

Exhausted in Rochester.

WIDESPREAD COMMOTION CAUSED BY THAT REMARKABLE STATEMENT OF A PHYSICIAN.

The story published in these columns recently from the Rochester, N. Y., Democrat, created a deal of comment here as it elsewhere.

Dr. J. B. Henion, who is well known not only in Rochester but in nearly every part of America, sent an extended article to this paper, a few days ago which was daily published, detailing his remarkable experience and rescue from what seemed to be certain death.

It would be impossible to enumerate the personal inquiries which have been made at our office as to the validity of the article, but they have been so numerous that further investigation of the subject was deemed an editorial necessity.

With this in view a representative of this paper called on Dr. Henion at his residence on Andrews street, where the following interview occurred: "That article of yours, Doctor, has created quite a whirlwind. Are the statements about the terrible condition you were in, and the cure you received such as you can sustain?"

"Every one of them and many additional ones. I was brought so low by neglecting the first and most simple symptoms. I did not think I was sick. It is true I had frequent headaches, felt tired most of the time, could eat nothing one day and was ravenous the next, felt dull pains and my stomach was out of order, but I did not think it meant anything serious.

"The medical profession have been treating symptoms instead of diseases for years, and it is high time it ceased. The symptoms I have just mentioned or any unusual action or irritation of the kidney channels indicate the approach of kidney disease more than a cough announces the coming of consumption. We do not treat the cough, but try to help the lungs. We should treat the cause, not the symptoms."

"Precisely. Thousands of diseases are torturing people to day, which in reality are Bright's disease in some of its many forms. It is a hydra-headed monster, and the slightest symptoms should strike terror to every one who has them. I can look back and recall hundreds of deaths which physicians declared at the time were caused by paralysis, apoplexy, heart disease, pneumonia, malarial fever and other common complaints which I see now were caused by Bright's disease."

"And did all these cases have simple symptoms at first?" "Every one of them, and might have been cured as I was by the timely use of the same remedy. I am getting my eyes thoroughly opened in this matter and think I am helping others to see the facts and their possible danger also."

"Mr. Warner was visited at his establishment on North St. Paul street. At first he was inclined to be reticent, but learning that the information desired was about Bright's disease, his manner changed instantly and he spoke very earnestly."

"It is true that Bright's disease had increased wonderfully, and we find by reliable statistics that from '70 to '80, its growth was over 250 per cent. Look at the prominent man it has carried off—Everett, Sumner, Chase, Wilson, Carpenter, Bishop, Hays, Folger, Colfax and others. Nearly every week the papers record the death of some prominent man from this scourge. Recently, however, the increase has been checked and I attribute this to the general use of my remedy."

"Do you think many people are afflicted with it to-day who do not realize it, Mr. Warner?" "A prominent professor in a New Orleans medical college was lecturing before his class on the subject of Bright's disease. He had various fluids under microscopic analysis and was showing the students what the indications of this terrible malady were."

"And now, gentlemen," he said, "as you have seen the unhealthy indications I will show you how it appears in a state of perfect health, and he submitted his own fluid to the usual test. As he watched the results his countenance suddenly changed—his color and command both left him and in a trembling voice he said: 'Gentlemen, I have made a painful discovery; I have Bright's disease of the kidneys.' And in less than a year he was dead. The slightest indications of any kidney difficulty should be enough to strike terror to any one."

"You know of Dr. Henion's case?" "Yes, I have both read and heard of it." "It is very wonderful, is it not?" "No more so than a great many others that have come to my notice as having been cured by the same means."

Victims and the Old Woman.

It is said that the Queen is a most considerate visitor, always being pleased with whatever is done for her; but sometimes, from her fondness for going about in the country, especially in Scotland, with almost no special attendants, awkward or amusing incidents occur.

On one occasion, while staying at the house of a Scotch nobleman, she was walking about the park with only the Princess Beatrice, and encountering an old woman, entered into conversation with her. The dame asked her most at once whether she had seen Her Majesty, and on the Queen's replying, "Yes, I see her every morning before breakfast," the old woman inquired eagerly, "Oh, is she as good as she looks in the crinoline I see to see her when I was younger?"

The Queen laughed, and replied that Her Majesty was rather flattered in her pictures; and the woman again urged her to say what she looked like. "Well," said the Queen, still much amused, "and I have said to look so much alike you would hardly know us apart." "Well, you are not so very ill-favored yourself," was the dame's considerate answer, which so entertained Her Majesty that she bade the woman come to the castle the afternoon following, as she should not only see but speak to the Queen herself.

The sequel may be imagined. Dressed in her very best of the old Scotch woman presented herself at the Castle R. at the appointed time, was conducted through the ante-chamber, and up and down a room in which, soon after she entered, the Queen appeared. "Eh! so you are here too!" the old woman exclaimed; but almost immediately it was made known to her in whose presence she was standing. As may be inferred the good woman, and considerable amusement to the Queen and Princess Beatrice.—Harper's Bazar.

Words of Warning and Comfort.

If you are suffering from poor health or languishing on a bed of sickness, take cheer if you are simply ill, or if you feel weak and dispirited, without clear knowledge of what is the matter with you, you will surely cure you.

If you are a minister, and have overtaxed yourself with your pastoral duties, or a mother, worn out with care and work, or a man of business or labor, weakened by the strain of your everyday duties, or a man of letters toiling over your midnight work, Hop Bitters will surely strengthen you.

If you are suffering from over-eating or drinking, any indigestion or dissatisfaction, or are young and growing too fast, as is often the case, Hop Bitters will surely cure you.

If you are suffering from over-caring or over-worrying, or are young and growing too fast, as is often the case, Hop Bitters will surely cure you.
