DEMOCRATIC CALL.

The members of the Democratic County Committee will meet in the parlors of the Exchange Hotel, at Bloomsburg, Pa., at 11 o'clock a. m., on Tuesday, the 15th day of September, to nominate a candidate for District Attorney. All members are requested to be present.

D. LOWENBERG, Chairman. A. M. FICUS, Secretary.

A severe snow storm occurred at Dakota on Saturday, in Minnesota, Iowa and Wisconsin frost fell, and in some places snow.

The Philadelphia Press of Monday gave several columns of reports of the revival of trade throughout this state.

Professor Mittrich, of Berlin, has reached the following conclusion from his forest meteorological researches: That the forest exercises a positive influence on the temperature of the air.

Reports received at the War Department from the Indian Territory indicate that the terms of the President's proclamation in regard to the removal of the cattle are being fully complied with, and the cattlemen are moving their cattle as rapidly as possible.

The Commissioner of Internal Revenue was recently notified that the contractor for making an internal revenue stamp paper was using wood pulp in violation of his contract.

The report that a wild man was wandering in the woods on Bald Mountain near Wilkesbarre was followed up Saturday last by a searching party who found an apparently insane young man in the hut of Jacob Knecht.

Workingmen's Holiday. NEW YORK, Sept. 7.—The annual parade of the labor organizations of this city and vicinity took place to-day, fixed as a workingmen's holiday throughout the United States.

Chicago, Sept. 7.—The labor demonstration here to-day was the affair of considerable magnitude. It was a perfect one in the parade and fully 8,000 men were in line representing the various trades assemblies and unions of the city.

Bald Eagles. A pair of fine specimens of the Gray or Bald Eagle, shot in the valley of Beaver Run, after the perilous adventure of climbing a tree over three feet in diameter and 75 feet high before reaching the nest.

Judicial Amendment.

For some time past a notice has appeared in two of the County papers in each County of the State announcing a proposed Amendment to the Constitution.

The "joint resolution" referred to was passed by the Senate and sent to the House. It went through the usual preliminary stages successfully, but on final passage, as ascertained by the House, it was defeated.

The advertisement of the proposed amendment to the Constitution has been published for the past five weeks in the columns of the newspapers.

Honest vs. Sham Reform. The Evening Post is satisfied with the results of the first six months of President Cleveland's administration.

WASHINGTON LETTER. (From our Regular Correspondent.) WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 7, 1885.

President Lincoln used to say that he looked under his bed every night for concealed office seekers. The present Administration, perhaps, takes the same precaution.

It is well known that the work of discovering and reforming frauds and abuses is hindered and frustrated by the Republican clerks which surround the new Administration on all hands.

When the just and proper share of the offices is filled by capable, honest and faithful Democrats, it will be in accordance with honest Civil-Service Reform to make no removals except for cause.

The President Home Again.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 7.—The President and his private secretary arrived here a few minutes after 5 o'clock this morning over the Baltimore and Potomac road.

The return of the President to Washington will be the signal for an exodus from the watering places. It is expected that all the members of the Cabinet will be in the city before the end of the week.

A tornado on Tuesday evening at eight o'clock almost completely demolished a town called Washington Court House.
