Capital Punishment in Pennsylvania.

The Board of Public Charities of Pennsylvania has collected the statistics of capital executions from 1778 down to the present time. By the law of 1718 treason, murder, robbery, burglary, rape, crime against nature, malicious mischief, maiming, manslaughter by stabbing, and arson were made capital crimes. Subsequently counterfeiting bills of credit or current coin was added to the list of capital crimes. These laws remained in force till 1786, when robbery, burglary and one or two other capital offenses were made punishable by servitude at hard labor. In 1794 capital punishment for all crimes except murder in the first degree was abolished.

The total number of executions from 1778 to 1883, both years inclusive, a period of one hundred and six years, was 266. Of the total one hundred and six included in the statement there were twenty-eight years in which no executions occurred, the year 1864 being the last year that passed without an execution. Strange as it may seem, the greatest number of executions taking place in any one year was in 1779, when eighteen persons were hanged. Ninety-eight years afterwards, 1877, the number of executions rose to six teen and just a century after, in 1879, there were ten, the famous Mollie Maguire executions having taken place during those years.

Aside from these three exceptional years—the first taking place during the turbulent period of the Revolution and the two last growing out of the coal region reign of terror—there is nothing in the figures to indicate particular epochs or periods of crime. It is to be observed, however, that the ratio of executions has not increased in proportion to the increase of population, probably because more men escape who ought to be hung than formerly, owing to the growing reluctance of juries to send a human being to his death. All executions were public until 1834, since which time they have taken place in the jail yards and only a small number of spectators admitted.

These figures are chiefly valuable in showing how the law of averages obtains in the tending to capital crimes as in everything else. The executions in the State during the first year after the law made murder the only capital crime numbered two, and during the last, three, while the average for the whole period is, as before stated, only two and one-half—*Phila. As to the Tart Strawberry.

VARIOUS WAYS IN WHICH THE DELICIOUS RED FELLOW MAY BE EATEN.

From the Boston Journal.

As the strawberry season is at hand, a few ideas regarding the disposal of the delicious berry might be timely. Here is one of the best recipes for strawberry shortcake: One pint sifted flour, ½ teaspoonful salt, scant; ½ teaspoonful soda, measured after pulverizing; 1 full teaspoonful cream of tartar (on it if sour milk be used), mixed together and sift two or three times; ¼ cup butter, 1 cup sweet milk or cold water. Rub in the butter, or melt the butter and add it hot with the milk, gradually mixing and cutting with a knife, and use just enough to make it of light, spongy consistency. Either bake on a griddle or in the oven. When baked tear open and spread each half of the cakes with softened butter. Put half of the cakes on a hot plate. Mash a pint of strawberries, sweeten to taste, put a large spoonful on each cake; then put another layer of cakes and whole berries, well sugared. Serve with cream.

Strawberry charlotte: Line a bowl with strawberries and fill with Bavarian cream. The cream is made up of ½ box gelatine, ¼ cup cold water soaked together. Whip one pint of cream till you have three pints of the whip. Boil the remainder with ½ cup sugar and when boiling add the gelatine. Add 1 teaspoonful vanilla. When the mixture is cold add whipped cream.

Strawberry sherbet: One pint berry juice, 1 pint sugar, 1 pint water, juice 2 lemons, 1 table-spoonful, gelatine. Or, 1 pint preserved fruit, a cup sugar, 1 quart water, 2 lemons, tablespoouful gelatine.

Making a Railroad.

When the war closed one of the Georgia railroads hadn't a depot or freight house on its line, and its rolling stock consisted of two old locomotives and four flat cars. These couldn't roll until new ties and rails were laid, and the outlook was dubious enough. However, the president called a meeting of the board to see what could be done. When he had stated the condition of the track and equipment, he added that the company hadn't a dollar in cash, and no collateral to borrow money on. He then asked what should be done.

"I move we declare a dividend of 10 per cent.," boldly replied one of the directors.

It was a thunderclap that knocked them all down; but he followed it up by offering to loan the company $32,000 to make the dividend, and a dividend was decided on. The stock at once leaped from 34 to 90 cents, and in a year it was held 108 and paying dividends on that.—Wall Street News.

USELESSNESS OF BLINDERS.—One of the most accountable of follies is that of compelling horses to wear blinders. They are the cause of more run-aways and other accidents than all the railroads in the country. Men and horses are always more frightened at noises they cannot account for than at anything else. Allow a horse to see everything about him and he soon loses his timidity. Blinders are liable to impair the eyesight, by keeping the air from the eyes and shortening the vision. Horses are constantly being struck by objects that they would avoid if opportunity were given them to do so. Hardly a day passes in the crowded streets of the city that we do not see horses wounded by some passing vehicle that they were unable to see until it approached to near to be avoided. A writer says: I drove a horse for two years who was never safe, and at times was almost unmanageable from fear. I took off his blinders and used an open bridle for two years more, during which time a child could drive him safely; indeed a lad of ten years owns him and uses him exclusively. Were he to put blinders on him again he would be unmanageable.

Kentucky expects to raise this season the largest crop of tobacco ever grown in the State.

Logan smokes. For weeks he will not light a cigar, and then he will smoke constantly.

Some of the papers are discussing "Congressional tea." What is wanted in Congress is a little more digni-tea.

CARE OF POTATOES IN SPRING.—A potato is dry and mealy because of the starch it contains, but when the sprouts begin to push out in spring, portions of the starch are changed or consumed by the growing sprouts, thus leaving the substance of the potato more or less watery and unpalatable. Several methods are practiced for keeping potatoes in eating condition at this season of the year. In a deep, cold cellar they will keep quite late without special care, but in most cellars the sprouts will push out several inches in length before the first of May.

Dipping potatoes in hot water, and letting them remain a few seconds, or just long enough to kill the germs without cooking the skin, has been practised with success by a few experimenters, but much care is required to do the work nicely. Strong brine has been lately recommended for the same purpose, from one to two minutes only being required to kill the buds, and prevent further sprouting. But the simplest method we have tried, one that has proved entirely satisfactory for many years, is, to select as many potatoes in April as will be required for table use till the new crop is ready to dig, and keep them in barrels which are to be emptied from one to another about once a week. The pouring of the potatoes from one barrel to another bruises and kills the sprouts so they have no time to change or consume the starch of the potato. Two men will handle a large quantity of potatoes in this way in a very few minutes each week.—N. E. Farmer.

Thousands Hastened to their Graves!

Relying on testimonials written in vivid glowing language of some miraculous cures made by some largely puffed up doctor or patent medicine has hastened thousands to their graves; believing in their almost insane faith that the same miracle will be performed on them, and that these testimonials make the cures, while the so called medicine is all the time hastening them to their graves. We have avoided publishing testimonials, as they do not make the cures, although we have

of them, of the most wonderful cures, voluntarily sent us. It is our medicine, Hop Bitters that makes the cures. It has never failed and never can. We will give reference to any one for any disease similar to their own if desired, or will refer to any neighbor, as there is not a neighborhood in the known world but can show its cures by Hop Bitters.

A LOSING JOKE.

A prominent physician of Pittsburg said to a lady patient who was complaining of her continued ill health, and of his inability to cure her, jokingly said: "Try Hop Bitters!" The lady took it in earnest and used the Bitters from which she obtained permanent health. She now laughs at the doctor for his joke, but he is not so well pleased with it, as it cost him a good patient.

FEES OF DOCTORS.

The fee of doctors is an item that very many persons are interested in. We believe the schedule for visits is $3.00, which would tax a man confined to his bed for a year, and in need of a daily visit, over $1,000 a year for medical attendance alone! And one single bottle of Hop Bitters taken in time would save the $1,000 and all the year's sickness.

A LADY'S WISH.

"Oh, how I do wish my skin was as clear and soft as yours," said a lady to her friend. "You can easily make it so," answered the friend. "How?" inquired the first lady. "By using Hop Bitters that makes pure, rich blood and blooming health. It did for me as you observe."

GIVEN UP BY THE DOCTORS

"Is it possible that Mr. Godfrey is up and at work, and cured by so simple a remedy?" "I assure you it is true that he is entirely cured, and with nothing but Hop Bitters, and only ten days ago the doctors gave him up and said he must die, from Kidney and Liver trouble!"
