

Insect Pests on the Farm.

In her "Guide to Methods of Insect Life" Miss Eleanor A. Ormerod, consulting entomologist to the Royal Agricultural Society, divides the insect enemies of the farm into three orders, which are subdivided and classified in a manner readily understood by non-scientific readers.

A Thrilling Experience.

REMARKABLE STATEMENT OF PERSONAL DANGER AND PROVIDENTIAL ESCAPE.

The following story—which is attracting wide attention from the press—is so remarkable that we cannot express ourselves if we do not lay it before our readers, even though its length would ordinarily preclude its admission to our limited space.

To the Editor: Rochester (N. Y.), Dec. 1, 1881.

Sir.—On the first day of June, 1881, I lay at my residence in this city, suffering at times that they are unusually fatal and cannot account for it. They feed dull pains in various parts of the body and do not understand it. Or they are exceedingly hungry one day and entirely without appetite the next.

These words do not neglect the slightest symptoms of kidney difficulty. Certain agony and probable death will be the sure result of such neglect, and no one can afford to hazard such chances.

J. B. HENION, M. D. Rochester, N. Y., Dec. 30.

Gambled Into Slavery.

There are ten kinds of legalized gambling in St. Louis. The most common is the game of roulette. It is a game of chance, and the player who wins the most money and personal effects are gone they will stake their own bodies on the turn of the game, going into voluntary slavery if they lose.

Boarding Stable.

Having recently leased the Exchange Hotel Stable, I am now running it as a boarding, exchange and hotel stable.

American Carriages Abroad.

There is a steady demand for carriages to be exported to South America, the West Indies and South Africa. Every carriage is made on an order from the purchaser.

SPEED OF THE ARAB HORSE.

The popular notion about the speed of the Arab courser is, I think, erroneous. Great speed is not his strong point; the chances are that on any ordinary race course the best Arab in the world would be beaten by a second-rate English race horse.

THE LOCAL PAPER.

"The local paper," says Whitelaw Reid, "is the best read paper in the world. All the city papers cannot supply the place of the home paper. No other contains the marriages and deaths, to say nothing of divorces and births. No other relates the scandals happening before the doors of the townpeople; no other paper gives the time for the next ball, picnic, or political meeting; no other publishes the toll of honor of the public school; no other discusses the affairs of the town and county, or gives in detail the local news, which cannot be obtained from any other source."

"Hop Bitters" to me.

I am entirely cured, and heartily recommend Hop Bitters to every one. J. D. Walker, Buckner, Mo.

I write this as a token of the great appreciation I have of your Hop Bitters.

Seven years, and no medicine seemed to do me any good. I tried two bottles of your Hop Bitters, and to my surprise I am as well today as ever I was. I hope "You may have abundant success."
