Rev. Stevens sold his driving horse to Peter Brugler of Bloomsburg, on Saturday last. Rev. Sharrett received fourteen young people as members of the Lutheran Church on Sunday afternoon last.

Fred B. Hartman of Bloomsburg, moved his goods to this place on Monday of this week. To-day (Tuesday) Jacob Harris and Wellington Cressley changed their residences.

A story is being circulated, which indicates that another of our maidens will shortly place a white feather in the opposite corner of her hat, and hook in the arm of a walking broadcloth by the rite of matrimony.

This week John Hodge will take up his residence near Northumberland, with a truck farmer. The leading topic among farmers' wives is the New Process flour.

Some have met with success, while others have failed to have their usual good bread. The New Process flour and Old Process baking will work well, but a new way of baking must be discovered for the new flour.

Our farmers are busily engaged preparing their Summer work, which is a very interesting game. We presume all the old April Fool stories of the past will be revived, their annual rehearsal, and lots of new ones perpetrated.

Easter is being much talked of by the little ones, and they are hiding eggs for the occasion. Parties who invest in Easter cards, and desire to be suited in style and price, should not fail to examine the stock at the Columbian store.

Small reports say we will have a new mail carrier on the route after July 1st. One of our little boys over here says another certain bigger boy can't go with his sister any more, and gives for his reason that he goes every night in the week now, and he would like to know how he could go any more.

Dr. W. H. House has moved his dental rooms from the Columbian building to the Sterner building below Market street. Clark Brown will occupy the room in Moyer's building, formerly used by Hartman Bros. as a grocery.

John Caldwell moves in one of the Strop buildings on Centre street. Messrs. Editors: I noticed an article in the COLUMBIAN some time ago taking strong grounds against politicians electorating—that is, going from house to house begging votes.

I was very much pleased with the manly course the COLUMBIAN took in this matter. Now, who are the ones really benefited by candidates traveling the county from house to house? We answer, the hotel keepers are the ones most benefited. It is expected when they make their canvass that money be left at the hotels.

It does seem to me if all this going out of the county to get votes were broken up it would be a real reform in the political world. My idea is, all who want to be candidates announce their names in the county papers and all stay at home and let the people decide the matter. The candidates will not be abused, as they usually are and some money saved by them.

It would be a fair expression of the people I think if this rule were adopted. It would be better for all concerned. Once more after the lapse of forty-four years the Democracy holds the reins to steady the helm. It seems to me the way Cleveland and his cabinet are going to work the white house and all other departments at Washington will be cleaned up from top to bottom.

Our republican friends feel pretty good over Cleveland's election only those who hold offices or expect to get one of course they feel a little sore in spots. Some of the old bosses feel sore all over the only thing know for them to buy a bottle of Dr. Hawley's O. K. Liniment and one of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup. One of us used inwardly and the other externally with proper care it will bring them out in the spring.

Beautiful flowers for Easter at Dillon's Green Houses. Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Reighard made a flying visit to Shumantown last week to surprise Mr. and Mrs. Roder of that place.

An entertainment was given on Saturday evening by No. 1 and 2 schools of this town, the students of each school proceeded to be used in purchasing a Webster's un-abridged dictionary.

Judging from the amount of water in the different lots in town, there is no need of water works unless it would be to pump it out in the tank.

Peter Vanlieve of Philadelphia, spent a few days during the past week with his brother A. C. Vanlieve, of town. Snow fell on Saturday night to the depth of five inches, in town.

Moving now seems to be the time, at least that is what those fellows say that visit the sleeping apartments at night. They sing it with sorrow. Bugs. Bartley Hoacock moved to Greenwood on Thursday last.

Mrs. Clem. Harmon, who has been on the sick list during the winter, now seems to be convalescing sufficiently so as to be out again. A Mr. Low from Lycoming county will occupy the farm vacated by Robert Purcell.

'Tis hard to tell whether the Literary fell through, or some of its patrons missed the mark. Elizabeth Ruckles of Epsy, will take possession of the property of Margaret McKillop, deceased.

The change of landlords at the hotel takes place on Wednesday. Fredrick will continue to run the bar until May court. Poetry for the skating rink: A dash, a crush, A twirl, a twirl, But roller skates upset her.

A slip, a slip, She cut her lip— Next time she'll do better. A slide, a slide, The skates were snide. They proved to be a snide. No more shall I snare The rink all over, For her ma won't let her.

The skates weren't mates— She now relates To a distant friend by letter. And when she fell She knew full well That the floor rose up and met her.

There is a wide-spread and serious prevalence of disorders of the kidneys; and of various diseases caused by the imperfect operation of the kidneys and liver, according to Roberts, Thompson, and other recognized authorities, kidney disorders are very common, but the absence of many people, and victims of kidney complaint, and they and their physician do not realize it. Rheumatism, neuralgia, frequent headache, chills and fever, "blues," hot and dry skin, sour stomach, dyspepsia, irregular action of the bowels, nervous irritability, muscular soreness, cramps, languor, impairment of memory, loss of vitality, are among the preliminary evidences of coming kidney and liver derangements. As the disease develops then follow lame back, swelling ankles, pale face, sealding sensations, the water sometimes being very light and abundant, at others scarce, dark-colored and frothy, an abundant in sediment, and under the microscope, in albumen and tubic casts. If the deranged kidneys are not promptly attended to there is danger of the terrible Bright's Disease—hitherto considered incurable, which is a consumption or destruction of the kidneys—the near approach of which alarming dis-
