

Trains on the Tracks.

DANGERS FROM WHICH ENGINEERS SAVE THE PUBLIC AND THEMSELVES.

The Railway Review. One who is accustomed to railway traveling can scarcely realize how much he is dependent for safety upon the engineer. Added to the responsibility of their station, engineers are also in constant danger of accidents caused by the tricks of jealous rivals.

These intense jealousies, together with the terrible accident to which their work, has a terrible straining effect on the nerve, and statistics tell us that, though Locomotive Engineers may look strong and vigorous, they are not at all a healthy class.

What Changes Have Been Made. A BRIEF STATEMENT OF THE CHANGES MADE IN THE PUBLIC SERVICE BY THE PRESIDENT CLEVELAND.

In the State Department changes have been made in nearly all of the important foreign missions and Consulars. Changes have been agreed upon in nearly one hundred cases, and by the close of the year but few of the old appointees will remain in the Consular service.

In the Post Office Department 325 Presidential Postmasters and 7,700 fourth-class Postmasters have been appointed. Eight hundred clerks out of 4,300 in the railway mail service are new men, and so are fully one-half of the chiefs of bureaus.

An Asphalt Lake. A correspondent says he never looks at an asphalt pavement or rolls along over its smooth surface in a carriage without thinking of the curious island and the still more singular place from which the material is procured.

"How many people," inquired a Buffalo philosopher, "begin reading their daily newspaper at the beginning?" The result excited considerable discussion.

A GOOD REASON FOR HAPPINESS.

"For many years I had suffered from a complaint which the physicians called gravel. I had employed some of the most noted doctors without obtaining any permanent relief, and for a long time my case was regarded as hopeless.

General Bob Tombs is dying at his home in Washington, Georgia. His mind is seriously affected and absolutely void as regard certain topics. His condition carries him back to twenty years, and he cannot be convinced that he is at home, but he believes himself to be in either New York, Richmond, Montgomery, or Boston, or else traveling the old court circuit of his district which he covered forty years ago.

Being Colonel M'Clure. EDITOR OF THE WILKES-BARRE, BEARS REVENUE FOR ILLICIT LIQUOR.

J. C. Coon, editor and proprietor of the Wilkes-Barre News Dealer, has been proceeding in criminal and civil libel suits against Colonel A. K. McClure, editor of the Philadelphia Times. The article complained of appeared in the Times on Thursday, May 21, as a dispatch from Washington relating to the visit of Coon and some friends to the capitol in relation to the post-office appointment at Wilkes-Barre.

There are scores of persons who are suffering from some form of blood disorder or skin disease, such as Scrofula, Boils, etc. After a practical test, J. H. Mercey asserts that Ayer's Blood Elixir will certainly cure all such diseases, including Syphilis and Rheumatism. It is not a patent nostrum, but a scientific preparation, he guarantees it.
