A luncheon was given at the home of G. P. Frymire on Tuesday evening for the benefit of the Women's Missionary Society of the Lutheran church.

Just in at Snyder & Stepp's, Orangeville—a big line of new wall papers, of brown and white backs, satin and nice finished, and a fine assortment of gifts, at from 20 to 80 cents a double roll.

From now until April 1st we will print venue bills at a special reduction, which will make them cheaper than they can be obtained at any other office.

Altoona should be the last place in this section to cry hard times. A visitor to that town the other day picked up $7,000 lying on the street.

A Houtzelle physician sells, on an average, as testified to in Court, in two years, thirteen barrels of alcohol, one barrel of whiskey, nine kegs of brandy and two kegs of wine.

Masses, Erwins—in the Democratic Standard of last week will be found a card under the signature of "Taxpayer," asking me to explain the account which appears in the statement for expenses at the Mendenhall bridge, in Franklin township.

One of the most dangerous counterfeits in circulation is a five dollar note on the First National Bank of Tanamona, Pa.

A nurseryman of Warren county, it is said, claims to grow apples without cores. His theory is to bend the twig when the size of a small elder and insert the top in the ground.

One of our neighboring towns a farmer this week took advantage of the merchant's agreeing to pay half cash and half store goods at cost.

In one of our neighboring towns a farmer this week took advantage of the merchant's agreeing to pay half cash and half store goods at cost.

An exchange has a notice of an organization which every community should have. It says "The Tongue Guard" is the title of a new and novel organization of young ladies in a Northern Pennsylvania town.

There was a full week of court at Danville last week.

The Conference of the M. E. Church will meet at Harrisburg next week.

It looks very much as if March came in like a lion. The thermometer on Monday registered 67 above zero.

A lengthy report from the delegates at the State Board of Agriculture, was handed to us too late for publication in this issue.

Dr. Snattuck, at the Sanitarium, wishes to exchange two cows, one will be fresh soon, for the fresh cow—Midway or half Jersey.

List of letters remaining in the Post Office at Bloomsburg for week ending March 3, 1886.

King's patent combination spectacles at G. A. Clark's bookstore.

It is pretty cool weather here at present, although March came in rather mild last week.

New neighbors. (E. Hartman moved on the 29th of last month in Minor Street's house in this neighborhood.)

The day advertised for Michael and W. C. Hartzel's sale was very rainy and it was postponed until the next Thursday.

On last Tuesday morning S. E. Snyder started for the West. Although we noticed it went rather tough for him to part with his many friends.

Wm. Hartzel has traded his mountain tract to J. Parr for a horse.

On next Tuesday Wm. Hartzel is going to move on his farm along the mountain.

J. C. Heter has stopped working at Gowen. It is said he is going to farm the Hallocker farm of his father's.

The crop for parties were all the go for the last few weeks but we rather think they have got pretty near around with them.

We are informed that Daniel Boyer is going to move on his father-in-law's farm and do the farming.

At the recent election Moses McHenry was elected Justice of the Peace, without any opposition.

No trouble about the study of Physiology in the schools of Fishing Creek. There are thirty-one text books on the subject in the thirty-five schools. More, we believe, than in the other eight schools of the township combined.

S. S. Convention of Fishing Creek Twp. Met at the Christian Church in Stillwater Feb. 27th, at 10 a. m.

Met at the Christian Church in Stillwater Feb. 27th, at 10 a. m. Devotional exercises, music, coronation, after which Eld. D. M. Kinter, offered prayer.

Mr. W. Spear, Secy. of the S. S. Com. of Col. Co., was present with statistical charts showing the progress made in the S. S. work.

The following topics were discussed: 1. "The true mission of the S. S.," Mr. Spear thought the true mission of the S. S. was to convert children to Christ.

Mr. Kinter said it was a great mistake to get the idea that the object of the S. S. is merely to convert. If that is true, then after conversion the work of the S. S. is completed.

There are quite a number of people sick in this place from colds, measles and other complaints.

Catawissa. There have been several weeks on the P. & R. R. the past week, but no one seriously injured.

The Teacher's Institute at this place, was fairly attended, and the few subjects discussed were more of a conservative method, and not quite as much of the spirit which claims that they have the only method, and the only one, which is worth having.

The cold weather is affecting the looks of the grain in this section.

Luther Union was fairly attended and the exercises were good.

The article in last week's issue, referring to the newly elected school director, Mr. Barndt, is an ungentlemanly attack upon a person who has always had a good character, and as far as common sense goes has had a greater stock than those who detested the above article.
