ANDREW LAURICH & SON, Feb. 20, 21m.

An alarm of fire at the residence of I. K. Miller on Fifth street brought out the Wil-son and Friendship hose carriages on Wednesday morning about 9 o'clock, but their services were not needed as the fire was extinguished before their arrival. The flames were discovered by Mrs. Miller in the cellar, and are supposed to have come from a spark falling from a lamp used to thaw out a frozen water pipe.

Our stock of stationery is so nearly gone that we shall proceed in a few days to con-vert our store room into an office, where we shall have plenty of room, and shall be glad to greet our friends in person.

Mr. Elwell proposes to devote most of his time to the practice of law, and Mr. Bittenbender will give his undivided attention to the paper. Every effort will be made to improve the COLUMBIAN, and we ask the hearty co-operation of our friends in our endeavors.

A caucus was held last Saturday night at Evans' Hall for the purpose of nominat-ing a town ticket to be voted for on Tues-day. The following persons were named: President of Council, William Rabb; Members of Council, Eliason Sterling, Ed Jones, Frederick Schwinn; Justice of the Peace, Guy Jacoby; Constable, W. B. Al-len; Assessors, Thomas Webb, G. A. Her-ring, Assistant Assessors, F. C. Eyer, S. C. West, W. W. Barrett; Inspectors, Carl Albert Herbine, west, William Rhodomyer.

Departed this week on Thursday morning, 12th inst., Maggie, daughter of Dr. Wm. H. and Adelle Howe, aged 10 years. Mag-gie was one of the most interesting and lovely children in this community. During the several weeks that she was suffering from the most intense pains, no murmur escaped her lips, nor was the least impatience shown. Once she said to her mamma, "mamma, won't it be nice when we all get where there is no pain?" The remark hav-ing been made "I hope, Maggie, you will soon be out again," she replied, "no, I will not get out, and after a moment ad-ded, "it will be a long time if I do," and then in answer to the inquiry "do you love Jesus?" she clasped her hands together as if in prayer, and said, with a smile, "yes, I do, and he loves me." A day or so before she died, she repeated a part of the twenty-third Psalm, "Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death I will fear no evil," sweetly and calmly she passed away. Heaven has received no sweeter or purer spirit than her's.

T. J. Vandervalle will sell at his resi-dence on Main Street, his household and kitchen furniture, including beds, stoves, carpets, &c., on Friday, February 27th, at 1 o'clock, a. m.

A card. I desire to hereby express my thanks to my Democratic friends of Bloomsburg who so kindly contributed towards repairs of damage done by the accidental discharge of fireworks last November in the Cleve-land jubilee. The wagon has just been repaired, and is as good as ever, and I hope will have occasion to join the parade in 1885. J. C. TRAUT.

Band Matters. An appeal was made to the public by the Bloomsburg Band, through the medium of circulars, on election day. As it shows the present condition of the finances of the band we reprint the circular below as fol-lows: The Bloomsburg Band takes this method of calling the attention of the citizens and tax payers of Bloomsburg to the statement given below as being the most necessary to any annual expenses of the Band. A part of this amount has been paid from year to year by proceeds of public entertainments given by the Band, the balance being con-tributed from the private purses of the members individually. Various ways have been adopted to raise funds to pay current expenses by voluntary contributions, &c., but failed to fulfill the purpose, for the reason that only a very small portion of the amount subscribed being paid into the treasury of the band. We now propose to ask assistance from the citizens in the way of an appropriation from the Town Treas-ury, and in return for such appropriation the Bloomsburg Band are willing to enter into an agreement with the town author-ities to furnish the citizens music free of charge for all public demonstrations in the Town of Bloomsburg, (political meetings, &c., excepted). To ascertain if a majority of the citizens favor the plan it is proposed to put it to a popular vote at the annual town election, Feb. 17th, 1885. The state-ment showing the amount necessary to pay annual expenses of the Band, are viz:

For Leader, $150.00

For Rent, 65.00

Light and Fuel, 15.00

Music and Incidental Expenses, 25.00

Total—$255.00

This does not include the wear and tear of instruments and uniforms. If the citi-zens will appropriate $100.00 of this amount in quarterly payments the Band will raise and pay the balance, and furnish music free, as stated above. The amount asked for would average about 10 cents for each voter. Unless some such arrange-ment can be made with the citizens we cannot guarantee that the organization can be maintained another season. The major-ity of the members are too poor to give the amount usually contributed by them. Hoping you will give this matter due consideration, and vote for an appro-priation, we remain, Respectfully, BLOOMSBURG BAND.

The proposition to get an appropriation from the town treasury failed, as only 166 votes were cast for the appropriation. This failure, however, is no loss to the Band, as the council would have no au-thority to make an appropriation, even though a majority of the people voted for it. But the action of the band shows that in a town the size of Bloomsburg, such an organization cannot be maintained without outside assistance. There are very few occasions during the year when the band receives pay for its services, and the amount thus earned is not sufficient to pay current expenses. If the Bloomsburg Cor-porated Band is to be maintained it is evident that some assistance, by subscription or otherwise must be rendered by the citi-zens.

Benton.

On last Monday a week it snowed, hail-ed and rained all day and night. On Tues-day there was sleet, and on Wednesday night and Wednesday morning it was air—o, how far that is from zero we don't know.

On Wednesday a week a two year old little girl of J. F. Ashelman's spilled a cup of hot coffee over her arm, severely scald-ing it. They applied Taylor's oil which gave instant relief. It is a notable fact that Taylor's oil has no equal for soothing and healing scalds and burns. No family should be without this valuable remedy.

During the severely inclement weather scores of teams passed and repassed on their way to and from Shickshinny haul-ing the black diamonds.

The exhibition at the Forks School house last Friday night was enjoyed by the large audience. The Pine Grove and Forks schools united in the exercises. Of course the children like to be praised, and they did nobly and their very best.

Catawissa.

The drama for the benefit of the Public School library netted $77.75.

The editor of the Catawissa News Item is the happy man—it is a boy. He will call it Grover Cleveland.

Valentine Day has just passed us, with its usual amount of low, vulgar and ob-scure deaths, and who can tell the amount of personal enmity and spite that has given vent to itself in this way. And yet we claim to be Christians.

Can not there be something done with a certain class of would-be young gentlemen and boys in this town? A few years ago it was said that it was little better than a lawless mob. If so then, what is it now? What can be done to prevent it? Some say, incorporate. But will that help us to a better state of things, if so, let us have it at once. We heard it stated last week that the legislature is to give us a special law. If that is the case, we will not get one yet yet for awhile, at the rate they pass laws.

Mr. J. H. Shuman has his new double house almost ready for occupancy.

Why is it that when we wish to have work done we must send to other places to get men, when we have just as good me-chanics at home. But it seems such a case, and yet you hear those very parties say "patronize your own town." Just so, but then what is the use of so many pre-tensions to right and so little doing right.

Mr. Thomas E. Harder's benefit hop has been postponed to March 23.

Dr. J. H. Vastine proposes erecting sev-eral dwellings in the near future.

Hon. F. L. Shuman has a few more houses in process of erection. Mr. Walter Billman is the contractor, and we under-stand that he has several more contracted for to be erected in the Spring. Walter is a good workman.

Grant, oldest son of Mr. Nathan Knapp, is seriously ill of consumption.

Mr. G. L. Kosterbauer, our enterpris-ing clothier, has been sick the last week, but is now convalescent.

Pay-day on the Penn'a. R. R. last Satur-day.

Very cold last week, but I suppose that it is not as cold as the wave which will strike Washington City about the 4th of March, when some of our traveling officers will feel the chill.

We were informed last week that Dr. J. L. Bauer has some idea of returning to Catawissa in the Spring.

There is to be a sectional County Insti-tute to be held here some time the begin-ning of next month.

Mrs. John Dent of Shamokin, who is staying with her mother, Mrs. Frederick, has presented her husband, a boy. They are doing finely.

The Luther Union meets on Thursday a week. A rich intellectual feast is being prepared for all. Come and assist in the good work.

A child of Mrs. Baum's was buried last week.

The new M. E. church was dedicated Sunday, and they at once began a pro-tracted meeting. There is no other church of its size that can boast of its churches better than Catawissa, and all erected within the last few years. The place is growing rapidly, and in a few years will compare favorably in size with any town in the county.

Mr. W. G. Yetter has been promoted to the position of Division Engineer over the Tuscon, S. S. & L. and Catawissa R. R., with office at Catawissa.

The railroads are drifted with snow up to the mountain, so as to make passenger and other traffic very unpleasant.

The mother of our townswan, W. H. Perry, was buried at Moorsburg, on Mon-day.

There was a lot of train bands send-ed last week for leaving a part of the train.

Jerseytown.

Last Saturday a number of persons, in all about sixty, assembled at the home of Wm. Shultz. It was the occasion of his birthday, and a party was gotten up by his children to celebrate that event in an appropriate and pleasing way. Mr. Shultz received a number of nice and valuable presents among which was a fine Jersey cow.

Friday evening as Mr. and Mrs. C. Kre-amer were returning from Bloomsburg, the sleigh was overturned and the occupants were thrown out. Mrs. Kreamer, we be-lieve, was not hurt, but Mr. Kreamer sustained a somewhat serious injury of the shoulder.

Last Sunday Rev. Hughes after the ser-vices were concluded, was presented with a handsome scarf which a number of the members of his congregation had gotten for him. The scarf was presented by D. A. Shultz, who is a person who favorably im-pressed all with whom he came in contact being a kind, generous and upright man, a good and obliging neighbor, and a staunch democrat. Although Mr. McCollum had been very feeble for a long time, yet at the election last Nov. he went to the poles and cast his ballot for Cleveland and Hen-dricks. On Tuesday his remains were fur-nished by a large concourse of sorrowing friends to their last resting place in the Derry cemetery.

Centralia.

Among the aspirants for the Mine In-spectors in the Pottsville and Shenandoah districts, we noticed the names of two citizens of town, namely, Arthur E. Jones and Isaac Jones. The examinations were conducted in Pottsville last week, but it is not yet known who the fortunate ones are. Both the above named gentlemen are thoroughly versed in mining mat-ters, and would perform the duties of In-spector in a creditable manner if appointed.

James Brennan of Pottsville, was mar-ried to Miss Kate McIntyre of town, last week. They will reside in Pottsville.

The revival meetings in progress in the Methodist church are very well attended, notwithstanding the inclement weather.

The Logan and Centralia collieries start-ed to work full time on Wednesday last week.

Thomas Munford, of the Valley depot, spent Thursday in Mauch Chunk.

The water pipes of the Locust Mountain Water Company were frozen up last week, necessitating the use of mine water at the collieries until connections could be made with the Centralia borough main.

Sup't. Reese, since his return from the State Capital, has a pleasant smile. Evi-dently the $102,000 appropriation asked for by the committee of the Miners' Hos-pital trustees, was favorably received.

The rope in the lower slope at Morris Ridge broke last Thursday, without caus-ing any great damage.

Michael Farrei of Dark Corner, buried an interesting child on Saturday last.

All the collieries in this section were forced to suspend operations on Monday, on account of the severity of the weather.

While walking along Locust Avenue one day last week, Mrs. Rowan fell on the ice, breaking an arm, and receiving an ugly gash on the head. This plainly shows the condition of our sidewalks.

Richard Jones, who left town several years ago, for the West, returned on Satur-day. His accounts of the far West are interesting but encouraging.

W. C. Troutman, the gentlemanly book-keeper in the Mammoth store, was on the sick list last week.

All the trains coming into town were de-layed several hours by the storm, on Mon-day.

The following is the citizens' ticket, nominated on Saturday evening: Chief Burgess, Andrew Lenahan; Elvig Consta-ble; Joseph Barrett; Council, G. D. Mur-phy and George Troutman; School Direc-tors, Edward Williams and J. M. Riley.

As there is little or no opposition, the above ticket will be elected.

Ben. Millington, twin brother of J. T. Millington, was in town last week. Ben. has been a student in a medical college in Maine, the past few years.

According to the Ashland Record the borough of Centralia contains but one dog. Editor Barron has never passed through our borough, or he would never publish the above.

Now that we have an abundance of the beautiful snow, we would not object to being one of a sleighing party.
