Mrs. George Fenstemacher and son Philadelphia, visited friends in this place during the past week. Charles Unangst, Esq., of New York city, visited his parents and friends during the past week. Mrs. F. H. Jenkins of Eaton, N. Y., is visiting her brother, J. K. Bittenbender,

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Kline of Williamring the past week.

Mrs. J. H. Harman has been quite ill at her sister's at Bridgeport, Pa., where she is visiting.

Hon, J. B. Storm of Stroudsburg, came here last Saturday on an invitation from the Democrats, to speak at the ratification meeting. He remained until Monday. John C. Rutter Jr., who has been in this office for several years, has completed his apprenticeship, and severed his connection here. He is a faithful and competent workman, and if he should hereafter engage in the printing business we have no doubt of his success. He left here on Wednesday for Freeland, Luzerne county, where he will go into the drug business with his brother, Dr. E. W. Rutter. We wish him abundant prosperity in his new field. H. B. Clark has purchased an American Star bicycle. It has the small wheel in front, and is handsomely finished.

There will be a festival in the grove near Zions Church on Saturday afternoon and evening, August 2.

Mr. H. W. Vanderslice's new brick resi dence on Fifth street is progressing rapidly. It will make a nice home.

The nomination of Blaine and Logan has not been ratified by the Bloomsburg Re-publicans, and not a single flag bearing the ames of the candidates has been hung out, in the built up portions of the town-This is a fair sample of the "great enthu-siasm" that pervades that party.

Dr. Low has a new machine on his farm for loading hay. The hay is raked up in rows, and as the wagon is driven along the hay is thrown up as fast as two men can stow it away. After awhile farmers won't have anything to do but sit on the fence and watch the machinery do all the work.

An ice cream festival will be held C. Creamer's Grove near the M. E. Church, Jerseytown, Pa., on Saturday, August 2d. 1884, commencing at 1 o'clock p. m., and continuing during the afternoon and evening. All the delicacies of the season will be furnished. oright light appeared in the sky, and it soon became apparent that there was a fire somewhere. At first it was thought to be the Red Mill, but it proved to be a straw stack on the Ivey farm. The grain had been threshed during the day in the field. A separator belonging to Clark Pursel was onsumed with three wagons. How the fire started is a mystery.

G. M. Quick having withdrawn as a candidate for Prothonotary, the fight has been parrowed down to William Krickbaum and William H. Snyder. The contest will be decided at the polls on Saturday, August 9th, and one or the other will be nominated on the first ballot in the convention. This situation demands that there should be a full vote.

C. A. Prentiss has moved to Mt. Carmel where he proposes to open a hardware store, and in connection keep a general repairing department. Mr. Prentiss has had considerable experience as a machinist, and should certainly meet with success in this new field. This is the third business stand that has lately been established at Mt. Carmel by young men of Bloomsburg. It certainly speaks well for Mt. Carmel.

A genuine surprise was extended to Mr. Samuel Hagenbuch of Orangeville, on Friday of last week. He thought strange of a 19th. The rates will be low and the acsummons to go to Bloomsburg in the morning, but obeyed, and on his return home could not understand the programme. Mrs. H. and the children had prepared for the occasion in the past, and on being ushered into the presence of the assembled group he accepted the situation. Among the number we noticed Freas Fowler and wife Isaiah Bower and wife of Berwick, E. B. Hagenbuch and wife of Lightstreet, Mrs. William Hagenbuch of Bloomsburg, Wil-George Erieg, James Hagenbuch, G. M. Hagenbuch. It was an enjoyable affair, as all can attest who partook of the feast prepared for them. Mr. H. received a number of handsome presents, among which was a large rocking chair and a pair of gold spectacles from his children.

The Lutheran Missionary Festival held in Hess' Grove at Rupert on Wednesday the 23d inst. was a grand success. There were representatives from the Lutheran churches of Williamsport, Milton, Danville Catawissa, Bloomsburg, Espy, and other places. 1000 people came from Danvill done. From Milton there were eight car loads. Many came from Espy by boat Over 5000 people were on the grounds. The following named pastors from various places were present D. M. Henkel D. D. I. H. We publish elsewhere a card from William Krickbaum to the editor of the News Item, and as we are always in favor of fair play, we are constrained to say that the position taken by Mr. Krickbaum is the correct one. He ought not to be expected to answer the inquiries of a person who has not the courage to make his name public. The lower class of people, but many who would people have a right to know when a candidate for office is using improper means | Christian uprightness, are foremost in the to secure his election, but it is not right that he should be compelled to answer an lent when approached. Now let the matter be tested once for all. If any person knows that William Krickbaum, or any other candidate, has given money to secure political influence, or has sent demijohns or bottles or barrels of whiskey or beer or any other intoxicating beverages into any township or townships, or has made arrangements to carry the primary elections with money, whiskey and beer, or has done or caused or permitted to be done on his behalf, any act or thing contrary to the election laws, the person or persons having such knowledge should ome boldly forward, and show that he dimself is a good citizen by publishing the facts. Let us have the names of the persons who received the money or whiskey, let us know who sent it, and by whose order it was sent, and all about it. The funeral of Mrs. Wm. Gingles which took place last Saturday, was largely at tended. After very brief services at th houses conducted by Rev. Mr. Marr of Lewisburg, they proceeded to the Derry cemetery-the place of interment. Mrs. Gingles had been quite poorly for some time, yet the announcement of her sudder demise was a surprise and a shock to the community. In early life she was a teacher, kind and friendly, discharging he school duties faithfully and successfully making friends in whatever community she labored. She was a lady possessing many amiable qualities, was respected an beloved by all who knew her. A Card from Mr. Krickbaum.

EDITOR News Item : In your issue of July 10th, you submi several questions to me, over the signature of a nameless correspondent, who demands an answer under oath.

I deny the right of an anonymous scrib ler to put any questions to me, and assert my right to refuse an answer to them. But, if your correspondent will, over his own proper name, assert that what he implies therein is the truth, and give also the names of those to whom he alludes, he shall have a full, complete and satisfactory answer. If he refuses his name, and the names of the persons he implicates, then I pronounce him a sneak and a coward.

Ratification Meeting.

The first gun of the Presidential campaign of 1884 was fired last Saturday night, when the Democracy met to ratify the nominations of Cleveland and Henthe band, and the Opera House was well filled. The adjoining townships were represented by many prominent Democrats. The meeting was called to order by G. A. Clark, chairman of the county committee who nominated Hon, C. R. Buckalew as chairman. On taking the chair Mr. Buckslew said that he was prevented from addressing the meeting by reason of hourse. ness, but promised to give his views at some future time. He then introduced Hon. J. B. Storm. the representative in Congress from this district, who spoke for more than an hour. He discussed the isleath from starvation by relief ships Thetis | sucs between the two parties, and pointed out the many weak spots in the record of James G. Blaine. He said that any party that has been in power for twenty years, necessarily becomes corrupt, and then proceeded to demonstrate the corruption of the Republican party by referring to the dishonesty of many of its officials. The extravagant use of public funds began with the administration of Grant, who sur rounded himself with men like Bahcock and Belknap, and the Star Route thieves From that time the office holders have looked upon official position, not as a public trust, but as a personal perquisite, and men who received only small salaries amassed colossal fortunes by means which they dare not make public. entertained the audience for about th ame length of time with some good hits. Three rousing cheers were given for the ticket and the meeting adjourned, everybody being satisfied with the success of the first demonstration. An aggressive campaign will soon begin, and the people of Columbia county will have abundant opportunities to hear the issues of the day

SCRANTON, March 10, 1882.

Thirty-five years ago I was seized with Acute Rheumatism. Since that time I have never been free from it until I gave Phelphs' Rheumatic Elixir a thorough trial. It cured me, and I freely endorse it as a positive cure for chronic rheumatism.

AS WHEN SHE WAS YOUNG. I have used Parker's Hair Balsam and "I have used Parker's Hair Balsam and like it better than any similar preparation I know of," writes Mrs. Ellen Perry, wife of Rev. P. Perry, of Coldbrook Springs, Mass. "My hair was almost entirely gray, but a dollar bottle of the Balsam has restored the softness, and the brown color it had when I was young—not a single gray hair left. Since I began applying the Balsam my hair has stopped falling out, and I find that it is a perfectly harmless and agreeable dressing."
