

The Columbian.

BLOOMSBURG, PA., FRIDAY, JULY 11, 1884. Correct Railroad Time Table. Trains on the Philadelphia & R. R. leave for...

The English sparrow has destroyed a vast amount of grain in this section. Some of our farmers report that in some parts of the field all the wheat has been picked from the heads before it was fit to cut.

Registration of Physicians and Surgeons. In the case of the rule to strike off the registration of Dr. Joseph L. Bauer an opinion was filed by Judge Elwell on the 1st instant, holding that a prothonotary has no authority to register as a physician and surgeon a person to whom a diploma has been issued by a medical college of another state, without the production of the diploma endorsed by the medical faculty of a medical college or university of this state.

Commemorative Exercises at the Board of Education. Since the academy is in charge of Prof. Heck the year has been a successful one. This year those graduates must pass an examination equal to that for admission to the best colleges.

President Polk's Widow. Right in the heart of Nashville stands a large, old-fashioned homestead of dull red brick, with its roof protected over the piazza, supported by great fluted pillars, and its general aspect conveying an impression of severe staidness, in pleasing variety of the distorted, would be fashionable architecture in the same neighborhood.

Business Notices. See a woman in another column, near Speer's Vineyard, picking grapes from which Speer's Port Grape Wine is made, that is so highly esteemed by the medical profession, for the use of invalids, weakly persons and the aged.

Several town properties, good location, brick or frame. About 25 acres of land in Hemlock township, partly cleared, balance well timbered. A farm of about 80 acres in Scott twp. For terms and particulars apply to Geo. E. Elwell, Bloomsburg, Pa. Feb. 29-If.

Travelers who have occasion to stop at Northumberland, will find the Burr House a very pleasant place. The house is new, well furnished, and as neat as a pin. It is kept by Mr. Burr, an old-time landholder who has been in the business for many years, and knows just what to do for the comfort of his guests.

The lighting struck the telephone wires connected with Jackson Block, Saturday evening, and the shock caused the prostration of a horse, and quite a number of people, for several minutes.

The Nanticoke S.S. does not seem to appreciate the playing of the Berwick boys, according to last week's issue. This is the first paper to grumble at the club, and small attention should be paid to the same, for such it deserves.

The farmers are busily engaged with their hay and grain. The frequent showers of late, however, interfere somewhat with the work.

About February last a party appeared at the Exchange, the upper end of this county, who purchased most of the tobacco growing in that section of the country, paying for it a price ten per cent. higher than it will bring in market to-day.

Attention, Democrats! I learn that it is being circulated that I will withdraw from the canvass. I am a candidate, and hope you will not be deceived by false reports.

Deaths. SPADE.—In Middle township, June 28th, 1884. Mrs. Sarah C. Spade, aged 82 years, 11 months, 10 days.

Miss Carl King of Friendship, N. Y., is the guest of Mrs. Paul E. Witt. Miss Louisa Hutchinson of Kingston, was the guest of Miss Martha Clark this week.

Miss Sadie Wether of Esby, was married to Mr. Thomas Worth of Wilkesbarre, at the Trinity Methodist church in the latter place, on Tuesday, July 1st. About 100 friends were present and the ceremony was performed by Rev. S. Hancock.

Mr. Hamilton, the valdicator of his class, had for his subject "The Ministry of Tears"; "What is a tear? The grandest definition I have ever heard or read is that of prince of American preachers, Dr. Talmage; he says: 'A chemist will tell you that it is made up of salt and lime and other component parts; but he misses the chief ingredients—the soul of a soured life, the victim of a bitter, tearful, broken heart standing in the eyes in briny drops, the hope and happiness of a wrecked or blasted life poured forth, eye-moisture—the tribute to the dead.'" Of tears of sorrow he spoke as "tears that burn their way down the cheeks and leave traces that cannot be blotted out, tears that bring reproaches on the brow of each one, tears that are the herald of a broken heart."
