BLOOMSBURG, PA. FRIDAY, NOVEMBER, 13, 1885.

Hon. Leverett Saltonstall on Mon-Wnig purty, and for many years has been an active and influential member of the party in his State, repeatedly representing it in the Democratic National Conventions.

Work was resumed at John Roach's ship-yard on Monday. Arrangements have been made between the government and the assignees of John Roach, by which the two Cruisers, Boston and Chicago be completed under the supervision of Chief of Construction Wilson of the Barrange Construction son, of the Bureau of Construction and Repairs, and Chief Engineer Lor-ing, of the Bureau of Steam Engin-eering. It is generally supposed that work will be continued even after the completion of these two vessels. It give employment to about 300

Thanksgiving Proclamation.

On Friday last Governor Pattison issued the following proclamation setting aside Thursday, Nov. 26th as a day of thanksgiving.

During the past year we have been unusually blessed and exempted from those calamities and distresses that so often befall and affirst nations and communities. Not only have we experienced exceptional immunity from general and widesweed discounties. general and widespread disaster, but the steady advance of our country in civilization, material prosperity and national grandeur has been most mark-

The adaption of our form of govern ment to the varying wants and con-ditions of our people and the renewed evidence of their attachment to its institutions are the most priceless blessings that a nation can enjoy. It is fitting therefore, and a duty, that the people should pause from their accus-tomed toil and pleasures to make ac-knowledgement of their dependence upon the Supreme Ruler of the Uni verse, and by thanksgiving and praise to show that they are not unmindful of whose hand it is that blesses and whose arm it is that protects. By so doing we shall not only evince our gratitude to the merciful God who has blessed us, but will also contribute to the cultivation and spread of that re ligious and reverent sentiment which is the safeguard of public, as it is the basis of private, virtue.

In conformity, therefore, with the recommendation of the President of the United States and the uniform custom of our Christian communities, I Robert E. Pattison, governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, do appoint Thursday, the 26th day of November, A. D 1885, as a day of thanksgiving and prayer, and do rec-ommend that it be so observed by the citizens of this Commonwealth

WASHINGTON LETTER.

[From our Regular Correspondent.] WASHINGTON. ID. C., Nov. 9, 1885.

The Capitol has been set in order for the Forty-Ninth Congress. It has been thoroughly cleaned juside and outside, newly carpeted, and otherwise made ready for the Representatives of sixty millions of people.

Although the new Congress meets in less than a month there is little speculation about its organization. Usually at this season an exciting contest over the speakership is in progress. This high office, third in rank of the offices of the Government, and second only to Presidency in point of power, is a prize justifying an earnest canvass. This year, for the first time almost in the history of Congress, no contest is indicated. Mr. Randall has said that he would not be a candidate for the Speakership, and Mr. Carlisle is sure to be re-elected, as the Demo crats have a clear majority of forty two over the Republicans. Other old officers are likely to be re-elected, Clark the clerk, and Leedman the Sergeant-at-Arms- There is a vacan cy, caused by death, in the office of doorkeeper, which is sought by three e undidwes including Mr. Eugene Higgins, the much abused Appointment Clerk of the Treasury. The casting of the committees will not take much time, either, for most of the old members will get their old places, or be regularly promoted to fill vacancies.

Nearly one half of the new Congress will consist of inexperienced men. The Prothonotary's Office, Bloomsburg, Pa., Nov. 7th total number of members in the House of Representatives is 325. There will be 138 new members. These will be be 138 new members. These will be at a disadvantage for some time. No matter how able or how well informed a man may be on general subjects, he will be clumsy in Congress until he learns something of its circuitous methods of doing business. It has been charged that the rules of the Honse charged that the rules of the House charged that the rules of the House were made especially for the purpose of retarding legislative work. majority rule was abolished long ago, and the present rules are so constructed that a well led minority can defeat with case the most positive will of the ma-

There continues to be much talk about the result of the New York and Virginia elections. One effect thus far shown is encouraging to the Administration. The Republican Senators who have been threatening to make war on some of the appointments are much subdued, and not near so eager for a fight as they were. Senator Logan says hedid not make a "bloody shirt" campaign at all. In his opinion, Mugwumpian philosophy is a delusion and a snare, and Empire State Republicans are slippery. Referring to the insinuation of some of the mourners that he had damaged the prospects of Mr. Davenport, by not keeping that soiled nether garment concealed in his value, Senator Logan said; "If some gentlemen in New York want a scapegoat in order to get from under the hay themselves. I suppose I can flee to the mountains as well as anyone."

Governor-elect Fitzhugh Lee of Vir ginia, and also Lieutehant governorelect Massey, have been in the city since their election. General Lee came with his two sons to make some purchases, and only remained a few hours. Everywhere he went on the street he was followed by a congratulatory crowd that insisted on shaking hands

Senator Mahone is so broken politically and socially, that some of his friends have been urging him to leave Virginia and make his home in Washington in the feture. There are those, however who express the hope that when he emigrates from his native state he will not stop short of Alaska. There are others who wish for him a hotter climate. It has been suggested that he will rise from the depth of his gloom and run for Congress next year.

Everything that the President intends to recommend in his message, will, it is thought, receive the support of his party. The Administration is in high spirits and great harmony among Democrats is looked for now. The party feels united and strengthened by recent victories and that d ty last was appointed to be Collector of Customs at Buston. He has been a Dumocrat since the disruption of the of political ascendancy.

Catarrh

Is undoubtedly eaused by impure blood. Hence a medicine which purifies the blood removes the cause of the disease and opens the way for a thorough cure. This is exactly what Hood's Sarsaparilla does, and it makes the cure complete by giving the system health and strength, and enabling it to throw off the depressing effects of the disease.

Catarrh

Sarsaparilla has helped me more for catarrh and impure blood than anything I ever used." "I have taken Hood's Sarsaparilla for catarrh, and think it has done me a great deal of good. I recommend it to all within my reach. Hood's Sarsaparilla has been worth everything to me." LUTHER D. ROB-BINS, East Thompson, Conn.

THE RADIANT HOME BASE-BURNER.

We never had a coal stove around the house until last Saturday. Have always used pine slabs and pieces of our neighbor's fence. They burn well, too, but the fence got all burned up, and the neighbor said he wouldn't build a new one, so we went down to Jones's and got a coal stove. It is called the "Radiant Home," is manufactured by Black & Germen, of Eric, Pa., and any man that says we didn't have a radiant home at our house for about four hours last Saturday night, is a Republican and a villain. You see, we didn't know anything about coal stoves. We filled the Radiant Home about halffull of pine fence, and, when the stuff got well to going, we filled the artesian well on top with coal. It simmered and sputtered about five or ten minutes, and all went out, and we put on an average and a spin of backsis in minutes, and all went out, and we put on an overcoat and a pair of buckskin mittens and "went out too" to supper. We remarked, in the course of the frugal meal, that Jones was a "froad" for recommending such a confounded refrige rator to a man to get warm by. After supper we took a piece of ice and rubbed our hands warm, and went in where that stove was, resolved to make her draw and burn if it took all the pine fence in the First Ward. Our better-half threw a quilt over her, and shiveringly remarked that she never knew what real solid comfort was until she got a coal stove. Stung by the sarcasm in her remark, we turned every diagus on the stove that was movable, or looked like it had anything to do with a draft, and pretty soon the Radiant Home began to heave up heat. It was not long before she stuttered like the new Silsby steamer. Talk about your heat! In ten minutes that room was as much worse than a Turkish bath as Hades is hotter than Liverman's ice-house. The perspiration fairly fried out of a tin water cooler in the next room. We opened the doors, and snow began to melt as far up Vine street as Hanscombe's house, and people all around the neighborhood put on linen clothes. And we couldn't stop the confounded thing. We forgot what Jones told us about the dampers, and she kept a biling. The only thing we could do was to go to bed, and leave the thing to burn the house up if it wanted to. We stood off with a role and transed the dampers are the role and the stood off with a pole and turned the damper every way, and at every turn she just sent out heat enough to roast an ox. We went to bed, supposing that the coal would eventually burn out, but about twelve o'clock the whole family had to get up and sit on the fence. Finally, a man came along who had been brought up among coal stoves, and he put a wet blanket over him and crept up to the roper dingus, and she cooled off, and since that time has been just as comfortable as possible. If you buy a coal stove you want to learn how to eng-neer it, or you may get roasted. These Stoves for sale by C. C. GALIGNAN, Opera House, Bloomsburg, Pa. Oct 30 4w
