

The Columbian.

BLOOMSBURG, PA., FRIDAY, JANUARY 30, 1885.

Correct Railroad Time Table.

Table with 2 columns: Direction and Time. Includes routes to Philadelphia and Harrisburg.

Trains on the Philadelphia & R. R. leave Harrisburg as follows:

Table with 2 columns: Direction and Time. Includes routes to Philadelphia and Harrisburg.

Trains on the D. & W. R. R. leave Harrisburg as follows:

Table with 2 columns: Direction and Time. Includes routes to Philadelphia and Harrisburg.

Trains on the N. & W. B. Railway leave Harrisburg as follows:

Table with 2 columns: Direction and Time. Includes routes to Philadelphia and Harrisburg.

Club Rates for 1885.

A CHANCE TO GET THE BEST DEMOCRATIC PAPER IN THE COUNTRY.

The New York World is acknowledged to be the leading Democratic paper in the United States. Every body ought to take a copy in addition to a local one.

We do not believe in the chromo business. All the county newspapers are published at rates so low that the margin of profit is very small.

The Carnival at the rink last Friday night was largely attended by maskers and spectators. Miss Sadie Bates was awarded the prize for the most elaborate costume.

If you wish to enjoy a good concert you should not fall for the Madame Fry Concert Company on Tuesday evening, Feb. 3d.

Personal.

Henry Ringer of Philadelphia visited his brother R. H. Ringer, last week.

W. D. Edgar of Scranton is visiting friends in town.

J. H. Harman has gone to a medical institution near Reading, for treatment.

Miss Kate Price of Philadelphia is the guest of Mrs. R. C. Neal.

Justice Ewell held court at Tunkhannock last week for Court Sitter.

Rev. O. H. Strack has been visiting friends in this place during the past week.

A. P. Burbank, February 6th.

G. W. Bertsch will soon move into the house of T. B. Miller on Third street.

Burbank and the Quartette Club at the Opera House, Friday, February 6th. Winona benefit.

Cow for Sale.—Very large. Will soon be fresh. Apply at the Sanitarium, opposite depot, Bloomsburg.

It is J. F. S. wishes any attention paid to his communications he will please give his full name.

The house and two lots of C. B. Brockway were sold at Assigee's sale last Monday to M. G. Hughes for $2041.00.

Prof. Brooks has returned from the South, and will continue his leadership of the Bloom band for another year.

According to the M. Carmel News the Saturday Daily has been discontinued for want of patronage.

$2,400 WANTED.—First mortgage, gilt edge security. Address P. O. Box 204, Bloomsburg, Pa.

The illuminating apparatus of the town clock does not always work. Several nights the faces of the public time-piece have been shrouded in darkness.

A few dogs in the stationery line left yet which will be sold below cost to close out. Call and see, if you want to save money. Ewell & Bittenbender.

The arbitration on Monday between A. K. Smith and Samuel Brugler of Jersey-town, concerning a water right, resulted in an award of ten dollars for the plaintiff.

Mrs. John Robinson of Espr, died on Sunday at the ripe age of eighty-five years. She was buried in Rosemont cemetery on Wednesday.

Dr. R. H. Little of Berwick, died suddenly on Tuesday while attending a patient. He was an excellent physician, and a leading citizen.

Arthur C. Smith is publishing a monthly paper called The Collector, at Scranton. It is devoted to the interests of stamp and coin collectors.

Now that the old Liberty Bell has left Independence Hall to stand on the road as a museum, we would suggest that efforts be made to secure its presence at our own county fair.

A fine sample of the skill of William F. Bodine as a paper hanger can be seen at the Cochrans office on the walls and ceiling. They are decorated in modern Florencia Renaissance style, and the room when completed will be the handsomest business place in town.

The Mite Society of the Lutheran church has made arrangements with the Madame Fry Concert Company to give one of their entertainments in the Opera House on Tuesday evening of next week, Feb. 3d. Prices of admission 35 and 50 cents. Reserved seats tickets on sale at McKinney's.

A Grand Furlin Charity Calico Ball, under the auspices of the H. Y. M. A. for the benefit of the poor of Danville, will be held in the Danville Opera House on Feb. 16th. Ruble's Orchestra of 15 pieces, of Allentown will furnish the music. Admission tickets, $1.50.

Warren J. Eyer, son of F. C. Eyer, started for Florida on Wednesday morning, where he will go into orange culture. He is a young man of intelligence and energy and will no doubt make a success of this enterprise. He has many friends here who will regret his departure to so distant a field.

On Wednesday last week Charles Armstrong hauled a two horse load of ore to Ironville, which weighed 7475 lbs.

This is said to be the biggest load ever brought in by one team.

G. W. Sterner has a store room and dwelling on Main street, and a dwelling on Court street for rent. Call on him for particulars.

Everything moves on as regularly and smoothly at the Court House as though no changes had taken place in the offices. The Commissioners are all men of good judgment and business qualifications, and this aided by Mr. Fisher's experience, and Clerk Casey's knowledge of the office, keeps things moving without a jar.

Mr. Geo. Wm. Curtis suggests as a "woman's right" that "there is one right of woman which the most unreasonable conservatism will not deny, and that is the right of earning her own living by her own industry and skill."

The Carnival at the rink last Friday night was largely attended by maskers and spectators. Miss Sadie Bates was awarded the prize for the most elaborate costume.

If you wish to enjoy a good concert you should not fall for the Madame Fry Concert Company on Tuesday evening, Feb. 3d.

The Winona benefit will take place at the Opera House on Friday evening, Feb. 6th.

Mr. White of the firm of White & Conner was through these parts early on Monday.

Mr. White of the firm of White & Conner was through these parts early on Monday.

Mr. White of the firm of White & Conner was through these parts early on Monday.

Mr. White of the firm of White & Conner was through these parts early on Monday.

Mr. White of the firm of White & Conner was through these parts early on Monday.

Mr. White of the firm of White & Conner was through these parts early on Monday.

Mr. White of the firm of White & Conner was through these parts early on Monday.

Mr. White of the firm of White & Conner was through these parts early on Monday.

Mr. White of the firm of White & Conner was through these parts early on Monday.

Mr. White of the firm of White & Conner was through these parts early on Monday.

Mr. White of the firm of White & Conner was through these parts early on Monday.

Mr. White of the firm of White & Conner was through these parts early on Monday.

Mr. White of the firm of White & Conner was through these parts early on Monday.

Mr. White of the firm of White & Conner was through these parts early on Monday.

Mr. White of the firm of White & Conner was through these parts early on Monday.

Mr. White of the firm of White & Conner was through these parts early on Monday.

Mr. White of the firm of White & Conner was through these parts early on Monday.

Mr. White of the firm of White & Conner was through these parts early on Monday.

Mr. White of the firm of White & Conner was through these parts early on Monday.

Mr. White of the firm of White & Conner was through these parts early on Monday.

Mr. White of the firm of White & Conner was through these parts early on Monday.

Mr. White of the firm of White & Conner was through these parts early on Monday.

Mr. White of the firm of White & Conner was through these parts early on Monday.

Mr. White of the firm of White & Conner was through these parts early on Monday.

Mr. White of the firm of White & Conner was through these parts early on Monday.

Mr. White of the firm of White & Conner was through these parts early on Monday.

Mr. White of the firm of White & Conner was through these parts early on Monday.

Mr. White of the firm of White & Conner was through these parts early on Monday.

Mr. White of the firm of White & Conner was through these parts early on Monday.

Mr. White of the firm of White & Conner was through these parts early on Monday.

Mr. White of the firm of White & Conner was through these parts early on Monday.

Mr. White of the firm of White & Conner was through these parts early on Monday.

Mr. White of the firm of White & Conner was through these parts early on Monday.

Mr. White of the firm of White & Conner was through these parts early on Monday.

A Big Close-Out.

I will sell the entire stock of goods formerly owned by Lilley & Stepp, of Orangeville, consisting of dry goods, all kinds of groceries, hardware, ungeware, hats and caps, boots, shoes, ready-made clothing, iron, fish, nuts, salt, grain, lumber, &c., strictly at, and below cost.

The game at pool between George Schell of this place and George Cleaver of Ashland, which was played in the latter place on Saturday afternoon, for a purse of $50.00, was won by Schell.

Coal Inspector Reese has been on the sick list the last few days.

Rev. J. J. Russell is making strenuous efforts to enforce the law prohibiting the sale of food. Our programme was the shortest one and the best one that we have had.

The first topic discussed was the International Lessons—Why superior to the old plan of Bible study—Their adaptation to the primary class as well as older scholars.

2. What good could be realized to our churches, Sunday Schools and communities by the formation of Lyceums.

3. Temperance—Should it be taught and how?

4. What amount should each person contribute to the cause of the Lord.

The last topic proved the most interesting and it is to be hoped that much good was done by its discussion.

We propose holding another institute next June in the Lime Ridge Evangelical church.

Among the extensive general newspaper advertisers of the country, the firm of Wells & Richardson, of Burlington, Vt., occupy a very prominent position.

The shooting match between Curry and Wrang has been declared off. The latter forfeited the money.

The Polish saloon presented a deserted-looking appearance since the fight last week, and the proprietor is apparently putting up his glasses, preparatory to leaving for a new field.

Hazel House of Ashland, and Laura House of Tamaqua, visited friends in town this week.

We are glad to note that Doc. McCrea will not go to Nanticoke to practice medicine, but will remain in Berwick, where he has an extensive practice, and many friends.

Hugh Linden buried his wife last week. She was in the prime of life, being 45 years of age. She was an estimable woman.

The rolling mill is running on full time. Col. A. D. Seely, of our town, is put forth by his numerous friends as candidate for Sheriff of Columbia county.

The Republicans are so completely whipped that they are trying to incite riot and bloodshed, and should be looked after.

No. 90 drew the musical clock at Schweppes & Snyder's store and Doc. Kromer was the lucky boy.

Hartzel & Mouray had public sale of ponies at Nescopeck on Saturday.

Miss Millie Eerott was married to a gentleman of Ganesburg, N. Y., on Monday forenoon 19th inst. They took the 11:44 train for N. Y.

Mrs. Catherine Kinkaid died on Sunday morning. Her remains were buried in the Cemetery, Rev. L. M. Kumer officiated. The sermon was preached in the Lutheran church.

Mr. White of the firm of White & Conner was through these parts early on Monday.

Mr. White of the firm of White & Conner was through these parts early on Monday.

Mr. White of the firm of White & Conner was through these parts early on Monday.

Mr. White of the firm of White & Conner was through these parts early on Monday.

Mr. White of the firm of White & Conner was through these parts early on Monday.

Mr. White of the firm of White & Conner was through these parts early on Monday.

Mr. White of the firm of White & Conner was through these parts early on Monday.

Mr. White of the firm of White & Conner was through these parts early on Monday.

Mr. White of the firm of White & Conner was through these parts early on Monday.

Mr. White of the firm of White & Conner was through these parts early on Monday.

Mr. White of the firm of White & Conner was through these parts early on Monday.

Mr. White of the firm of White & Conner was through these parts early on Monday.

Mr. White of the firm of White & Conner was through these parts early on Monday.

Mr. White of the firm of White & Conner was through these parts early on Monday.

Mr. White of the firm of White & Conner was through these parts early on Monday.

Mr. White of the firm of White & Conner was through these parts early on Monday.

Mr. White of the firm of White & Conner was through these parts early on Monday.

Centralia.

On Monday evening a "character" from Mt. Carmel came to this borough for the express purpose of "painting the town red."

The game at pool between George Schell of this place and George Cleaver of Ashland, which was played in the latter place on Saturday afternoon, for a purse of $50.00, was won by Schell.

Coal Inspector Reese has been on the sick list the last few days.

Rev. J. J. Russell is making strenuous efforts to enforce the law prohibiting the sale of food. Our programme was the shortest one and the best one that we have had.

The first topic discussed was the International Lessons—Why superior to the old plan of Bible study—Their adaptation to the primary class as well as older scholars.

2. What good could be realized to our churches, Sunday Schools and communities by the formation of Lyceums.

3. Temperance—Should it be taught and how?

4. What amount should each person contribute to the cause of the Lord.

The last topic proved the most interesting and it is to be hoped that much good was done by its discussion.

We propose holding another institute next June in the Lime Ridge Evangelical church.

Among the extensive general newspaper advertisers of the country, the firm of Wells & Richardson, of Burlington, Vt., occupy a very prominent position.

The shooting match between Curry and Wrang has been declared off. The latter forfeited the money.

The Polish saloon presented a deserted-looking appearance since the fight last week, and the proprietor is apparently putting up his glasses, preparatory to leaving for a new field.

Hazel House of Ashland, and Laura House of Tamaqua, visited friends in town this week.

We are glad to note that Doc. McCrea will not go to Nanticoke to practice medicine, but will remain in Berwick, where he has an extensive practice, and many friends.

Hugh Linden buried his wife last week. She was in the prime of life, being 45 years of age. She was an estimable woman.

The rolling mill is running on full time. Col. A. D. Seely, of our town, is put forth by his numerous friends as candidate for Sheriff of Columbia county.

The Republicans are so completely whipped that they are trying to incite riot and bloodshed, and should be looked after.

No. 90 drew the musical clock at Schweppes & Snyder's store and Doc. Kromer was the lucky boy.

Hartzel & Mouray had public sale of ponies at Nescopeck on Saturday.

Miss Millie Eerott was married to a gentleman of Ganesburg, N. Y., on Monday forenoon 19th inst. They took the 11:44 train for N. Y.

Mrs. Catherine Kinkaid died on Sunday morning. Her remains were buried in the Cemetery, Rev. L. M. Kumer officiated. The sermon was preached in the Lutheran church.

Mr. White of the firm of White & Conner was through these parts early on Monday.

Mr. White of the firm of White & Conner was through these parts early on Monday.

Mr. White of the firm of White & Conner was through these parts early on Monday.

Mr. White of the firm of White & Conner was through these parts early on Monday.

Mr. White of the firm of White & Conner was through these parts early on Monday.

Mr. White of the firm of White & Conner was through these parts early on Monday.

Mr. White of the firm of White & Conner was through these parts early on Monday.

Mr. White of the firm of White & Conner was through these parts early on Monday.

Mr. White of the firm of White & Conner was through these parts early on Monday.

Mr. White of the firm of White & Conner was through these parts early on Monday.

Mr. White of the firm of White & Conner was through these parts early on Monday.

Mr. White of the firm of White & Conner was through these parts early on Monday.

Mr. White of the firm of White & Conner was through these parts early on Monday.

Mr. White of the firm of White & Conner was through these parts early on Monday.

Mr. White of the firm of White & Conner was through these parts early on Monday.

Mr. White of the firm of White & Conner was through these parts early on Monday.

Mr. White of the firm of White & Conner was through these parts early on Monday.

Berwick.

Two of our venerable citizens passed away last week. John Ruch, our venerable post-master, was buried on Sunday.

The game at pool between George Schell of this place and George Cleaver of Ashland, which was played in the latter place on Saturday afternoon, for a purse of $50.00, was won by Schell.

Coal Inspector Reese has been on the sick list the last few days.

Rev. J. J. Russell is making strenuous efforts to enforce the law prohibiting the sale of food. Our programme was the shortest one and the best one that we have had.

The first topic discussed was the International Lessons—Why superior to the old plan of Bible study—Their adaptation to the primary class as well as older scholars.

2. What good could be realized to our churches, Sunday Schools and communities by the formation of Lyceums.

3. Temperance—Should it be taught and how?

4. What amount should each person contribute to the cause of the Lord.

The last topic proved the most interesting and it is to be hoped that much good was done by its discussion.

We propose holding another institute next June in the Lime Ridge Evangelical church.

Among the extensive general newspaper advertisers of the country, the firm of Wells & Richardson, of Burlington, Vt., occupy a very prominent position.

The shooting match between Curry and Wrang has been declared off. The latter forfeited the money.

The Polish saloon presented a deserted-looking appearance since the fight last week, and the proprietor is apparently putting up his glasses, preparatory to leaving for a new field.

Hazel House of Ashland, and Laura House of Tamaqua, visited friends in town this week.

We are glad to note that Doc. McCrea will not go to Nanticoke to practice medicine, but will remain in Berwick, where he has an extensive practice, and many friends.

Hugh Linden buried his wife last week. She was in the prime of life, being 45 years of age. She was an estimable woman.

The rolling mill is running on full time. Col. A. D. Seely, of our town, is put forth by his numerous friends as candidate for Sheriff of Columbia county.

The Republicans are so completely whipped that they are trying to incite riot and bloodshed, and should be looked after.

No. 90 drew the musical clock at Schweppes & Snyder's store and Doc. Kromer was the lucky boy.

Hartzel & Mouray had public sale of ponies at Nescopeck on Saturday.

Miss Millie Eerott was married to a gentleman of Ganesburg, N. Y., on Monday forenoon 19th inst. They took the 11:44 train for N. Y.

Mrs. Catherine Kinkaid died on Sunday morning. Her remains were buried in the Cemetery, Rev. L. M. Kumer officiated. The sermon was preached in the Lutheran church.

Mr. White of the firm of White & Conner was through these parts early on Monday.

Mr. White of the firm of White & Conner was through these parts early on Monday.

Mr. White of the firm of White & Conner was through these parts early on Monday.

Mr. White of the firm of White & Conner was through these parts early on Monday.

Mr. White of the firm of White & Conner was through these parts early on Monday.

Mr. White of the firm of White & Conner was through these parts early on Monday.

Mr. White of the firm of White & Conner was through these parts early on Monday.

Mr. White of the firm of White & Conner was through these parts early on Monday.

Mr. White of the firm of White & Conner was through these parts early on Monday.

Mr. White of the firm of White & Conner was through these parts early on Monday.

Mr. White of the firm of White & Conner was through these parts early on Monday.

Mr. White of the firm of White & Conner was through these parts early on Monday.

Mr. White of the firm of White & Conner was through these parts early on Monday.

Mr. White of the firm of White & Conner was through these parts early on Monday.

Mr. White of the firm of White & Conner was through these parts early on Monday.

Mr. White of the firm of White & Conner was through these parts early on Monday.

Mr. White of the firm of White & Conner was through these parts early on Monday.

Puzzles.

Answers to last week's puzzles. No. 1, Grover Cleveland, No. 2, Governor Robert E. Pattison, No. 3, Napoleon Bonaparte, No. 4, The Ice Bridge at Niagara Falls.

The first three are correctly answered by William Beshline, Mt. Pleasant, Lizzie Hobbs, Forks, No. 1, by Charles Hildreth, Centre, L. L. Snyder, Millin, M. H. Geisinger, Espr, L. M. Keelover, Lightstreet, John Winner, Benton, Esther A. Fritz, Colesceek. Numbers 1 and 2 of 2 weeks ago were answered by Miss Anna U. Hartman of Madison, and the Benton problem was solved by D. B. Robbins of Bendertown, and Wilber Kline, Orange, their answers were received too late for publication last week.

No. 1. I am composed of 13 letters. My 1, 10, 13, 4, 12 and 3 is a beverage. My 6, 2, 4, 9, 10 and 8 is decayed. My 1, 7, 3 and 8 is a place of refuge.

No. 2. My whole is a noted place near the outlet of Lake Ontario.

No. 3. The following is a name honored by every American. I am composed of nineteen letters. My 1, 2, 13, 8, is a word used by every lumberman.

No. 4. My