Mr. John Sherman has opened the Republican campaign in Ohio with a carefully prepared speech. As the Evening Post, which is a supporter of President Cleveland's Administration, advocates the defeat of Gov. ## The Platform-

The following is the platform adopt importance.

Mr. Sherman plunges headlong into the mire of sectional hate. He raves against the return to "high office" of those who "waged war against the Convention, July 6, 1884. ---Elected ?

From an Article by Mr. Childs in the New York Gen. Grant was staying with me during the canvass of the election between Tilden and Hayes, and on the morning of the momentous day he accompanied me to my office. In a few moments an eminent Republican Senator and one or two other leading Republicans walked in, and they went over the re-turns. These leaders said "Hayes is elected," an opinion in which the others coincided. Gen. Grant listened but said nothing. After they had settled the matter in their jown minds he said: "Gentleman, it looks to me as if Mr. Tilden was elected." He afterward sent for me in Washinghton and said : new nomination of a candidate shall be made by the Standing committee called together for that purpose, by a public notice, from among citizens eligible under these rules."

The present case is not a declination of a candidate put in nomination by the convention, but it seems to be a parallel case. The intention of the fraud. If I were Mr. Hayes 1 would not have it unless it was settled in some way outside of the Senate. This matter is opposed by the leading Republicans in the House and Senate and throughout the country."
President Grant invited the leading

The answer at once was that the Democrats would favor it, and it was through that gentleman and Gen. Grant that the matter was carried through. Grant was the originator of the plan. He sent for Mr. Conkling, and said with deep earnestness: "This matter is a serious one, and the people feel it very deeply. I think this Electoral Com-

He had large estates in the South and a great deal of influence with the Demo crats, and particularly with Southern Democrats. Gen Patterson was uppose in view.
