

The Columbian. BLOOMSBURG, PA. FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 7, 1884. Correct Railroad Time Table.

THE SQUIRE. "The Squire," says the author of "The Hoopier Schoolmaster," were one glass eye and a wig. The glass eye was constantly slipping out of focus, and the wig turning around sideways on his head whenever he addressed the people of the Flat Creek District.

Public Sales. The executor of M. S. Appelman will sell at public sale, on Saturday, November 22nd, at one o'clock, p. m., a valuable farm in Cooper township, Montour county, and a lime stone quarry. See advertisement.

The Sentinel and its backers will accompany the Republican procession up salt river. The result of the election on the local ticket, comes with stunning force to those who set out with the intention of defeating one of the regularly nominated candidates of the Democratic party.

The Bolter Craze. The Chataqua literary and social circles of the country are languishing; the Y. M. C. A. rooms are nightly crowded with empty seats, and the newspapers and magazines lie unopened; the church and choir meetings are unattended; there is a general sprinkling of young people at the political meetings; in the pool and billiard rooms the click of the balls and the cue is an unfamiliar sound; the tiger is bucked only on certain days, and the pot on rare occasions contains $1,700; the street corner patrons are off on other business; the store clerks, male and female, have an air of indifference, and when you ask for a patent safety-pin they look into vacancy in a dazed, idiotic way, and the clock is the aim and object of more solicitude than calves and pigs; all kinds of mistakes are made in the manufacturing shops; doctors are not at home; lawyers have forsaken their offices; clergymen are cross and ill-tempered; fathers and mothers have their troubles augmented; the grocers and dry goods men say their bills remain unpaid; the best musical and dramatic talents exhibit to empty halls, and only the gay and festive youth is happy. They are at the roller rink, and the ladies and gentlemen whose brains have tinkled into their heels are seemingly tickled happy. It is a species of craze and should command the attention of the thoughtful physician and the patient student of sociology. How are we to account for the presence of the large crowds that nightly fill the skating rinks? Is it the association, the music, the crowds, the exercise, or does the roller skate supply a sensation no where else attainable? Is it any one or all of these? Probably it is. At least we do not know whether it is or not. At any rate there is a general confusion on the subject. And everybody patronizes the rink.—E.

REPUBLICAN PARTY. General Managers. P. S.—Should any unfeeling concern to prevent the Republicanism of the country, they will be run under the old management, the same as usual.

THE VOTE IN TOWN. By the expenditure of several hundred dollars in torches, uniforms, brass bands, and parades, assisted by personal appeals to employees, the republicans succeeded in retaining the democratic majority in this town from 1870 to 1884. Some democrats voted for St. John, a few lost their votes by a change of residence, and the balance was made up of men who cast their ballots against their conscience, or declined to vote at all, through fear of loss of work, and those who have moved away since the vote was cast at the car shops. Every possible influence was brought to bear upon laboring men without the use of actual and direct intimidation. If republicans think they have the worth of their money in the gain the democrats can stand it.

The result of the election on the local ticket, comes with stunning force to those who set out with the intention of defeating one of the regularly nominated candidates of the Democratic party. The whole ticket is elected and William H. Snyder against whom the fight was made, runs ahead of the ticket. The Democrats of this county have thus administered a rebuke to those who want to ruin, when they can no longer rule, and the experiment of trying to start a bolt without any just cause or provocation will not soon again be tried. The people are running Columbia county now.

Centralia. An expensive accident occurred at Centralia colliery on Tuesday last week, which will necessitate a suspension of work for two weeks at least. The large drum shaft of the hoisting engine gave out as the wagons were midway on the slope, leaving the wagons, together with a new rope, descend to the bottom at striking velocity. Several miners were standing at the bottom, narrowly escaped with their lives. The company's loss will reach $2500. Over five hundred men and boys are idle in consequence.

For Decorating. Just received at the COLUMBIAN store a line of goods for hand-painting, consisting of Brass Plaques, Paper Mache Plaques, crosses, crosses, circles, triangles, leaves, Holly-wood paper cutters and Photogram frames, Hammered brass plaques, &c.
