

The Columbian.

BLOOMSBURG, PA. FRIDAY, OCTOBER 3, 1884.

PERSONAL.

Mrs. Annie Sloan is visiting friends in Philadelphia.

Mrs. Hattie Sloan is visiting at Muncy and Williamsport.

Mrs. Mame Bellas of Philadelphia, was married Tuesday (Thursday) to Mr. Joseph R. Zimmerman.

Mrs. John Zinner of Forks, started on Tuesday to see her son, A. A. Zinner, at Andover, Iowa, who has had a relapse.

Mrs. Clinton Hughes of Canaan, and Mrs. E. B. Dodson of New York City, were the guests of the Buckle Bros. the first of the week.

Mr. Oscar Achenbach of Williamsport, was in town last Thursday. He had been up to Forks to attend the funeral of his father, David Achenbach.

Prof. W. H. Schuyler has assumed charge of the Academy at West Bloomfield, Perry county. This is the 47th year of this institution. It is a boarding school for both sexes.

Rev. T. H. Cullen and wife of Freehold, N. J., were in town the first of the week. Mr. Cullen preached at the Episcopal church at morning and evening services last Sunday. He was rector of the parish for a number of years, and they have many warm friends here who are always glad to welcome them back.

Headquarters for trunks, satchels, valises, robes, &c., at David Lowenberg's.

William Christian Esig, has a large number of properties for sale at his Real Estate Agency.

Cranes' fine paper for ladies' correspondence, the best made, at the COLUMBIAN store.

Pretty suits for little boys; pretty Kitt suits for children; a large stock just received, at D. Lowenberg's.

On Sunday evening at 7 o'clock, the Rev. D. F. Stiles will deliver an address to the Grangers, in the Episcopal church. All persons are invited to attend.

Mr. Connelly of Scranton, has been nominated for Congress by the Democrats of the Twelfth district. Judge Woodward was his opponent in the conference.

Having decided not to handle paper bags, the present stock at the COLUMBIAN will be closed out at cost.

The Washington Fair will be held on October 21, 23, 25 and 24. There will be races each day. Between $1000 and $2000 are offered in premiums.

A word to the wise—The most complete and varied stock of Fall and Winter goods can now be seen at the popular store of David Lowenberg.

The M. E. Church of Bloomsburg will hold a sister supper and tea Friday evening in P. D. Black's hall on Friday and Saturday evenings of this week. All are invited to attend.

Don't forget to attend the public sale of personal property of Emeline S. Sopher on Centre Street, this coming Saturday at 9 o'clock, where you can purchase almost anything in the line of house-keeping. Three months' credit given.

A full supply of paper, tablets, pens, pencils, ink, erasers, copy books, drawing books, rulers and everything needed by school children, except school books, can be found at the COLUMBIAN store, very cheap.

P. E. Wirt, Esq., has sold a large number of his patent Fountain pens, and we hear them spoken of in the highest terms by all who have used them. They have been introduced in one of the departments at Washington, and will have a large sale all over the country.

The trial of Mr. Edson last week for hawking and peddling, occupied two days, and resulted in a verdict of not guilty, each party to pay half the costs. As this case settles the law concerning peddlers in this county, we will publish the charge of the court in full next week.

Ent Post 250, G. A. R., will attend Grand Army Day at Shamokin, Friday, October 10th, at the Bloomsburg Cornet Band will accompany them. All citizens are invited to go along. The train will leave Bloomsburg at 7 o'clock a. m., leaving Shamokin at 10:30 p. m. Fare for round trip, $1.50.

An alarm of fire called out the fire companies on Thursday evening last week. They ran down Market street to the railroad, and were there informed by persons returning from the fire that it was extinguished. It was a house at Port Noble occupied by Swank. It was fortunate that it was discovered before gaining much headway, as the fire department could have done no good, there being no water plug in that vicinity.

A. Wilkerson was indicted by the Grand Jury for keeping a bawdy house, and on Thursday of last week was convicted of court. He did not put in an appearance, however, and the case was tried in his absence. His bail will be called upon for the amount of the recognizance, but it is reported that he is worthless. No defense was attempted by the defendant, beyond the cross-examination of witnesses, and an address to the jury. Wilkerson will be sentenced when he is caught.

Mr. David Achenbach was born in Northampton county, Pa., on the 17th day of February, 1807. He died at his late residence in Orange township, this county, of diabetes, on September 22nd, 1884, aged 77 years, 7 months and 5 days. Mr. Achenbach leaves a widow and six children living. He was the father of nine in all, five boys and four girls. Calvin, John and Harriet Louisa are dead. Mr. Achenbach was well-to-do farmer, and was beloved by all that knew him. He was an excellent citizen, and a kind husband and father. His funeral was largely attended, on Thursday of last week.

A game of base ball for the championship of Columbia county was played at Danville last Saturday between the Bloom and Catawissa clubs. The game was an exciting one and resulted in favor of Bloom by a score of 14 to 4. When the news was received here some enthusiastic friends of the home club got the band out and went to the train to meet the champions. Several hundred people gathered at the station and the boys met with a warm reception. They were carried up Market street on the shoulders of the crowd, and in front of their quarters in McKinney's building repeated cheers were given. The base ball craze is now at its height.

The newest and latest styles just received in Fall hats, in stiff and soft—new, nobly and nice, at D. Lowenberg's.

THE STREETS ARE AGAIN TORN UP BY THE DIGGING OF TRENCHES FOR THE PURPOSE OF MAKING CONNECTIONS WITH THE SEWER.

Persons driving in town after night should go slow, look out for danger signals, and thereby avoid accidents.

Suits made up in city style by experienced workmen. Call and see what we can do for you, at David Lowenberg's, the fine merchant tailor of Bloomsburg.

There was a crowd at the skating rink last Tuesday evening. The band furnished music, and every body had a good time. Warren Eyer took the first prize, and S. P. Paacock the second, for graceful skating. The rink is well managed, and ought to be well patronized.

C. L. Ludlow of this town has been working with Miles Albertson at Braganza, Ga., for the last six months. He returned from the South on Thursday of last week, and reports that Mr. Albertson is doing a good business in lumber. He has 40 mules, five miles of railroad track and a locomotive, with which he hauls lumber to his mill. The mill, where a fine line of lumber is kept, are in ladies' hair dressed and heads cleaned by lady attendants. This is a new business for this town, and all those who desire that kind of work will find it a great convenience. The gentlemen who have opened this establishment come here well recommended, and they deserve, and will not doubt receive, a liberal patronage. They are also sole agents for Davis' French Dry Goods.

It is highly amusing to read the earnest appeals of our Republican contemporaries, urging the Democrats of this county to vote for the Republican nominee for Prothonotary, because of the alleged unfairness by which Mr. Snyder obtained the nomination. There is not a man in the county who does not know that these same papers would have taken a similar position if Mr. Krickhahn had been nominated. They would have talked of corruption, of the nefarious use of money, of the influence of liquor, and all that, and would have quoted the published affidavits as proof of these charges. The COLUMBIAN would have supported the ticket, as it does now, and then these same papers that accuse us of belonging to the clique that desires Mr. Krickhahn's defeat, would have called us the "Ring" group. Notwithstanding this, Mr. Krickhahn would have been elected, if nominated, just as Mr. Snyder will be elected because he was nominated.

FOR GO DAYS.

We will sell boxed paper at greatly reduced prices. 100 boxes at 15 cents each, reduced from 25 cents, excellent quality. At the COLUMBIAN store.

PRISONER ESCAPED.

A Swisher was convicted of assault and battery in court last week, and was sentenced to three months' imprisonment and a fine and costs. The Sheriff took charge of him to conduct him to the jail, and had reached the steps of the prison, when Swisher suddenly turned and ran up Iron street, out past the car shops, and beyond to the town of Muncy. The Sheriff gave chase, but was unable to overtake him. He has not been recaptured.

JERSEYTOWN.

The corn is being out. Some of the farmers have threshed their buckwheat and report a fair yield.

Mr. John Manning, who has been in Illinois for some time, is at home.

Mr. A. Murphy was in town on Thursday.

Mr. Frank Cotner attended the Berwick Fair.

Mr. John A. Finston passed through here Friday.

Mr. A. K. Smith attended court last week.

Mr. M. E. Yeager of Greenwood, was visiting friends here Sunday.

Misses Laura Smith and Ida Stout are visiting at Berwick and Wilkesbarre.

Mr. James R. Biddle is again in the store. We are glad to see you back, James.

Capt. Allen has been quite poorly, but is slowly regaining his usual health.

Services will be held in the M. E. church Saturday evening, Sunday morning, afternoon and evening. L. Y.

BERWICK.

Mr. and Mrs. Reeder of Bellefonte, are visiting Mrs. M. W. Jackson.

Mr. Bittenbender, of the COLUMBIAN, attended the Fair last week.

Mr. L. F. Bower and family left for Carlisle on Monday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Wiederhold of Shannock, attended the Fair on Thursday.

Mr. C. A. Becker and son, Ernest, returned to Wilkesbarre on Monday.

Mr. J. Bent Laubach of Hazleton, visited this week in Berwick.

Miss McCarter of Espy, is visiting Miss Bortha Hartman.

Mr. J. M. Moorhead and lady, of Watonsville, visited his brother George over Sunday.

Mr. Isaac Hess of Dunsmuirville, is visiting friends and relatives in this place.

Misses Ida Stout and Laura Smith of Jerseytown, visited friends in town this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Garney of Scranton, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Fenstermaker during Fair.

Mr. Isaac Hess of Dunsmuirville, is visiting friends and relatives in this place.

Misses Ida Stout and Laura Smith of Jerseytown, visited friends in town this week.

Chestnuts are very plenty this year.

The rolling mill has been stopped now over a week for the want of ore.

The New York Combination showed above town last Tuesday afternoon and evening. On account of the rain the "Grand Parade" did not come off.

The Fair turned out to be a complete success, as every one had predicted. The exhibition could not be better and the stock was far better than had been expected. Over ten thousand tickets were sold, and everything passed off very nicely. With the enlargement of several of the buildings the Fair in this place will, no doubt, rank among the best.

The C. L. S. C. presented their President, Mr. L. F. Bower, with eight fine volumes of Shakespeare, last Saturday evening.

One of our esteemed citizens, Mr. S. H. Buch, died very suddenly Sunday morning of consumption. He was 71 years of age, and was a fair dealer. He had a large number of friends and relatives, and took place Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock.

Supt. Ed. Reese is off on his annual vacation, and will make the circuit from Williamsport to Boston, New York, &c.

Mrs. J. F. Kress spent last week with her Saintington friends.

L. A. Riley & Co. are making arrangements to open a meat market in connection with their mammoth store.

MATTHIAS S. APPELMAN.

In the death of Matthias S. Appelmann this community loses one of its oldest and most highly esteemed citizens. His quiet, unassuming manner prevented him from becoming conspicuous in public affairs, while it made him many friends, and gained for him the respect of all who knew him. Though not taking an active leading part in matters of public interest he was always ready and willing to follow others, and with his quiet and unobtrusive influence he encouraged every progressive step in this town during the past twenty years. He was the only son of Philip and Margaret Appelmann who were among the early settlers of this country from New Jersey, and was born on the homestead in Hemlock township, on September 6th, 1812, and resided there until 1865, when he moved to Bloomsburg. He married Lydia Billig, January 10th, 1845, whose remains he followed to the grave about four months ago. He leaves three daughters, viz: Mrs. A. Z. Stuch and Mrs. B. J. Wray, Jr., of this town, Mrs. C. Unangst of New York; and one son, L. P. Appelmann, Esq.

The funeral took place on Wednesday afternoon from the residence, the services being conducted by Rev. F. Manhart, assisted by Revs. D. J. Waller, Sr., and S. Mitchell. A large concourse of relatives and friends were in attendance.

Bargains unprecedented are now offered in Fall and Winter clothing. Elegant styles, new patterns, enticing prices. At the popular store of David Lowenberg.

ASBURY.

Mrs. Ed. Pealer is lying very low with fever.

Mrs. Charles Emery is still getting worse.

There was a large attendance at the funeral of J. F. Hutchison on Friday last. The different orders to which he belonged were in attendance. After the regular church services were gone through by the Rev. Bouse, the G. A. R. and Odd Fellows took charge, and paid their last tribute of respect to one that was beloved by all that knew him. Peace be to his ashes.

I received, this week, a copy of the Berwick Independent, speaking in most glowing terms of D. M. Kinter as a most excellent pulpit orator. I am of that opinion myself, and if Brother Kinter has been called and commissioned of God to preach the everlasting Gospel, he had better stick to it, and not meddle with politics. The Independent rather thinks that the honest Democrats will support Mr. Kinter. I think not, but will say the soreheads may, but will venture to say that no good, honest, thinking Democrats, will vote for any other man for office but those put in nomination by the Democratic convention.

The Independent says there is but one square foot of Democratic paper that supports the ticket from top to bottom, in the county, and that is the COLUMBIAN. I am happy to know that there is one paper in the county that has backbone enough to stand up for the rights of the people. The Republicans are always on the lookout for just such chances to make a break in our party.

That was what put me in power in 1869 the split in our party. Democrats arose up and let their minds run back as far as Fort Mifflin, and then ask the question "can I support Mr. Kinter?" or, in plainer words, one that has always been in sympathy with the party that dragged my fellow Democrats to filthy dungeons. Metelinks I hear them say "no, not I!" We have seen enough of the elephant.

That is the way we scanned the papers with Mr. Krickhahn in the onset, but since the convention put in nomination Mr. Snyder, I feel under obligations to support him, and the whole ticket, and give them my most hearty support in every way. I profess to be a straight, out-and-out Democrat, and have always stood up for the rights of my party. I will say in way of conclusion, Brother Kinter, if you are called to blow the Gospel trumpet, blow out until Gabriel blows his horn, and don't have the whole thing ringing in your ears: "Woe is me, if I preach not the Gospel of Christ." These words are sufficient. Hoping he will practice what he preaches.

CENTRAL.

The imprisonment and fine imposed upon James McCreary, the reporter who received here with great satisfaction. The judge and jury were not impressed with the insanity deluge as easily as our worthy "Squire."

The Hungarian, whom the peddler is languishing in jail for shooting, has entirely recovered, and is able to appear on the streets again.

Mrs. Killeen and daughter, Mary, left for Columbus, Neb., on Monday. Part of the family went there several months ago, and are delighted with their new home.

The colliers are all life this week, and hundreds of men and boys are compelled to quit gentlemen of leisure.

A Pole, named John Bolkowsky, held the lucky number which drew the organ, chance off by Mr. Killeen on Saturday. Offers from $75.00 to $100.00 were made him for his prize, but the Pole would not part with it for any amount. Inquiring why he didn't accept a good offer he blandly replied: "Me no say my luck."

The heavy rains of Sunday night were badly needed in this section, some of the colliers were compelled to haul water from Ashland to enable them to work last week.

A lad named Wilson, living at Logansville, fell from a tree while chattering on Sunday, and received several deep cuts on the head.

Johanna, a six-year-old daughter of M. Connor, died on Sunday, from a complication of diseases. The funeral took place on Tuesday, and was very largely attended.

Another batch of Hungarians left here on Monday for Hungary.

As the cars were landing on the coal plane at North Ashland leaving on Thursday, the rope broke, causing the wagons run to the bottom at almost lightning speed. The plane was considerably damaged.

A new set of dirt burrows have been placed in position at the Logan, and give proof of being able to do the work as satisfactorily as the old method.

The Buck Mountain vein has, at last, been reached in the Continental tunnel. The vein is about ten feet thick, and the coal is of a fine quality.

The Lehigh Valley Coal Company has purchased the Montana colliery, and will commence repairs at once. A tunnel will be driven to reach the vein, and the water taken from the slope. The company will not allow the running of the company store in connection with the colliery.

Flaming posters on every available fence and barn announce the coming of the "greatest show on earth" to Ashland, on Monday next. It is, of course, hailed with delight by the young folks.

The shipments of coal from the Logan mine exceed those of any colliery in the anthracite region last month.

Curry's hostler was married last week to one of our best daughters. I'll have a little news—what's yours? "Come in out of the wet," Valentin.

Elias Dreiblebs vs. Henry Knorr. Petition to satisfy mortgage filed.

Com. vs. Catharine Mangano. Assault and battery. A true bill.

Com. vs. B. F. Dallman. Perjury. A true bill.

Com. vs. G. Lefkowitzsch. This is the case in which defendant is charged with the shooting of a Hungarian at Montona. Recognition of defendant, G. P. Brady of Mahanoy, and a copy of indictment of defendant for appearance at next session and defendant discharged from custody.

In re sale of real estate of Nancy Kallender. Exceptions to the sale filed.

The following Sheriff's deals were acknowledged: To C. M. Creveling for 2 m. land in Espy, sold as the property of G. M. Baker, for $200; to P. A. Evans for 32 acres of land in Montour twp., sold as the property of G. M. Quick for $22.50; to K. Knorr for land in Mifflin township, sold as the property of S. H. Wolf for $22.50; to A. K. Walter for land sold as that of Timothy Boller for $100; to P. Platt for land sold as Lafayette Dribblebs for $304; to D. C. Black for land sold as Wm. H. Jett for $100.

On motion of C. G. Barkley Esq., and on certificate of the court of Sullivan county, G. W. Bartch was admitted as a practicing attorney.

Com. vs. J. Bauer. Case continued and recognition of defendant and Silas Johnson each in $200 for appearance at next session.

Com. vs. G. E. Eishamp. Case continued and recognition of defendant and Silas Johnson in $200 each for appearance at next session.

Com. vs. Emanuel Beltz. Nol. pros. allowed.

John Spahn and Samuel Williams were naturalized.

On petition Mary Brummetter was appointed guardian of Charles and Elders Brummetter.

Com. vs. B. F. Dallman. Case continued and recognition of defendant and C. M. Vandercloek taken in $200 each for appearance at next session.

The Grand Jury presented their report, which was read:

The grand jury inquiring into and for the body of the county of Columbia in the Commonwealth of Penna., at September sessions 1884 respectively report to the court of quarter sessions of the peace of said county:

That in the discharge of their duty they have passed upon all bills and matters submitted to them by the District Attorney and said court: That they have examined the reports of the grand jury and the public auditors in good confidence with the exception of a few repairs, we would recommend a new cap for the register under the stars on the first floor in jail, and also two window lights broken in jail.

BERWICK FAIR.

The first annual exhibition of the Lower Luzerne County and Northern Columbia County Agricultural Society which was held last week, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, September 24, 25, 26, and 27, fully met the expectations of the managers. On the opening day there was a moderate number of people, all interested in arranging their articles for exhibition. Thursday morning was cloudy and bit of rain, so that the attendance that day was not what was expected, and scarcely reached two thousand people. Friday was bright and clear, and early the people began assembling at the grounds and a moderate number of people, all interested in arranging their articles for exhibition.
