THE COLUMBIAN AND DEMOCRAT, BLOOMSBURG, COLUMBIA COUNTY, PA.

Saturday October 3rd is the last day for paying taxes. Every democrat should look after this matter and see that he does not lose his vote by a failure to pay taxes within two years. If every one of our votes can be got out, we may carry the state. Democrats must not think there is no use of paying the tax in order to vote. There is a good fighting chance in Pennsylvania, but we must remember that while "he who fights and runs away, may live to fight another day," those who run away before they fight for Day, can never expect to win a victory.

Label and Primary Elections-

Judge Elwell's charge to the Montour county jury at the trial of Editor Chalfant, of the Danville Sun, on the elect one of its own members secreta charge of libeling Lewis Titel, late ry, in which case the vacancy thus ere paid by the Treasurer upon the warrant candidate for the Democratic Sher- ated shall be filled by the Governor in of the Auditor General. iffalty nomination, is a victory for the the same manner as a vacancy caused SECTION 12. This act shall take eff advocates of legal regulation of pri-mary elections. Chalfant had charged that one of Titel' agents had offered $300 to a delegate to vote for him for such, receive any salary; but the actual Sheriff. Judge Elwell was asked by traveling and other expenses of any counsel for the prosecution to leave to member, while engaged on the actual the jury the question whether the news duties of the board, shall be allowed of corruption at a primary election was proper for publication, but he de clined to do anything of the kind. On itemized account with vouchers annexthe contrary, he plainly told the jury ed.

that such a publication was as proper when it related to primary elections as if a general election had been the sub-ject matter, and this feature of the if a general election had been the subcharge doubtless had its influence in bringing about Chalfant's acquital.

The incident ought to show those who oppose primary election laws as inconstitutional how easy their theory be paid him in the same manner that could be perverted to the abridgment salaries of other State officers are paid; of the liberty of the press. A Judge who took the so-called broad view that Anditor General shall audit, on presenthe State has no right to regulate the details and management of a party organization under any circumstances, and a jury which cherished a sort of spite against an editor, would be all that was necessary for the incarceration of one who would expose such tion of one who would expose such frequently as the proper and efficient discharge of its duties shall require, in whole cloth. Mr. Chalfant says :

"Some person sent us a copy of the Berwick Gazette of the 19 inst., in which we find an article relating to the editor of the Danville Intelligencer, from which we extract the following

"A prominent citizen of Danville who had occasion to visit Berwiek last week, tells an interesting story concerning a political deal that it is alleged was made between Buckingham and Chalfant, by which the former secured the appointment of Deputy Collector and the latter hopes to walk off with the State Senator prize at the next meeting of the senatorial conferees."

It is a matter of curiosity to us to learn who could perpetrate so many malicious lies in so small a compass There is not a modicum of truth in the whole story. The editor of this paper never had a "political deal" with Mr. Buckingham on any matter, much less on the subject of the State Senatorship or the Deputy Collectorship. And for several reasons ; first, no one ever heard him express a desire to be made Senator : second, he never either orally or by written line urged the appoint-ment of Mr. Buckingham to the position of Deputy Collector; third, he does not believe it to be in the power of Mr. Buckingham, or any half or dozen men to hand over the Senatorial conferees of Columbia county without the consent of the Democratic voters thereof. Moreover, the editor, aforesaid never had a line from nor had he spoken to Mr. Buckingham since he had been a candidate for the Deputy Collectorship un til he met him a few days since in the discharge of his official duties."
