Vote for Snyder and the whole Democratic ticket.

Again we call attention of our unemployed readers to the advertisement of P. N. Nicolson & Co.

Read the advertisement of Lilley & Sleppy in another column. They have something of importance to tell you.

There was a very light fall of snow last week, Thursday. In some parts of the country it fell to the depth of five inches.

Pretty suits for little boys; pretty knit suits for children, a large stock just received, at D. Lowenberg's.

Take no stock in stories told of your candidate at the last moment. Their fidelity is proved by the fact that they are circulated too late for denial.

Reader, when you are through with this paper hand it to some voter who does not take it, and urge him to go to the polls next Tuesday and vote the Democratic ticket straight through.

If you need anything in the line of a silver or gold watch or any article of jewelry, silver ware, &c. Call at L. Bernhardt, Jewelry Store, and get the best for your money.

G. P. Stiner makes an announcement in this issue of interest to the people of Orangeville and vicinity. He is engaged in a general mercantile business, and sells very cheap for cash.

There will be bogus democratic tickets at the polls next Tuesday. See that your ticket is straight before you vote. Don't take anybody's word for it, but look for yourself.

Diphtheria is making fearful ravages all through this section. As yet we have heard of no cases in this town, but it is likely to come, and every precaution should be taken against it. Clean out your cellars and whitewash them, and remove all refuse from the premises.

Posters announcing the meetings in the several townships were printed and mailed to the committee in plenty of time to advertise the meetings. If the posters were not put up it is no fault of the Chairman of the county committee. He fully performed his part.

Do not deny yourself the pleasure of examining our new and great bargains in clothing. We are taking the lead in style, fit, assortment, goods and price. An annual demonstration will satisfy you. Call soon at the popular store of D. Lowenberg.

A republican newspaper urges the election of L. D. Kase for Register and Recorder, and calls special attention to his military record. If this has anything to do with the issue, Mr. Sterner, the democratic candidate, can show just as honorable service for his country as can Mr. Kase.

The Scandal, now the organ of the republican nominee for Prothonotary, asks democrats not to take any stock in the cry of "stick to the ticket." It was only two years ago that this same paper was begging democrats to "stick to the ticket," when the brother of the editor was a candidate for the legislature.

In view of the fact that about one-third of all the Republicans in the United States repudiate the nominees of the convention, while they profess themselves to be the true Republicans, it seems proper that the other fellows should call themselves and their place of meeting "The Blaine & Logan Club Room." Hereafter it would have been the "Republican" club room—but they are now "Whites." The glory of the G. O. P. has departed.

The republicans had a torchlight parade last Saturday night. There were some men in the ranks who are voters now, more boys who will be voters in 1888, and quite a number who may be old enough to vote for President in 1892. By drawing on the juniors they succeeded in getting out about one hundred.

The Scandal calls democrats who are urging their fellows to stick to the ticket, "diffusers who are blating this stereotyped phrase over the county like many sheep," and says they are the "first to both the ticket when occasion requires it." The Scandal means for only two years ago it was crying "stick to the ticket," and now it is blating.

Vote for Sterner and the whole Democratic ticket.

The regular straight Democratic tickets have been sent out to the respective committees, who will see that they are at the voting places on Tuesday. Any attempt to destroy or mutilate the regular tickets will avail nothing, as a large number have been printed, and distributed. In case any should fail to reach their destination the committee will please notify us on Monday.

A large number of extra copies of the Scandal were printed last week and circulated broadcast over the county. They were printed at the Republican office, and in several items advocate the election of the Republican nominee for Prothonotary. Can it be possible that there are any Democrats in this county who can be induced to vote against their party by such means?

There was no meeting at Epy on Monday night. The speakers were on hand, and a crowd had gathered, but the Republican school directors of that district cannot stand democratic truths, and so refused to allow the use of the school house. If this silly objection, there is added to his burden the fact that he is being defamed without an opportunity to answer. Have politicians no hearts?

Vote for Pohe and the whole Democratic ticket.

See that your tickets are right before voting. Democratic tickets with the name of D. M. Kinter instead of William H. Snyder will be circulated. If any body attempts to palm off on you such a ticket, prosecute him at once for the violation of the act of 13 June 1883, which forbids anyone from furnishing or supplying to anyone a ballot, falsely representing it to contain names not thereon, with intent and purpose of defrauding said voter out of his expressed choice. The fine for so doing is not to exceed one hundred dollars, or imprisonment not exceeding one year, or both, at the discretion of the court.

A very ardent republican of this town, one of the regular "loyal" kind, you know—we mean one of the kind that was drafted and got excused, or sent a substitute, or something of that sort, and who now tells how "we" put down the rebellion, and who calls democrats traitors, and here and there get names, expressed a desire to choke all the democrats. He had better go to New York, Indiana, New Jersey and other places. His party is greatly worried over the suspicion that there are altogether too many democrats in those States. By choking a few thousand the democratic majorities might be diminished.

Vote for Bryson and the whole Democratic ticket.

William H. Snyder buried another child last Friday. That fearful disease, diphtheria, entered his household and robbed him of his oldest boy, the pride of his home, only a few weeks ago, and now his second and last son has been taken from him. There are many who have been called upon to undergo the same great affliction when this terrible scourge has come upon them, but not only they, but everybody who hears of this bereavement of a loving father and mother will sympathize most deeply with them.

Since the above was written a daughter 16 years of age, the third and last child, has died.

Professor W. T. Grier of the Lewisburg University committed suicide last Sunday night.

He had been sick with typhoid fever for a few days. During the day a number of visitors called and overtaxed the patient's strength, so that when night came he was much worse. In the evening he asked for his penknife to trim his nails, which was given him. Later in the night he asked his wife for some milk and when brought he received it in a somewhat gruff and savage manner. This alarmed his wife, who called up some of the professors. Upon returning to the room her husband was found lying across the bed and covered with blood. During the wife's absence he had cut gashes with the knife on both sides of his neck, and across the abdomen and had then plunged the knife into the left breast, over the heart, where it remained when the watchers came in. It is thought that he was temporarily insane.

Suits made up in city style by experienced workmen. Call and see what we wear and how to wear it, at David Lowenberg's, the fine merchant tailor of Bloomsburg.

A report has been circulated in Homestead and other townships that W. H. Snyder offered William Krickbaum fifteen hundred dollars for his support since the convention, and it is said that such a charge will be made in the Scandal this week. As Mr. Snyder cannot now be consulted on political matters, being utterly prostrated by the loss of his third and last child who now lies dead in his house, we take the responsibility of denouncing this report as libelous. In the first place Mr. Snyder has no $1500 to offer. In the second place, he is not foolish enough to place himself within the power of his worst enemies by making such an offer; and in the third place, why is this charge kept until the last moment, when if an offer was made it was more than two weeks ago? Democrats, you may be sure that this charge, made for denial, is a desperate move on the part of the bolters to deceive you. Read it not.

Vote for Evans and the whole Democratic ticket.

Bargains unprecedented are now offered in Fall and Winter clothing. Elegant styles, new patterns, ending prices. At the popular store of David Lowenberg.

One of the most interesting features of our town is the Model School, under the energetic and skillful management of Miss Brewster. A glance down the roll this term shows children from Light Street, Buckhorn, Rupert, Catawissa, Epy, Willow Grove and Linn Ridge. Miss Andland Hagenbach, a bona fide teacher, of extended training and experience, is assistant. Prof. Niles occupies one period daily in giving to all lessons in vocal music. He is never more enthusiastic than with a class of children, and he consequently enjoys the exercise. Mrs. Gardner, the regular teacher of drawing, gives instruction to the older pupils. A glance at the penmanship of even the youngest up on the blackboards convinces the visitor that great care is given to this branch from the first day in school. The interest and proficiency of these children in Map Drawing, Arithmetic and Composition, branches generally detested, are remarkable. When it is understood that all the children are offered for twenty-five cents a week, it is not surprising that wide awake parents in our neighboring towns are improving them. Visitors are warmly welcomed all day, and occasionally a mother spends a half-day there, sometimes with so much interest that she spends the other half there also. This visitation by parents, especially mothers, stimulates the children to better work, encourages the teachers, and not only allays that anxiety every mother feels for the welfare of her children, but also cheers her, gives direction to her efforts in helping at night, and contributes powerfully toward a good understanding between her and the teachers.

Vote the Democratic ticket, the whole ticket, and nothing but the ticket.

Democratic Meetings. The meeting advertised for Mill Grove will be held at the Post-Office, on Saturday evening, November 1st.

Holmberg, on Monday night, November 3rd.

Franklin, Swamp School house, Monday night, November 3rd.

Back Horn, Dieterich's hotel, Friday night, October 31st.

For Decorating. Just received at the COLUMBIAN store a line of goods for hand-painting, consisting of Brass, Plaque, Paper Mache Leaves, crescents, crosses, circles, triangles, leaves, Holly-wood paper cutters and Photograph frames, Hammered brass plaques, &c.

Benton Meeting. On Monday evening last the Democrats of Benton held a meeting in favor of Cleveland and Hendricks. The meeting was presided over by: President, John H. Keeler; Vice Presidents, Benjamin McHenry, Geo. W. Post; Secretary, John A. Chapin.

The meeting was addressed by J. H. Maize Esq., and John G. Freese. Benton will give a good account of itself for the ticket, the whole ticket, and nothing but the ticket.

Berwick. Mr. Thos. Miles of Berwick is visiting relatives in this place.

Clem W., youngest son of Rev. W. W. Evans died Monday morning at eight o'clock of diphtheria.

Mrs. L. T. Thompson is visiting relatives in Gettysburg.

The C. L. S. C. had a very interesting meeting Tuesday evening, all members being present.

Miss Annie Adams died of typhoid fever last Friday. Other members of the family are dangerously ill.

Miss Ida Spenberg entertained a number of Berwick's young folks at her home last Thursday evening.

A little snow last Thursday followed by a few cold and windy days.

Miss Sadie Kreamer returned to her home Friday.

Dr. R. Fruit and wife of Hazleton, were visiting here last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Jackson McKee were with their friends on Sunday.

H. Smith, Esq., of Bloomsburg, was attorney for a party that had a suit at Esquire Welliver's Saturday. Mr. Smith remained over for the Democratic meeting Monday evening.

Many attended the Washingtonville fair and reported a nice time.

Saturday the showmen, the gamblers and tricksters, and the trotting horses, passed through here from Washingtonville on their way to Benton.

Notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather Monday evening the Democratic meeting in the school house was well attended and altogether a success. Dr. T. W. Swisher presided. Addresses were made by District-Attorney Buckingham, Messrs. A. L. Fritz and H. Smith.

Madison will poll her usual vote for the whole ticket. But few bolters in this township; perhaps none. L. Y.

At the residence of the bride's parents in Orangeville occurred this morning, October 29th, the wedding of Mr. Geo. W. Berwick of Bloomsburg, to Miss Clara D. Fleckenstein. On account of the recent bereavements in the bride's family the wedding was much more quiet than would otherwise have been. Nevertheless, a large company assembled. Rev. P. P. Manhart of Bloomsburg, performed the ceremony. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Bertsch, parents of the bridegroom, Mr. and Mrs. Bertsch, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Strohl, all of Munch Chunk; Mr. H. Eschman, Miss Lillie Wolf, Mrs. L. S. Kuhn, Miss Aggie Hess, Mrs. Kate Sheep of Bloomsburg; Mr. and Mrs. Ehrig of Williamsport; together with many friends from Orangeville and vicinity. The following are some of the very beautiful and valuable bridal presents received. Cash $150.00, from parents of bridegroom, gold watch and chain, a present from the bridegroom to bride, two sets silver teaspoons, a set silver tea knives, silver fish knife and fork, gold thimble, silver cake basket, fork, spoon, holder, silver receiver, two silver butter dishes, two pickle stands, set silver forks, a carving set, water set, tea set, a french clock, elegant mirror, silk quilt, easy chair, light stand, together with many fine table cloths, napkins, bed spread, &c. The magnificent bride's cake which graced the occasion was the gift of Mr. & Mrs. Ehrig of Williamsport.

The wedding breakfast was served immediately after the ceremony was all that could be desired and showed that nothing had been spared that could add to the enjoyment of the occasion.

Directly after the refreshments the bridal party left for Philadelphia followed by the usual shower of rice and old shoes, together with the good wishes of the guests. What Orangeville lost in Miss Clara, Bloomsburg will gain in Mrs. Berwick. A GUEST.

A Sportsman's Manual.

As the autumn gunning season draws nigh a demand arises for information concerning the best ranges for game, and the waterways most prolific in fowl. For the purpose of supplying such a demand, the passenger department of the Philadelphia, Wilmington and Baltimore Railroad has published a work entitled "A Sportsman's Manual for Gunners and Anglers." The little volume is an exhaustive treatise on the game birds, water-fowl and fishes of the Delaware Peninsula, their habits, and character. An excellent map of the territory, showing the location of streams, and the means of access, and handsome illustrations of the rarer specimens of birds and fish, serve both to embellish and lead interest to the book. Information as to the game laws, the time when certain game most abundant, the procurement of guides, boats, &c., and in fact everything which would make the way of the sportsman clear, is furnished in ample detail.

The book is distributed gratuitously, and may be procured by addressing James R. Wood, General Passenger Agent, Philadelphia, Wilmington and Baltimore Railroad, Philadelphia, Pa.

Don't Spoil the Record. No regular republican candidate has ever been elected in Columbia county, except commissioners, auditors and jury commissioners as provided for by the new constitution. With these exceptions no republican has held a county office except by appointment.

For 35 years we have had a democratic President, Judge, except one year when Mr. Peckham was appointed to fill the vacancy caused by Judge Woodward's resignation. For a longer time we have had democratic associate judges, with the exception of Judge Monroe who was appointed to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Judge Manu, in 1870, and who was subsequently elected as an independent. Judge Hughes was appointed in 1870 to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Judge Monroe.

Since 1880 no republican has filled the office of Prothonotary except R. H. Ringler, who was appointed in place of W. H. Est, who had been filled only by democrats, except a few months.

No republican has ever held the office of Sheriff, or Register and Recorder by election. No crookedness has ever been charged upon the party in any of these offices in all these records.

With this record, what excuse can there be now for the attempt on the part of certain democrats who are uniting with the republicans to secure the election of D. M. Kinter, the republican candidate for Prothonotary? Having kept the republicans out almost since the organization of the county in 1813, shall we now in this Presidential year of 1884, with every prospect of success before us, open the gates, and allow them to walk in and capture one of the most important county offices, just to gratify the personal spite of a few disappointed politicians? Who is running this county anyway? Is it the people? Or are they only puppets in the hands of a few dictators? If the former, they will elect Mr. Snyder by such a majority as will be a stinging rebuke to bolters for years to come. If the latter, then the democratic party may as well hang its harp on the willow, for should the bolters succeed a nomination in this county will be of little value in the future. Ten years will not heal the breach that would be made by the success of the republicans and their bolting allies. We believe that the Democracy of Columbia County is a better man than to be turned from its path by such influences.

Benton. As a neighbor was driving in with a load of corn the other day, his geese flapped their wings, cheered and applauded vociferously. They mistook him for a Blaine hippodrome. On seeing their mistake they hissed like Sam Hill.

Our people are busy husking their corn. It is a very good crop, not overly abundant, but of excellent quality. In exceedingly dry and rainless seasons there appears to be fuller and sounder crops than in seasons of the other extreme.

Both parties are solicitous and anxious as to the final result, and impatient for election day, and both sanguine of victory. How is it?

Wm. R. Campbell, from near Orangeville, a graduate of Lafayette college, and now a student at the Presbyterian Theological Seminary in New York City preparatory for the ministry, was visiting friends in this neighborhood last week. He is a sound democrat, and very sanguine of Cleveland's success.

Vote for Cleveland, reform, rook beef, and two dollars per day. Protection is all we want, and both sanguine of victory. How is it?

We believe that Blaine is beaten, for the "Plumed Knight" is getting pretty well plucked, and he will not fly quite so high after the 4th of November.

Much as we like to see rain, we regretted its coming on Monday evening, as it prevented us from attending the Democratic meeting at Benton.

Everybody feels jubilant about our new enterprise—the Fair.

The weather permitting Benton will be a lively place this week. Bloomsburg may well boast for being so nearly located to it. These towns should be connected, either by railroad or telephone, or both.

Stick to the ticket from top to bottom. Whose ox is gored this time?

Van Camp, in Fishersburg, is a small hamlet containing a Post Office and Store, whose Post Master is more fortunate than one in ten thousands. No matter how often the administration may change, he will hold his post. Take Van Camp for the centre and strike a circle from a point six miles distant, and not a Republican will fall within that limit.

There should be a reading room at Chambers. The people hunger and thirst for news. To our certain knowledge there comes to that Post Office the COLUMBIAN, "Sentinel," "Republican," "Catawissa News Item," "N. Y. Sun," "N. Y. Herald," "N. Y. Tribune," "Philadelphia Times," and "Toledo Blade," besides the religious periodicals. Some people here read nearly all these papers, and yet inquire "What's the news?"

The streams are so low that many flouring mills work on half time.

Many springs have failed, and elder is scarce too—some drink whiskey. If your stove pipe don't lit, don't swear.

Democratic Meetings.

A meeting at Evansville was addressed by R. Buckingham and A. L. Fritz on last Friday night.

J. C. Youem, Esq., addressed a meeting at Shilbuto on Saturday night.

A. L. Fritz, R. Buckingham and H. E. Smith, Esqs., spoke to a school house full at Jerseytown on Monday night.

G. F. Freese and J. H. Maize, Esqs., were the speakers at Benton on Monday night.

The meeting at Conroy was addressed by C. W. Miller and W. Christman, Esqs., on Tuesday night.

W. H. Thawn and J. C. Youem, Esqs., spoke at Millville on Wednesday night.

C. G. Barkley, Esq., and D. Lowenberg went to Pine Summit on Wednesday night.

A Democratic Rally. The Opera House was well filled last Thursday night to listen to Hon. R. E. James of Benton, and J. H. Fow Esq., of Philadelphia. Both of these gentlemen are fine speakers and the constant outbursts of applause indicated that they had the audience with them from the start. Their telling hits were right from the shoulder, and their discussion of the tariff question was clear and convincing. They showed how republican protection has failed to protect, and that not one of the promises made by the republican party four years ago, has been kept. The audience sat until half past eleven, and would have gladly remained longer. There was no torchlight procession to entourage the crowd. There was enthusiasm enough without it. The meeting was organized by the election of C. G. Barkley, Esq., as chairman and the following vice-presidents: J. K. Groat, Elijah Shurt, John Mann, J. K. Gorton, M. Millard, W. Krickbaum, P. E. Wirt, John Turner, C. M. Vandervliet, David Gelsinger, Michael Casey, F. Eyer, Patrick McFadden, George Bates, Dr. Gardner, Eli Jones, and Charles C. Campbell.

A Bereaved Family. Died of diphtheria, Oct. 6, Charles Joseph Snyder, aged 18 years, 2 months, and 2 days. Died, Oct. 24, George R. Snyder, aged 1 year, 10 months, and 21 days. Died, Oct. 28, Jennie C. Snyder, age 16 years and a few days. The melancholy intelligence of the death of these three children of William H. and Sarah Snyder has cast a gloom over our little village. Scarcely had the golden days closed after admitting them, until it opens to admit the sister, the only remaining child. We might our hearts with this bereaved family and if the death of these three are so deeply felt and so sincerely mourned by others how robbed and desolate must be the hearts of the father and mother. Desolate but not without comfort that the five little ones are all: "Safe in the arms of Jesus. Safe from corroding care, Safe from the world's temptation, Safe from harm they meet."

Thanks for the comforts of the Gospel and the aid of the Holy Spirit, the children's Friend and Savior. They perceived the will of the Lord had called them and they were willing to go. They felt that the eternal God was their refuge and that underneath were the everlasting arms of love. May the vacancy thus made in the hearts of these parents be more than filled by the indwelling of that same heavenly Father who has seen fit thus to bereave them. Sister Jennie was a young lady of very promising character. She gave her heart to the Savior a few years ago. She was received into the Reformed church by the solemn rite of confirmation and has ever endeavored to lead a useful and consistent life. She was an active Sabbath school teacher and a regular attendant upon the means of grace. She was one of the few who regularly attend the Wednesday evening service.

May the Lord speedily fill up the waste places in Zion. True we live in a world where solemn shadows are continually falling upon our path. Shadows that teach us the insecurity of all temporal blessings and warn us that here "There is no abiding."

A word to the wise.—The most complete and varied stock of Fall and Winter goods can now be seen at the popular store of David Lowenberg.

The Berwick Meeting. Notwithstanding the rain, the meeting at Berwick on Tuesday afternoon was largely attended. Speeches were made by B. M. Nead Esq., of Harrisburg, and N. Z. Seitz of Glen Rock. An evening meeting was held at which speeches were made by C. G. Barkley and J. C. Youem Esqs.
