

THE COLUMBIAN.

of 55,000 of people are administered. That so much has been accomplished in five months is remarkable...

Every Democrat appointed under this Administration is not a thief, not at all; but every thief appointed so far is a Democrat...

Perhaps the Press has not heard of the case of C. P. Judd, the special agent of the Labor Bureau, who has just been arrested for horse stealing...

Soon afterward Mr. Thomas, the Colorado member of the National Democratic Committee wrote to Mr. Wright...

Nearly all those who urged Judd's appointment are republicans, and Wright is a republican who still holds over...

On the Confederate Decoration Day in New Orleans I was standing near the Confederate monument in one of the cemeteries...

Col. Barbier's Resignation. An ex-confederate forced by criticism to leave a pension office.

Joseph Barbier, the ex-Confederate Colonel whose appointment to a clerkship in the office of Gen. W. W. H. Davis...

After some reflection, and on being assured that Barbier earnestly desired to retire, Gen. Davis accepted the resignation.

The Commercial Situation. Although business in financial circles is by no means active...

Miss Brinckle's Bondage. A sane woman kept twenty-seven years in the Harrisburg Asylum.

Miss Adrianna Physik Brinckle was recently released from the State Lunatic Asylum at Harrisburg...

When the twelfth annual Conference of Charities and Corrections met in Washington last June, one of the delegates made a statement which led to an investigation...

Thus for some time we may look for a moderate increase in the volume of business here without excitement or "boom" in any branch of trade.

WASHINGTON LETTER. (From our regular correspondent.)

Life is comparatively easy in Washington just now. The heat of last week has subsided from fifteen to twenty degrees.

The work in all the departments has not been for years so well systematized and pushed as at present.

Second Trial for Murder. IMPORTANT DECISION RENDERED BY JUDGE McCOLLUM, OF SCRANTON, HANNA COUNTY.

A decision of great interest to lawyers throughout the State was rendered at Scranton last week, there being no precedent in the law of this State, except the dicta of Judge Grier which was contrary to the decision by Judge McCollum.

Patrick Winters was indicted, tried in April, 1885, and convicted of murder in the second degree. A new trial was granted by the Court of Oyer and Terminer and the case was brought to the same indictment, which contained only one count charging murder.

There is no direct precedent in Pennsylvania, but by a dictum of Judge Grier a contrary ruling was indicated. In other States a conflict of authority is found. Some States like Ohio hold that a former jury could not be convicted of murder in the second degree, this being a new trial, for reasons filed after the former trial.
