week concerning the manner of Richard Coliban's death in the Continental colliery at Centralia. He says the supports did not give out, but that "the collar was raised up three feet at one end with a block of timber to hold it there until the miners and laborers went to shove the car in again, expecting to have the collar standing for a good lift with one end three feet off the bottom, but instead they found the poor fellow's head fast under the collar, as the deceased persisted in creeping under the raised end when he might have stepped over or gone round it." We know nothing of the facts, and give this statement as we got it.

FOR THE PUBLIC.

Respectfully,
Ggo. E. Hovr,
Mr. Phelps': Your Rheumatic Elixir is going to be a big thing here. Am satisfied the time is not far distant. Please send me another gross. Very respectfully, Apothecary, Haverford Avenue, Phila.

WANT OF FAITH.

If C. A. Kleim, the Druggist, does not succeed it is not for the want of faith. He has such faith in Dr. Bosanko's Cough and Lung syrup as a remedy for Coughs, Colds, Consumption, and Lung Affections, that he gives a bottle free to each and every one who is in need of a medicine of this kind.

MR. GOUGH ON SHEE HATS. "It would be no violation of the com-mandment," said John B. Gouge, "if a man were to fall down and worship the silk hat, for it is not made in the likeness silk hat, for it is not made in the likeness of anything in heaven, or on earth, or in the waters which are under the earth." Besides it heats the head and causes the hair to fall off. Parker's Hair Balsam will stop that and restore the original color to gray or faded hair. Not oily, not a dye, beneficial, deliciously perfumed. A perfect hair dressing. 50c. All druggists.

ANDREW DESMOND'S PRAISES. Dear Sir—I lay on my side for four long months without any relief until I commen-ced taking Phelps' Rheumatic Elixir. It is the best medicine I ever used. To-day is the best day I have seen in twelve months. I thank you and God Almighty and no one else for my relief. I have lived and done public business in Geneva, N. Y., for the public business in Geneva, N. 1., for the last twenty, therefore have many acquain-tances that call around and see me daily and to ask about Phelps' Elixir for them-selves or for some of their friends. I praise it highly. You do the talking and sign my name as my tongue could not do it justice Andrew Dramond, Grocer.
