

THE COLUMBIAN AND DEMOCRAT, BLOOMSBURG, COLUMBIA COUNTY, PA.

The Columbian.

BLOOMSBURG, PA. FRIDAY, DECEMBER 5, 1884.

Correct Railroad Time Table.

Table with columns for routes (e.g., Philadelphia & R. R., D. & W. R. R.) and times for various stations.

Public Sales.

John Keleher will sell real estate in Scott township on December 13th. See advertisement.

Personal.

Thos. E. Harder was foreman of the Grand Jury. Mr. Geo. Fenstermaker of Philadelphia was in town the first of the week.

Hon. William Repsher of Lehigh, was in court this week. J. E. Vannatta was said to be the handsomest man in the jury this week.

Miss Sado Sloan is visiting friends in Philadelphia.

H. P. Carter of Tunkhannock, was in town this week.

Miss Maggie Jacoby is visiting friends in the west.

William Shaffer is able to be out again, and his friends were pleased to see him on our streets a few days ago.

Hudson Owen of Berwick, one of the old-time Jeffersonian Democrats, was in town on Tuesday.

W. C. McKinley and F. S. Kupperts returned from their western trip on Monday. They were out as far as Idaho Territory.

John P. Hannan, David Welsh, Daniel Goodman, Martin Welsh, John Crane and B. J. Dyke represented the lower end, in court this week.

For Silk Muffs, go to Lowenberg's.

W. F. Bodine has the contract for paving the Lutheran church at Calwisa.

Berwick stable holders charge five per cent. of the pot for their trouble.

Christmas Cards now open at the Columbian store.

C. H. Brown is running the laundry over Dentler's, and is doing some fine work.

WASTEN.—Tennis for hauling bark and lumber, from tract on North Main, Inquire of J. E. Risk, Lightstreet, Pa.

Revival services are being held in the Evangelical church on Fourth Street, by Rev. S. P. Remor.

Christmas Cards at wholesale to country dealers, at the Columbian store. Call and examine.

The Presbyterian fair and supper will be held in Sharpless' store room instead of McKinney's, this Friday and Saturday evenings.

Don't forget the fair and supper to be given this Friday and Saturday evenings, by the ladies of the Presbyterian Church, in Sharpless' store room.

The conviction of one man for throwing stones at a political procession ought to have a good effect in the future. Such conduct is highly improper and dangerous.

Rev. O. H. Strunk has resigned the pastorate of the Reformed congregation, and will take charge of a church at Schuylkill Haven. He has many friends who will be sorry to lose him.

The hoax gotten up last week about the finding of $47,000 in an iron chest on an island in the river below Danville, going to all the daily papers. The story itself was proof of its falsity. The Captain Kidd part was too much.

The Teachers' Institute will open in the Opera House on December 20th, and every teacher in the county should make arrangements to be present. Able instructors and eminent lecturers will be in attendance, and assist in making the exercises entertaining and instructive.

The contract for heating the court house by steam is completed, and the machinery was shod up on Saturday. We believe Mr. Brower has done a very satisfactory job, and the improvement will be found a very great one in the comfort of the county officials and the public generally.

The History of Columbia county will be sold for $1.25 until January 1st, 60 copies, illustrated, well bound, on heavy tinted paper. This is less than cost, but they must be disposed of. Sent by mail on receipt of price. Address, THE COLUMBIAN, Bloomsburg, Pa. Nov 28-44

The trial of Dr. J. L. Bauer for practicing medicine without being lawfully registered, occupied all day Tuesday. The result was a verdict of guilty. As this is a case which will affect physicians all over the State, we will give a synopsis of the facts, and the charge of the court next week.

There will probably be some arrests made soon, unless the gangs that infest the street corners on Sunday nights quit their boisterous and disorderly conduct. Profanity and indecent language are indulged in, and it is very unpleasant for ladies who are obliged to pass these crowds on their way to and from church. The favorite points of rendezvous are the corner at the First National Bank, and at Third and Market.

One exception should have been made in our last issue in speaking of those Republicans who denounced their houses during the Democratic demonstration. The residence of the proprietor of the Republican was brilliantly illuminated and decorated with flags and Chinese lanterns. It is possible that he thus hoped to keep on the right side of the winning party, and thus retain the spoils, or was it because, like some other people, he couldn't help it?

W. H. Gilmore now ready for the Holiday trade. He has opened an immense stock of Toys of every kind and description, and a visit to this store will be well repaid. It is impossible to enumerate what you will see there. Go and look for yourself.

Instructions in all branches of Drawing and Penmanship to Mrs. E. R. Gardner, teacher of Drawing and Penmanship in S. N. S. Class, Friday afternoon, Saturday morning and afternoon. Institute terms, Mrs. E. R. Gardner, B. S. N. S. Nov 21-44

Our esteemed friends of the Towanda Journal are issuing a large paper for the holidays. It is an eight page edition, and is filled with interesting reading matter, and is liberally patronized by advertisers. It is the best of its kind in the county, and it is in the possession of several excellent newspapers, the Journal being one of the best. We rejoice at its prosperity and congratulate it on its enterprise.

"Peck's Bad Boy" was played at the Opera House last Friday evening, to a fair audience. It is a rare farce, and kept the house in a continual burst of laughter. The scenery, which is carried with the company, is capital, and all the parts are well filled. With one or two exceptions the play is free from vulgarity. The skating scene, the goat scene are good, and, in fact, all through, the play is a novel one.

Winter Caps in all styles at Lowenberg's.

Two young men were arrested on Saturday night on Market street by Constable Woodward, for disorderly conduct and profanity. They were both drunk. One of them spent the night in the lock-up, and was fined $4 and costs, which he paid next morning. The other was lodged in jail for carrying a revolver and a "billy." The practice of carrying concealed weapons, by young men is altogether too prevalent, and the authorities are determined to break it up, if possible.

Mr. Charles Atkinson, the well-known manager of Atkinson's Comedy Companies, in the "Peck's Bad Boy" plays, will start next season, assisted by Miss Lillie Bate, in the new romantic drama, "Vandame and Vivienne" written especially for them. The scenes of the drama are laid in Corsica. The characters of "Vandame and Vivienne" are intensely romantic and emotional. The play has a strong plot and several new and startling scenic and mechanical effects will be presented.

For Pretty Overcoats for little boys, go to Lowenberg's.

The first number of "The Church" has been issued at Philadelphia. This paper was formerly the Episcopal Register, but the name and management have recently been changed. The Rev. A. M. Marple having accepted the position of editor. It is of conventional size, very neat in its mechanical appearance, and will continue to be published by the Rev. A. M. Marple, at the reading church papers of the home.

The Church should go into the homes of every Episcopalian in the State.

Our readers will do well to note the advertisements of A. C. Yates & Co., and who are visiting Philadelphia in search of clothing, make sure to call at their salesrooms in the Ledger Building, 6th and Chestnut Sts.

The magnitude and variety of their stock make it an easy matter to supply any demand, while the prices are as low as the market affords. Visit to their stores will not be regretted.

The following item comes by way of the Williamsbarre Telephone: "The Esby boat yard of the Pennsylvania Canal Company has suspended nearly all its workmen, and in a few days will shut down entirely until after January 1st. In fact, but little work will be done there this winter, and the season in all respects will be the dull-est ever seen there. The hundred men who find employment there do not feel much encouraged over the prospect. The Company usually build twenty or thirty boats each year."

VERY LITTLE SNOW IN DECEMBER.—The weather prophet A. J. DeVoe predicted that the mild weather of November would continue until the 19th, when it would close with a sudden drop in the temperature, caused by the formation of two storms, one over the South Atlantic region and the other over the lower lake region. Prophet DeVoe seems to have prognosticated correctly. In the Middle States, he says, our cold snaps will be short, and the northwest wind will shift to northeast, with clear weather followed by a heavy white frost and southeast wind, followed by warm rain storms. We will see very little snow during December.

The largest Stock of Robes, Lap Blankets, go to Lowenberg's.

On Wednesday afternoon of last week while taking a load of hay from the barn of H. Hughes, his son George found a lot of overcoats, vests, gloves, underclothing, hats, caps and jewelry buried under the hay. The store of Mr. Hillburn at Shick-sbury had been robbed on Monday night, and hearing of the finding of these goods, Mr. Hillburn came down on Thursday afternoon and recognized them as his, and the goods were delivered to him. A warrant was issued for the arrest of suspected parties but they could not be found. Up to this time no clue has been obtained.

Tom Jones and Ed. Meyers were arrested last week by Constable Woodward on the charge of robbing the house of Lloyd Shuman on November 5th. There were three men in the party who had the stolen goods. Two of them got Mrs. Shuman to go out with them to look at the bags, and the third one went into the house and took $25 out of a trunk belonging to Alfred M. Jones, boarder, and then all three disappeared. Jones was caught at Williamsbarre, and Myers at Rupert. The third man who gave his name as Reilly is in jail at Williamsbarre on another charge. All three identified the men. They are all strangers here, and Myers were tried on Tuesday. J. H. Maize and C. C. Evans, Esq., being appointed by the court to defend them. After the evidence was given the plea of not guilty was withdrawn, and the prisoners pleaded guilty.

Notice to Tax Collectors.

An act of the Legislature and approved June, 2nd 1881. (See pamphlet laws, page 43) requires tax collectors, township and borough officers to make returns of assessed and unassessed lands upon which no property can be found from which to make taxes, to the County Commissioners on or before the first day of January next, with a sufficient description by boundaries or otherwise, of each separate lot or tract and also the quantity of the same. Those who fail to do so will be liable to pay the cost of the survey, and also to be held liable for such loss. Taxes so returned become a lien against the property so returned. We have blanks on which these returns are to be made and will furnish them upon application of collectors.

Commissioner's Office. Con's Clerk, Nov. 14th.

If you need any thing in the line of a silver or gold watch or any article of jewelry, silver ware, &c. Call at L. Bernhardt's, Jewelry Store, and get the best for your money.

The Post-Office.

Since the election of Cleveland to the Presidency it has been discussed. A number of applicants have been named, some because they have published announcements of their intention to make the effort for the appointment, and others only as a matter of conjecture. It is said that the name of the senior editor of this paper has been suggested among others, as a probable candidate for the honor, and hence this article.

We may say, once for all, that we have not been, are not now, and shall not be an applicant for the post-office. Our reasons for this are numerous. One of them is that perhaps we couldn't get the appointment if we wanted it; another is that we don't want it if we could get it; another is that we prefer to devote our entire attention to journalism, and do not wish to be handicapped in our work by being the holder of a government office.

Please do not accuse us of declining what has never been offered. When people say that we are asking for that which we do not want, we have published enough to deny the charge, and to take our stand on the way of those who do want it. There will, no doubt, be a useful for the appointment, and the COLUMBIAN wishes success to the winner.

Butchering in the morn.

A. L. Folk went to Sunbury on Saturday.

Mr. Caleb Crayner returned from Virginia on Tuesday, where he had been since July. He was making peanut pickles which is an invention of his and his brother, who resides in Williamsburg, Virginia.

Ed. Schweppenhiser and Seymour Pole of Centre took a rabbit hunt in these parts on Thanksgiving day.

The pole raising at West Millin on Saturday was a complete success. The pole is 112 feet long and was hauled to the place via Millinville by an eighteen horse team. The pole was headed by music. On the arrival it was greeted by an enormous crowd of enthusiastic democrats who immediately hoisted it. The little boys in their enthusiasm secured a pole 40 feet long and raised it about 50 yards from the other.

Flocks of wild turkeys are frequently seen along the Keesecep mountain.

Who is the matter with our land?

Rev. Hassinger will deliver a lecture in the Lutheran church on Saturday evening. Subject, Boldness of Luther.

On Monday, 24th ult. while C. Harpster was moving his threshing and separator his team became frightened and upset the machine breaking and almost entirely ruining it.

Ira Brown of Scranton has accepted a position as clerk for A. W. Snyder.

Another pole raising in town on Saturday next.

Choosing a Husband.

A girl, if she cannot always choose, can always refuse; and generally her difficulty is this—it is evident that this man is making love to me; I do not love him, but I think I might do so if I choose; shall I choose or shall I forbear? It is here that the power of choice comes in; and it is here that the voice of prudence must be heard, if it is to be heard at all. In such circumstances a girl will act wisely if she gives considerable attention to the general opinion that is held of the gentleman in question by his professional brethren or business acquaintances. It is, in short, not the man who is agreeable to our own notions, but he who is well liked by other people, who is the man to choose as a husband. There are certain persons, however, of the opposite sex who are almost as good judges of a man's disposition as those of his own sex, and they are his sisters. A girl can always tell how a man stands with his sisters; if they are really fond of him she may feel almost sure that he will make a good husband. A mother, of course, always speaks well of her son; it is not what she says of him, but his behavior to her, that is to be looked to. And a lady may feel certain of this point, that as a man goes to his mother and sisters, so he will treat her six months after marriage. All this may seem very cold-blooded, yet far removed from the tender feeling of the courtship induces. But after all a girl has a choice to make, a choice upon which the whole happiness of her life will depend; and there is always a time, whether she notices it or not before she parts with the control of her hand to which she ought to listen to her judgment.

Derr's.

Derr's: As this has been a season of great rejoicing of the Democrats all over our land I thought I would write a few lines for publication, to inform you and your readers how we are celebrating the greatest victory ever achieved by a free people.

We had a gathering of the Democracy at this place Wednesday, 29th for the purpose of raising a victory pole, and to rejoice generally over the victory of Hon. George Cleveland and Hendricks.

The pole was a fair representation of the grand Old Party. As straight as a line and as tough as Old Hickory. About 50' was the sturdy young man of the hills and valleys came pouring in and soon the fastenings were made secure for the Colors. The stay ropes were fastened and with a wild hurrah and a strong pull the noble victory pole rose above the clouds, waving the noble ensign to the breeze. After the pole was made secure, 300 or more young men were given for the Red, White and Blue 3 more for the President and Vice President elect. 3 more for New York and 3 more for Indiana. After the cheering had ceased a song entitled, "The Red, White and Blue," composed and sung by A. J. Derr, was followed by:

A statement both noble and true, He will give us a grand administration, Nevermore to be seated again.

The Republicans are dismayed and disheartened. They all look as if they had the blues, but the Democrats are joyous and elated. And proud of the red, white and blue.

No wonder the Democrats are singing, And are having a grand jubilee— They are happy in the victory that is rising, Telling them that the poor man is right.

The old Empire State has done nobly By standing by her favorite one, Indiana has done her whole duty By bravely sustaining her son.

The Union, the Union forever, The Democratic party will sustain; The rebels will be hurled from place and power, Nevermore to be seated again.

They will be a happy demonstration When President Cleveland takes his seat. He'll be owned by no clique or faction— But by President of the whole United States.

To people, the people are shouting, Because they've been steadfast and true; They've achieved a mighty resolution, And are singing the red, white and blue.

Jim Blinn and company are forming A procession up that River to go, But the Catholics are growing and waiting, They are dying hard and waiting.

Hurrah! for the Democratic party, And as he'll hold for the people every time, And as you can see "Thank's" says the best of these young folks, they're all right, Dec. 2nd, '74. BUFFALO BILL, TRANS.

Intention to D. Lowenberg's Prize

A certain degree of pride in one's personal appearance is always to be commended, and a well-dressed gentleman and lady will strike the eye of the beholder. Every day you will meet in business circles scores of handsomely clothed people who owe in great measure their appearance to the undersigned. Our experience in this branch of trade is a warrant that all patrons will be suited. For plain or fancy wear for all seasons, dress suits, call on our Truly.

First and only correct selection, Dick Matherl, Bloomsburg. Pair of Bicycle Shirts.

Second, E. B. Johnson, Rupert. Goswami Third, W. H. Welliver, Evers Grove. Scarf and Scarf Pin.

Special Offer.

We do not believe in the chrome business. All the county papers are published at rates so low that the margin of profit is very small, and unless all subscribers pay up, the loss is nearly equal to the profits. We consider that our readers get the full worth of their money out of this paper at $1.50 a year, and we cannot afford to give every subscriber a gold watch or a piano at that price. But we will do this: Every subscriber who will pay up all arrearages and one year in advance will receive for one year, Good Cheer, a monthly paper devoted to the interests of home and family, and containing much valuable reading matter. A sample copy can be sent to this office. This offer will only run for a limited time, and all who wish to get $2.50 worth for $1.50, should attend to it at once.

Hotel Envelopes in the Mail.

The rule governing the disposition of undelivered letters sent from hotels has been heretofore to send them to the Dead Letter Office, regardless of the printed request to return them to the hotel. This rule was recently modified by Postmaster General Patton as follows: "Unclaimed letters enclosed in envelopes upon which hotel cards are printed, should not be returned to the mailing office unless such envelopes have been written or printed thereon the words 'Return to,' in addition to the hotel card. Proprietors of hotels should use the usual return request from supplied envelopes to their guests; and guests using such envelopes should be careful to designate their disposition should be made of letters sent by them in case they cannot be delivered."

Centra.

Thomas Gallagher, who was caught in a breast at Hazel Hill last week, died from the injuries received, on Thursday. His funeral, which took place on Saturday, was the largest seen here for a long time.

Thanksgiving Day was observed here in the usual way. The stars, with a few exceptions, were closed, and services were held in the various churches. The attendances, however, was very slim, as the colicoides did not suspend work.

The dwelling house situated behind Curry's Hotel is being moved on skids to the vacant lot opposite Murphy's, on Locust Avenue.

The exercises of the Forty Hours' Devotion at the Catholic church, closed on Sunday morning. High Mass was celebrated by Rev. Russell, after which an eloquent sermon was preached by Rev. O'Neal of Lancaster. During the devotion the church was crowded, day and night. The interior was beautifully decorated with evergreen, while the altar was profusely adorned with flowers of all descriptions, which presented a most beautiful ground to the hundred lighted candles. The exercises closed on Tuesday evening.

Daniel Swency, one of our enterprising young men, has gone into the dry goods business. May success attend him.

The Young Folks' Social Club were entertained at the residence of Mr. Cope on Thanksgiving evening. Quite a number of Mr. Carmelites were present, and a hearty of the "big" turkey.

An overcoat was stolen from the rack in front of the Golden rule store, Saturday afternoon, by some unknown party. Suspicion points to three young men who were in the store in the early part of the evening, and said there would be no difficulty in stealing one of the coats. Warrants have been issued for their arrest.

A gentleman from Clearfield county was in town on Tuesday looking for a desirable place upon which to erect a skating rink.

M. Rio Jones and Alice Strauss were married on Tuesday evening.

Mr. Will Woodrue of Mt. Carmel, is a frequent visitor to our town. Wonder what's the attraction?

John Swency of Metch Chuk, spent Monday with William Swency of this place.

Mrs. John Cook, ex-Mrs. Laura Troutman, is visiting her parents.

COMMUNICATED.

A Surprise Party.

On the evening of the 27th of November a grand and complete surprise party was given Miss Mary Welliver, the daughter of her father, Daniel Welliver, in Green wood. All the arrangements were well planned and carried out by her sister, Minnie. Mary was invited away by her cousin, Mrs. Emma Hartman, living at Reynoldsburg, to remain until the evening appointed for the gathering, and on an arriving home she found, to her complete surprise, the house well filled with all the young people of the surrounding neighborhood. The plan worked well, and to the satisfaction of all. On the afternoon Mary thought she must go home, as she failed to see any thing special in her being invited to Mrs. Hartman's, but her friend and cousin insisted on her staying until evening, when she should be taken back. The evening was in honor of her birthday; the occasion being pleasantly spent in the enjoyment of excellent music, dancing, singing, and social conversation. Messrs. Joseph Dreible, William Bangs, Sherman Jones and Gals, Missa Welliver, the orchestra. The facts were previously raised out of the carpet, by Miss Minnie, and it was work of but a moment till the room was completely cleared for the dance. At the sound of Joe's fiddle sets began to form, and we noticed in the first dance the Misses Miller, Misses Dreible, Misses Paton, Missa Welliver, Miss Fairman and others. Any one desiring to hear sweet music and see the dancing, should be around when there is a surprise party in Greenwood, and "seek no further." All passed off as "merely as a marriage bell," nothing occurring during the whole evening to make the gathering anything but a happy one. The dance and other enjoyments passed along till the "sun's" hours" came around, when all bade good-bye—or morning—hoping for the opportunity to give Mary many more such calls; although she had no hand or lot in getting up this party. Mary had as much fun and real enjoyment out of it as any one present; but Minnie had the work. And you can see "Thank's" says the best of these young folks, they're all right, Dec. 2nd, '74. BUFFALO BILL, TRANS.

Berwick.

Mr. A. V. Bower returned from a visit to Carlyle, Saturday evening.

Messrs. S. A. Peck and Sam'l. Burke of Northumberland visited this place last week.

After a prolonged suspension the rolling mill is once more put in full blast, and according to reports, has prospects for a very successful season in the winter. A reduction on an average of about ten per cent took place the first of the month, which was received by the men as satisfactory.

The answer to that correspondent's puzzle is, ah! We will figure it out during the holidays.

Work on the inside of the new Y. M. C. A. building is rapidly progressing, and the building will be a success. Although some of these peculiar people still think it isn't safe.

Jesse Edwards and Gleason Beishline left for Jonestown, Tuesday to try their luck with the shotgun.

Raffling matches are getting quite numerous, one good sized match above town the other night has supplied several others, those with the rest. His contained a nine pound turkey, and was put up by a winner's suggestion until one was rich.

The weather prophets are doing remarkably well in their guessing as shown by their results of late.

Three now take dinner at Charley Finch's table. The addition is in the shape of a brand new baby boy.

Mr. Geo. W. Pooler is very sick with Malaria fever.

Rev. M. L. Smyser preached the Centennial sermon on Methodism in a large congregation last Sunday.

Mrs. Lizzie Jackson and Miss Helen Jamison returned from New York Saturday evening.

There is still game around Berwick, as shown by the gamebags, two men having captured twenty-six quail and two pheasants, and another party bringing down twenty rabbits in the same day.

Orangeville.

The individual who visits Orangeville at long intervals, cannot help but be forcibly impressed with the progressiveness of the town. Its rapid growth, and more especially the removal of old, homely and dilapidated buildings, and the replacing of such by the highly ornamental and fanciful, patterns of modern style, and a substantial, shows a spirit of enterprise and thrift not met with in every country town. Whatever industry attributes to its prosperity we know not, but it shows push in many directions. And its citizens evidently pride themselves with its outer appearance. It has excellent intellectual facilities, and first class schools, and the object of first importance is by no means neglected—the education and training of the children. The moral influences are also very good. It has two fine churches, and several denominations are represented, different ministers reside there, and all admirably well. As an opportunity presents itself, we will endeavor to give a general view of the people. The mercantile, no doubt, is the leading pursuit, while mechanics is a fair rival. It is also a great lumber emporium. There, however, frequently appears to many, a nuisance in the form of heaps of refuse, trash, and fractions of wrecked machinery in the upper end of town, where people sometimes pass with difficulty in seasons of much travel. Taken altogether it is a first-class town, and is situated at the extreme western end of "Nob Mountain," and in close proximity to "Big Fishing-creek."
