

THE COLUMBIAN. BLOOMSBURG, PA. FRIDAY, JANUARY 23, 1885.

Don Cameron was re-elected United States Senator on Wednesday, the democrats all voting for Wallace.

GRANT AND FORTER.

Our Washington correspondent thinks that Grant ought not to be placed on the retired list of the army, with which we cannot concur.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

During the past week the debates and acts of Congress have touched a new point.

There are several bills in the Senate which have already passed.

Understand the P. R. R. Co., intends putting a depot in place of the platform on Main St., which will add greatly to the convenience of the public.

I wonder whether the Sec'y. of the county institute did not know that there were more districts than those mentioned.

We see our legal gentlemen wending their way toward the county seat every week.

The Iron spoke last week about rents, this town could use some of those houses which other towns have to spare.

Human idolatry never reached a more beastly depth than in its worship of Grant.

Suppose there should be another disputed election, as in 1876, or like that which occurred only last November.

How easy and how natural (had another Arthur been in the White House) would it have been for Blaine to summon Grant, as senior general, to assume command.

There is a disposition on the Democratic side here in both houses to do nothing at this short session except pass the appropriation bills.

It is not among the impossibilities that there may be an extra session, and for a number of reasons, it need not be deprecated.

But apart from the abstract questions involved, it will scarcely be disputed by those at all familiar with the work now thrust upon Congress, that its ordinary sessions are of inadequate length to enable it to cope with its legitimate business.

It is true that much time is now wasted, and that more would be if the sessions were longer, but that does not argue that Congress should not give itself a fair chance to do its work.

The President's social duties have kept him busy during the past week, and are likely to employ his evenings for some time to come.

He has abandoned all idea of visiting the New Orleans Exposition in an official capacity, and has so informed the board of managers.

He expects, however, to make a short visit after the 4th of March, and then, of course he will go as a private citizen.

He had hoped to attend the Exposition during the month of February, and consequently refrained from extending his engagements into that month.

William M. Everts has been elected to the United States Senate by the legislature of New York.

There is a little unpleasantness in the republican camp just now over the dispute between Senators Emery and Cooper.

was never thought of till now; and that is what we are selling; they are not remnants, but full pieces; borders to match most of them.

Seal coats for $75; 36 inches long. You think they must be pretty bad coats somehow, don't you? Well, the only fault they have is on the outside. The skin is perfect. The work—we made them ourselves—is good enough for double the money.

The fur is abundant and even. Why $75, instead of double? Because the hairs of the seal were, some of them, left in the fur; imperfectly taken out in the preparation of the skin; and they give the fur an uneven look.

The finest long coats we have are only $250 now; and dolmans $300; just $100 less than you would have paid us for them a little while ago. We never had finer seal or did more skillful and perfect work. It is past the selling time. We are making prices without regard to anything but the change of having to keep the garments over.

Do you want a $5 blouse suit for a boy for $3? or a $1.50 trouser for $1? or a $6 overcoat for $4? or a man's $14 overcoat for $10? These are here.

On Monday, January 20th will put on sale $1,000 worth of NEW BLACK and COLOR-DRESS GOODS, all at prices much lower than same qualities have been selling for.

The stocks of LIGHT CALICOES, WASH DRESS GOODS, CHEVIOTS, MUSLINS, &c., are now being bought as fast as the goods are offered for sale by the manufacturers.

HAMBURG EMBROIDERIES, &c., are cheaper than ever known before.

Valuable dress-stuffs down. Very wide-velvet, with light cross-stripes and rows of large embroidery-like dots between; $4 for $1.50.

Serge with inch embroidery, dots of tinsel and wool six inches apart; $4 to $2.

A twill, more than a twill, with obscure stripes and three-color groups of little embroidery dots, $3 for $1.

A twill almost covered with little three-color bright loops, $1.50 for 75 cents.

French flat-cord fine-wool heavy Ottoman down from $1.50 to $1. One of the notable cloths of the year.

Epingle, a fine hard cord like a pin, as the name implies, down from $1.25 to $1.

Figured silk-and-wool poplin down from $1.25 to $1.

Plain fine-wool poplin, very soft and thick, down from $1.50 to $1.25. A remarkable cloth.

The same, less fine and soft and thick, called Empress cloth, down from $1 to 50 cents.

Rich fine-wool sateen with splendid lustre, down from $1 to 85 cents.

Fine armure of soft wool down from $1 to 80 cents.

Fine plaids down. Scotch plaids, five claus, down from $1.50 to $1.25.

French small plaids of dull effect of fine wool, finely spun and woven, one of the neatest stuffs in the store, down from $1 to 75 cents.

French large bright plaids, cashmere fabric, down from $1 to 75 cents. Twenty-five patterns or more; several color-styles of each pattern.

German large plaids, some of them bright, of heavier effect, cotton-and-wool but mostly wool, are down from 75 cents to 50. Twenty-five patterns at least, and a hundred colors.

Faile Francaise, all the colors in favor, $1 for 21-cents. We'd be surprised to hear of it anywhere else for less than $1.25.

Evening silks of every name.

Brussels carpets down to a dollar. Bigelow, Lowell, Hartford and other best makes of five-frame Brussels carpet for a dollar! a roomful!

Five-frame Brussels is rare at a dollar a yard. Five-frame Bigelow, Lowell and Hartford Brussels are rarer still. A full stock of more than two hundred patterns of these at a dollar a yard
