Opening of a New Hotel.

The large new hotel at Benton will be opened on Thursday, September 24th, when a grand entertainment will be given during the day and evening.

Manufactured by the Bradley Fertilizer Co., of Boston, can now be obtained in Bloomsburg. It is excellent in quality and is among the best fertilizers in the market.

On Monday last in the afternoon there was a trial of speed at the Fair Grounds. W. A. Yetter and J. K. Hahn of Catawissa were the contestants.

On Monday evening at the M. E. church a meeting was held for the purpose of considering the question of organizing a Chautauque Literary and Scientific Circle.

Wm. Webb had a severe attack of sickness, from which he is much improved. It is thought that he will be sufficient strong in a few days to be at his work again.

The Northern Mountour Agricultural Society, are making special efforts to have this year's exhibition surpass any former ones.

As the controversy between our East Benton and Westwater correspondents has become personal will be declining to print anything further of an unpleasant nature between them.

Jno. W. Gibbs met with a painful accident on Monday. He was trotting his horse in the fair ground, and in making a quick turn, was thrown from the wagon and his collar bone broken.

Dr. Reher was called in and set the broken bone. Mr. Gibbs is in considerable pain, but aside from that is getting along nicely and will be about again in a short time.

The trial of John Cox for the murder of Milo Jump in Northumberland will be called up at Sunbury court, to-day (Friday). The prosecution will be represented by District Attorney Mahone, ex-District Attorney Lewis Dewar, and Con. Smith, Esq., of Sunbury.

Mr. Jacob S. Evans died at his son's residence on Fifth street on Monday night, of dropsy. Mr. Evans moved from Rohrberg to Bloomsburg about five years ago, and has been living with his son. The cause of his illness, brought on by a severe attack of rheumatism has prevented him for some years from earning a livelihood and he has been dependent upon his children.

Wm. Brooks, Beason H. Brown, Mrs. E. A. Crowl, Mrs. H. A. Emerson, Mr. Harry Felder, Mr. Samuel G. Grist, Mrs. Maggie Hayman, Miss Margt. Heilbrant, Mrs. Maggie Hirlman, T. Trench, Esq.

The Democratic County Committee met in the Exchange Hotel parlor, Tuesday at 11 A. M., to nominate a candidate for the office of District Attorney. Sixteen members were present. Mr. A. O. Stone of Mountour, placed the names of Mr. Frank P. Billemyer of Bloomsburg before the committee. By motion of Mr. Isaiah Bowser nominations were then closed, and Mr. Billemyer was nominated by acclamation. Messrs Herring and Creveling were appointed a committee to bring a nomination before the committee. Mr. Billemyer was nominated in a short speech after which the committee adjourned.

The State Sunday School Convention of Pennsylvania is to meet at Sunbury, commencing Tuesday evening, Oct. 20th, and continuing through Wednesday and Thursday. An attractive programme is being arranged. Eminent Sunday School workers will take part in the proceedings, and a feast of good things may be expected. Each county is entitled to one delegate. Arrangements have been made for a reduction of fare over all railroads centering in Sunbury, to all persons attending the convention. For particulars regarding railroads, address Mr. Jacob Shipman, Sunbury. Pennsylvania now ranks a Banner State, all the counties being organized auxiliary to the State and International work. A large delegation may be expected, and the approaching convention will doubtless be of rare interest. Delegates are requested to address Mr. G. W. Deppen, Sunbury, in regard to entertainment, prior to Oct. 10th.

Retwick.

Daniel Seybert is out on bail. A few more lights on the bridge. The farmers are busy cutting their corn. Farmers will have but "few" either this year.

The clothing of Levy goes off like "hot cakes." What melons A. B. Croop furnishes our market! Fine prospects for buckwheat and chestnut crops.

The Hoyt hotel has a good run of transient custom. Charles Williams is running a good hotel at Nescopeck. There are two changes among our teachers from last year.

Joseph Yenger has started a new express office in Briarcreek. Spouenberg has one of the finest saw-mills on the river.

Wild grapes must grow on trees the way they come to town. Strangers admire our cemetery as fixed up by O. H. P. Kitchin.

John Jacoby is meeting with fine success in the insurance business. The COLUMBIAN is one of the most popular papers taken at Retwick.

Shuman, agent at the Penn's depot, is fast growing into popularity. Hiram Williams was in town last Friday. He is bartending at Catawissa.

Two child deaths in Newtown last week, buried on Friday and Saturday. They are enlarging the works for making water pipes at the new factory.

Seven engagements are booked for our opera house to come off shortly. The Redock Sabbath school held a picnic in Legra's woods on Saturday.

Housekeeper and Carey are found always polite and prompt in Freas Bros. store. The new house and tailor shop of Pifer, of Nescopeck, presents a fine appearance.

A fellow would have drowned himself last week, but he was afraid of getting wet. Heilerville was made quite a lively place plenty of weddings on hand before the first of October, we suppose it is on account of the license law.

The boys of Heilerville seem to say however the fence is out we hope next time they will be home from Sunday School they will have themselves, then they needn't say over the fence is out.

We are informed that the Union Sunday School at this place is going to have a Sunday School picnic in Bonds Grove on Saturday afternoon, Sept. 16th, 1886. A good time is expected and the game is cordially invited, come one, come all and enjoy yourselves.

It is reported that Mr. O. Swank lost a very valuable horse some time ago. Mr. Sam. M. Heter of this place traded ponies with W. H. Hartzel some time ago.

We understand that the schools of this township are being pretty well filled with teachers. Thomas McMurtry and family were the guests of George Murray's on Sunday last. Mrs. E. L. Kirindall and daughter Lu Lu have been visiting her sister at Watsonstown and also relations at Milton.

We are glad to report that there are several of our young people attending college at Millville under Rev. J. E. F. Hassinger. Mrs. Daniel Houck still lies in a critical condition. Last week and this farmers here began their early seeding.

Squire Yeager had a wedding recently, a couple from Shenandoah. Mrs. Gaspert reports another wedding in our village for next Sunday. Mrs. Harriet Yeager and sister, Mrs. Lawrence Bachman of Wilkes Barre are visiting their parents here at present.

Ex-Judge Hughes put in an appearance in our village on Sunday evening, after which he "took in" the bush meeting at the Quaker. Several farmers are engaged in plowing down their buckwheat destroyed by the recent hail. The expense of gathering it being greater than the proceeds of the remainder of the crop.

Bush meeting at Fishers is still in progress also the M. E. at Quire, where C. H. Barnard of Ashland preached an able sermon to a large congregation on Sunday evening. MARRIED. SHOOK—HOFFMAN.—At the N. B. Parsonage in this place, Sept. 1st, by the Rev. J. W. Herold, A. J. Shook to Anna Hoffmann both of Catawissa.

LONGENBERGER—HOFFMAN.—In the Free Will church Sept. 6th by the same Clergyman Longenberger to Louisa Hoffman both of Catawissa. ASH—GABLE.—At the N. B. parsonage the evening of Sept. 11, by the same John Ash of Catawissa to Sarah Gable of Roanokeburg twp.

Lightstreet.

Rev. J. O. Pritchard of Philadelphia will preach in the Church on Sunday at 10 o'clock. A. V. are cordially invited, no Jews grined.

Mrs. Jane Grimes who has been sick for some time is now convalescing. Mrs. Catharine Oman has so far recovered from a second attack of what was supposed to be apoplexy, as to walk out.

Messrs Clark & Ager endeavored to start up the new machinery at the mill when some of the old cog gearing gave way causing a delay of at least one week. Saturday evening expect to be able to show what they can do.

Mrs. Melick is now on the sick list, she ranks as one of the oldest ladies of our town. Rev. Sam'l Shannon and his daughter left for their home Havre de grace on Tuesday.

Augustus Stoddard and family of Rohrberg spent a short time in town on Sunday last visiting at J. B. Ammerman's. Rev. Byer preached on Sunday last on account of the protracted services at Espy.

J. W. Shannon and sister from Riverside spent a few days visiting J. W. Oman and other acquaintances of Miss Shannon's with whom she became acquainted whilst engaged as teacher of public schools, in M. Pleasant.

J. W. Shannon returned on Tuesday to Hartford College, Conn., where he is preparing for the Episcopal Ministry. Mrs. Deborah White is stopping for a short time with her step son, A. B. White.

Miss Emma Shannon of Harrisburg is now visiting at J. M. C. Hancock's. W. P. White of Union county spent a few days in town last week his visit being extended on account of his driving horse being sick.

Supt. Ream of Mountour county spent a short time with Supt. Grimes last week. Last week a mistake occurred in the name of the visitors instead of Mrs. Strickland should have been Mrs. Erlene of Bloomsburg.

The following is a list of the ladies of town who have passed three score and ten. Mrs. Jacob Melick, Mrs. Cath. Oman, Mrs. Martha Brown, Mrs. Cath. Brown, Mrs. Remley.

Benton. A large crowd of people assembled on the Fair grounds Saturday last to witness a race between horses owned by Clint Lewis and L. Stevens. Stevens came off victorious.

Gus Cole closed a barber shop in Fiedler's shoe emporium and is doing a rousing business. Gus is a good tonsorial artist and deserves liberal patronage.

People of Benton and vicinity anticipate a great big fair this year. Farmers are looking up the pumpkins, squashes, etc., horsemen are training their steeds; mothers are looking up their pretty babies; band practice twice a week (thanks to the Fair). The Secretary, H. O. McHenry, is daily in receipt of many letters from parties who are desirous of exhibiting their wares, which certainly is an indication of a promising Fair. All premiums paid in full.

Charles McHenry's present term of music is closed. He reports a class of forty-three for next term. Jacob Welliver proposes a "tradesman's parade" at the coming Fair. Great scheme. Push it to completion, Jake, and your name will certainly go down in the history of the Benton Fair as one who, in 1886, added greatly to its interest.

Mrs. Jacob Carey and Miss Maud Feiler, of Catawissa, spent Sunday with the former's son, Bruce Carey. "Railroadmen" is again agitating this community. If it would only agitate a road.

Sutton McHenry proposes selling off all his personal property. We are not aware of his future plans but think probably the West will see him in the Spring. Mrs. W. D. Beckley spent Sunday in town.

"Holly" is remodeling the A. D. Shultz property preparatory to moving in the Spring. Thos. Chapin proposes occupying the house in which J. S. McHenry is now living.

The hunters in this section are all a quiver over the hunting party which took place Saturday one week. Lots of game will, no doubt, be secured, as there are some very fine marksmen in this vicinity. Some one was heard to say why there were so many COLUMBIANS came to this office than other papers. The paper itself answers that unnecessary question.

Wm. M. Appleman & Bro. are turning out a great many new wagons. They do excellent work and as for workmanship and durability their wagons are second to none in the county. A game of ball will probably take place on the Fair ground Saturday next. Camera men and a part of the grandstand are three ministers—who are more competent to judge chickens than they—won't the ministers squall when they see us in "winging sarcasms into each other's faces" to actual happenings of the respective places.

Catawissa. Mr. Daniel C. Welliver, one of our oldest and most respected citizens, was called away from life very suddenly on last Wednesday after an illness of about one hour. He had long been afflicted with heart disease for the past few years, but appeared as well as usual until the afternoon of his death. He was buried in the Greenwood cemetery. Came to the house of Phineas A. Weaver, one day last week, a small girl and they have adopted it as their own. The parents are happy.

Retwick.

The farmers are busy ploughing and harrowing the soil, getting ready to sow their winter grain. The buckwheat and corn looks promising. If Jack Frost stays away a couple of weeks longer we will have a full crop.

Bloomsburg was represented here last week by a couple of her distinguished young men, who came armed to the teeth for the purpose of bagging a lot of squirrels. They done nobly for the game was scarce.

They enjoyed the fun and recreation and report a grand time. Come again, boys if you want your good to include the pure air that abounds in this vicinity.

Elder William Lane, of Hartford, Conn., preached in the Christian church on last Friday evening. The house was crowded to hear the venerable servant of the Lord. He done nobly for a man that has been for seventy years sounding the Word of life to a dying people. May the Lord spare his life yet many days to his friends and his Master's cause.

There was quite a gathering of the young folks at the home of Mrs. T. W. Smith last Tuesday evening, the occasion being a birthday party for her niece, Miss Ettie Welliver, who is teaching school at this place. After a jolly time, which the young people knew how to enjoy, they were served with an elegant supper, which all partook with pleasure.

After a good time generally, wishing Ettie a long and happy life, they bid their host and hostess good-bye and severally they took their departure for home, there, perhaps, to dream over the recollections of the past.

Mrs. J. C. Robbins, who has been visiting friends in Rochester, N. Y., will return this week. Mrs. David Cole is visiting her sister, Mrs. G. W. Strong, of Bradford county, Pa.

There is a move to build a wire fence around the cemetery at the Jackson church. This is a much needed improvement. Hurry up, committee-men, push the improvement to a completion. Remove the rubbish from the yard and beautify the resting place of our departed ones.
