Notice to Correspondents.
In order to save many communications from the waste basket we make the following suggestions to local correspondents: The only use of the initials, and write as plain as possible; give only the local news that is of some interest to the community, such as accidents, improvements, marriages, deaths, matters relating to schools and churches, business enterprises, changes of restaurants, and the like. Wait appear to be jokes at the expense of others, or personal matters giving only one name or initials or a nickname, will not be printed under any circumstances. Such items, unless given in full, will not be printed, the full name of the writer must always be given, but will not be printed unless requested.

By an oversight of the proof-reader last week the name of P. A. Evans was announced for treasurer as a resident of Bloomsburg. Mr. Evans was born and reared in Montour township, this county, on the place where he now resides.

Funerals.—A desirable store property of the late A. B. Vanleer at Bloomsburg. The goods will be sold separately, or the goods and building together. Apply to A. C.

The Alleghenian Literary Society will hold a festival in Evans' Hall on Friday and Saturday evenings June 13th and 14th.
Every effort will be made to give all a grand treat. Good music will be in attendance.

The entire Senior Class of the Normal School, numbering 46, passed a very creditable examination. The committee examined Monday, Tuesday and part of Wednesday in the work of examining, and awarded diplomas to all.

John C. Wenner brought to this office Wednesday the slough of two black snakes which he found in the woods near Canby.
The one measured five and one-half feet, the other five. They were both found near each other.

The East Susquehanna Classis of the Reformed Church met in annual session in this place on Wednesday evening. This ecclesiastical body embraced twenty old pastoral churches in the counties of Dan-phill, Schuylkill, Northumberland, Montour, Columbia, Luzerne, Sullivan and Bradford.

There was a cavalcade in Shenandoah last week, by which six colliers are affected.
Thomas Christ, a laborer was buried beneath the fallen altar. He had $1300 about his person when carried down. He had no faith in banks, and always carried his money about him. His body cannot be recovered. He leaves a wife and five children.

We notice a number of our exchanges are denouncing the "Rocheester Silk Company" as frauds. We are sorry for their neighbors on a fishing expedition. They should beware of those persons who make such liberal offers and agree to pay without bills being sent. The best plan to purse is to require payment in advance from such liberal persons.

A stenographic report of the proceedings of the last Democratic State Convention, in Allentown, April 9, has been published by the State Committee. It is a pamphlet of 30 pages, uniform in appearance with the similar publication for 1883. Single copies can be had on application (with entirely the price of two cents) to W. U.
Hessert, Chairman, Lancaster, Pa.

The Roaringville Cornet Band will hold a festival in Yeager's grove and in the grove near Station, on Friday and Saturday, day and evening of July 4th and 5th.
The Luicerville Cornet Band will furnish music for the occasion. Three able orators will be present on Friday afternoon and deliver orations in memory of the great Independence day.

Sumner Riggs, a Cherokee Indian who has been living at Robinson with W. B.
Mathers for three years past, went to Wil-kesport last week and stopped at the Park Hotel. On returning Friday night he blew out the gas, and but for the discovery of escaping gas, would have been suffocated.
He was immediately taken to a physician and was called in to resuscitate him.
Riggs returned home on Saturday.

The United States Circuit Court on Monday appointed Edwin M. Lewis, George M. Keim and Stephen A. Caldwell as receivers of the Philadelphia and Reading road, and Coal and Iron Company. The directors of the company by resolution made application for the appointment. The order authorizes the receivers to operate the railroads, mines and other works, and requires them to enter security in the sum of $500,000 for the proper performance of duty.

We take the following dispatch from the papers of Monday: Friday night six attempts were made to set fire to Danville.
Almost simultaneously five bars were fired in different parts of the town, and a house, four of these were totally destroyed, together with their contents. In the Third ward, about the same time a man was surprised when he was just about to set fire to a lively stable. He succeeded, however, in making his escape. The town council held a meeting Saturday and offered a reward of $200 for the arrest and conviction of the incendiaries. Extraordinary precautions have been taken to protect the town from further injury.

Rohr McHenry has a large quantity of lumber stored in his lumber yard.
Dr. McHenry's new building is approaching completion. When done it will be the first business place in the village.
Decorations Day was duly observed here.
The procession consisted of the Benton Band, old soldiers, and Sunday school children, and after the strewing of flowers over the graves of the deceased soldiers, a great many went to the grove, near town where appropriate addresses were made by Revs. Kinter, Savage and Messenger. An arch of evergreen was erected over Main street, above A. & H. McHenry's store, and another at the Exchange Hotel, which was elaborately decorated with flags. In the evening the Shambling Ban gave on the town a visit and discoursed some excellent music. They stayed over night and returned home Saturday morning.

W. W. Hess will have one of the finest places in this section when completed.
He is erecting a new house and barn on his farm near Stillwater. The barn is an immense structure, and will be one of the largest in the county.

Troubling parties pass through their fishing, some of which catch their fish, while others buy them. The fish are not very large, but seem to be quite numerous.

The Exchange Hotel maintains its reputation as a first class hostelry, under the management of Mram Hess, and his wife.
Buckwheat cakes, the best in the county, are still on the bill of fare for breakfast.
C. B. McHenry of Stillwater is breaking in a team of sorrel two year olds. They will make a handsome team.

The hamlet of Stillwater can boast of more handsome residences than any place of its size in the county.

One Cent Postage on Newspaper.
The Senate on Monday passed the House bill fixing the rate of postage on mail matter of the second class, when sent by persons other than the publisher or news agents. The bill as it came from the House, fixed one cent as the rate of postage on newspapers weighing three ounces or less. Mr. Tracy explained that the Senate Committee on Post Offices and Post Roads had found that some of the large news papers weighed a little over three ounces, and had therefore extended the newspaper limit of weight for one cent postage to four ounces. The bill passed the Senate with this amendment.

Mr. Susan Fry who has been living with her son-in-law Stephen Knorr, for some time past, died on Monday morning, aged 76 years, 3 months and 13 days. She was born in Bethlehem, December 30, 1798, and was brought to this town by her parents when she was five weeks old. Her father's name was Long, who was buried under the corner of the pavement is located that surrounds the Episcopal church.
Mrs. Fry was confirmed by Rev. Peter Kestler, the second of the four founders of the Evangelical Lutheran church of Bloomsburg, of which she was a commu-nicant for 70 years. She has been a widow 11 years. She lived with husband 60 years.
Her descendants number as follows: 8 children, 63 grandchildren, 104 great grandchildren and 3 great-great-grandchildren. The body was interred in the old Lutheran burial ground on Wednesday morning.

Funerals.—The front room, second floor, of the Cotnam's building, one of the best rooms for an office in town. Heated by steam, lighted by gas, water on same foot, apply to Geo. E. Ewell. If Wellersville.

Children's day June 8th. Services 9:30 p. m. Rev. Chilcoat will officiate.

A vote of thanks was given by the Sunday school to Miss Magrawe and Miss Laura Fisher for the many favors brought from the Sunday School Convention held at Millville.

Miss Millie Kistler of Canby was the guest of Miss Jessie Appelman Sunday last.

Mrs. Isaac Dildine has gone to Ohio to visit her son, Dr. Drake. Her daughter Mrs. F. Vanderlicke of Bloomsburg accompanied her. They will be gone for several weeks.

Miss Ida Kistler will close her school by giving an entertainment in the evening.

Seybert to Pay the Costs.
Among the cases presented to the Grand Jury last week were seven returns for keeping tripping horses made by Constable Richard Brennan, of Salem township, against William Gerston, George Barnard, Homer Britton, A. D. Seeley, James Low, William Triglo, and Reuben Meyer. When the cases were examined by the Grand Jury it turned out that the parties were all residents of Columbia county. The returns had been made by the constable on information given by D. P. Seybert. The jury promptly ignored the bills and ordered Seybert to pay the costs. He being in the custody of the grand jury at the time was arrested and taken before the court by whom he was sentenced to pay the costs in each case or give security to do so within ten days and stand committed until the sentence is complied with. He succeeded in finding some one to become his security for the payment of the costs and was set at liberty.—Wiken Barra Record.

Centre.
Creasy and Hess are running their saw mill to full extent.
On Saturday 105 persons, consisting of young and old gathered at Hess' Island to have a general fish. Some fishing, about the creek and boat riding. Simon Sitter caught the most fish in number but Stewart Henry the largest. Wm. Hilday led by the honor of being the best marksman. They intend making some improvements before meeting again.

Mr. and Mrs. Eran Sloan and son drove through Centre on Sunday.

Among the visitors at church on Sunday were Mr. and Miss Campbell from Sunbury, M. L. Keller from Lightstreet, Messrs.
Fisher and Miller from Mainville, and Miss Henry from Danville.

Some of the young folks attended the festival at Afton on Saturday evening. I think they must have succeeded by their pleasant conversation on Sunday.

Some of the citizens spent Monday evening at J. L. Crawford's in Lightstreet, to re-visit "Gilly" that he was 17.

Hawkeye.
Mr. George McHenry of this place was wedded to Miss Fry of Nesquehony, on Saturday evening, by Rev. W. Castell, of Reynoldsville, Pa.

Rev. W. Cattle, of Reynoldsville, at one time pastor of the Baptist church of Berwick, has been spending the past week with friends here. He preached in the Baptist church both morning and evening last Sunday.

Mr. S. T. Dimmick, the general secretary of the Y. M. C. A. has arrived and entered upon his duties.

Ground will be broken in the course of a few weeks for the erection of the new Y.
M. C. A. hall. This is expected to be a fine building and will certainly add greatly to the appearance of our little borough.

As Berwick does not possess a public park, the cemetery is the resort of many who seek a cool and shaded spot in which to commune with Nature. There is no doubt that our cemetery presents as picturesque an appearance as any in the county, for which O. H. P. Kitchin deserves praise.

The frosts last week it is feared, did considerable damage to garden truck. J.
Hoff reports nearly all of the handsome and costly flowers, which had been just planted in the yard of Mrs. Lizzie Jackson, to have been destroyed.

Local mouthed politicians hereabouts are waxing warm.
Decorations Day here was observed with due respect to the occasion. A parade in front of one hundred little girls dressed in white and the different orders and regiments participated was one feature of the day. Late in the afternoon a quiet game of baseball was played between Berwick and Bloom which resulted in favor of the former, the score being 19 to 23. Considerable drunkenness was noticed, yet no disturbances occurred.

Kimber Cleaver, of Catawissa, was in town on business on Tuesday.

LOCAL NOTICES.

Minis.
The County Sunday School Convention was enjoyed by all, and resulted in good, as more interest is manifested in the work and two new schools have since been organized in this township.

The festival on Friday and Saturday evening was a success and judging from appearances, a harvest for the hotels. For shame boys, stop and think!

Messrs. Chas. Hess of Mt. Carmel and Geo. W. Welsh of Watsontown were among the visitors of this place last week.

Joe Snyder led this place for Chicago on Monday the 2nd inst. Expects to be nominated of course.

Owners of property on Sauer Kraut street are looking for a good rain to dispose of the plants.

The new School Board was organized on Monday with the following officers: President, Chas. Gearhart; secretary, E. Swepp-enberg; treasurer, Samuel Nuss.

The attention of pedlers and hawkers is called to the law of this county by notices posted in this township. Should they fail to heed, some of them no doubt will pay by experience.

We have another enterprise in town in the way of a new butcher. Mr. R. J. Winterstein will double do a Roasting business.

Centra.
The small-pox patients, we are pleased to note, are coming around nicely, and will be well in a few weeks. The disease is still confined to the one house, and Burgess Dyke and the Board of Health are doing everything imaginable to keep it from spreading. Several dogs have been shot by the Burgess for going near the infected house, and gum and pine logs are kept burning in front of the building as disinfectants. Dr. Gwinnar has been appointed physician with a salary of $150 per month.

A young son of James McBrearty, fell down a flight of steps on Monday and broke his arm.

The High School entertainment of last week was a success in every particular.
The play was very interesting and being interspersed with singing, dancing, etc., made it doubly so. Those of the little ones who participated acquitted themselves in a manner, very creditable to themselves and teachers. The singing by Messrs. Kelly, Lake and Curran, and dancing by Mr.
O'Neal was very good. The proceeds of the entertainment will be used to furnish books for the library.

Richard Brennan has been under treatment at the Miners Hospital for a few months, but has been able to get out for a short time, and is now at home.
He is now able to resume work again.
Jack Crawford, a well known temperance advocate, of town, and a butcher from Mt. Carmel had a dispute a few days ago, about a little affair of their own, which resulted in a fight. Crawford was best man but the butcher made him wish he was second best, as he had him arrested and made him furnish bail to appear at court.

Dr. Gwinnar is given a wide berth by every one since he took the small pox victims in hand. Even his best friends give him office the go-by.

The colliers here not worked any this week, and hundreds of men and boys can be seen on our streets. This is one great evil that we are all suffering under.
Work every day during the cold months of winter, and half time in the summer, when it should be the reverse by all means.

Rev. Denton of Harrisburg took charge of St. Ignatius' church, on Sunday. Rev.
Field is still sick in Philadelphia.

Ex-Sheriff Ent spent Monday with friends in town.

A large number of the Jersey men employed in the tunnel at the Continental left here on Monday for home.

The electric light poles are going up rapidly in Ashland, and from present indications the town will be illuminated by electricity in six or seven weeks.

Berwick.
Mr. George McHenry of this place was
