

OPERA HOUSE, BLOOMSBURG, PA. THURSDAY, JAN. 28. Harrigan's Double Alibieman Co. 8 Great Comedians 8 THE TWO BARNEYS, 2

The Columbian. BLOOMSBURG, PA. FRIDAY, JANUARY 29, 1886. FORECAST RAILROAD TIME TABLE.

Public Sales. The executors of James Barton deceased will sell a mare with foal, a top buggy and a truck wagon at the court house on Monday, Feb. 1st at 2 1/2 p. m.

Personal. Judge Elwell held court in Danville on Tuesday. Mr. Frens Brown visited Millin on Monday on insurance business.

Personal. A Jersey calf for sale—with pedigree. Inquire of H. Stolner. U. P. McHenry has been appointed postmaster at Millville.

Personal. Dr. J. Schuyler is the republican candidate for director of Bloom Poor District. It is rumored that Reece Fairman will run as an independent.

Personal. Foot passengers are crossing the river on the ice at Millville since last Monday. We tried it, and are free to confess, that we much prefer a bridge.

Notice. I have on hand and for sale 1,000,000 ft. of one-inch second-growth white pine boards, including about 100,000 ft. of pitch pine, is a good quality and all perfectly suitable for casing. Also a lot of hemlock fencing and shingles of different kinds.

Notice. The young women of a Connecticut town have formed a very laudable organization, known as the "Tongue Guard." Each member drops a penny in a box every time she says a word against anybody.

Notice. Mr. Enos Jacoby was taken with a congestive chill on Wednesday afternoon. He was found in a chair in his oyster saloon sitting near the stove, in an unconscious condition.

Notice. The answer of Prof. Grimes in last week's issue, to certain inquiries as to what was done with the proceeds of the Institute lectures, is complete, and ought to be entirely satisfactory to everybody.

Notice. Harry B. Hess went to Bellefonte on Wednesday to undergo an examination preparatory to entering Lehigh University.

Notice. A slight fire occurred in the kitchen of Mr. D. Lowenberg on Sunday about noon. Mr. D. Lowenberg was in the kitchen when the latter thought she smelled something burning and looked to see if it was any of her cooking, as she had been at the stove.

Notice. A hearing was had before Justice Jacoby on Saturday last in charge of assault and battery between A. J. Evans and members of the Salvation Army. From the result, money given at the hearing we learn the following facts: Mr. A. J. Evans, on the 21st of November, had rented his hall to the Salvation Army for six months at $16 a month—payable in advance.

Notice. We will send by mail post-paid to any constable in the county, one dozen election notices on receipt of 10 cents. This is much cheaper than they can be written.

Notice. The law requires that the constable of every township shall give public notice of the township elections by ten or more printed or written handbills, affixed at as many of the most public places therein, at least five days before the election.
