S. C. Crossy has begun the foundation for addition to his residence on corner of Main and Jefferson streets.

A teacher's examination will be held at the Forks school house in Fishing Creek township on Saturday March 27th.

Ask your merchant for O. K. coffee. Try it and you will use no other. It is home roasted. Always fresh and is equal to any.

Get your tickets at once for the concert to be given at Donavon's Original Tennesseean's Wednesday evening, the 24th, at the Opera House.

E. A. Rawlings butchered a calf one day last week that was four weeks old and weighed 200 pounds. It was purchased of E. H. Little, Esq.

The body of Mrs. Joseph Bladen was brought here from Nanticoke on the cars on Tuesday morning for interment. She was formerly a resident of this town.

Wanted—Three good men to sell the Singer Machine on liberal terms, inquire at the Singer office. D. F. Wiser, Agent, March 12th.

There will be a special meeting of the Winona Fire Company on this Friday evening at 8 o'clock, for the transaction of important business. All members are requested to attend punctually.

Mrs. Daniel Wertman, a daughter of Hon. Iraam Derr, died at Harrisburg on Tuesday morning last. The remains will be brought here this Friday morning, and will be taken to Rohrbaugh for interment.

An inspection of the bread baked at Phillips' bakery shows a loaf as white as snow, large and solid and light. The flour used is mostly from the Hemlock mill. Good flour and a good baker produce a very fine article.

An entertainment, consisting of dramas, recitations, music, &c., will be given by the pupils of the grammar school, in P. D. Black's hall, at Rohrbaugh, on Saturday evening, March 20th, 1886. Doors open at 7 o'clock. Admission, 10c and 15c.

Richard Jones, for several years past the faithful watchman at the First National Bank, died on Friday morning after an illness of a few days. He was buried on Monday in Rosemont Cemetery. He was a member of the Baptist church, and the Odd Fellows attended his burial in a body.

Special attention is called to the large and fine stock of children's suits at D. Lowenberg's. Those who desire a first choice should call soon and make their selections. Mr. Lowenberg has also received the Spring suits for men and youths, and is prepared to make them up in the latest style.

Donavon's Tennesseeans, who are to appear here on the 24th, is one of the very best troupes who performed every night last season. This is great evidence of popularity, for it was a season in which many of the traveling companies failed to draw audiences sufficiently large to present their entertainment.

From now until April 1st we will print venue bills at a special reduction, which will make them cheap, rather than they can be obtained at any other office. Every bill printed by us receives a two weeks notice in the paper, free.

Mr. I. S. Kuhn has leased the Central Hotel to Mr. George A. Rand, of North Bend, Clinton county. He will take possession April 1st and bring with him two sons and three daughters. Mr. A. Rand when a boy brought John S. Inman to this town in the year 1837, for the purpose of establishing the COLUMBIAN DEMOCRAT.

Mr. A. Rand had considerable experience in the management of hotels, and he will doubtless keep a first-class house.

Cyrus Bittenbender of Neseopeck, died suddenly on Thursday evening last week. His body was found Friday morning between three and four o'clock. He was in town the evening before and spent some time at the hotel, leaving there between nine and ten o'clock. His wife grew uneasy at his failure to return and started out in search of him.

He was looking about the house and when he started in a path leading from the farm house to Neseopeck, and as he was about across one field, came upon his body, cold and rigid in death. No medical aid was necessary and no attempts were made at resuscitation, as it was beyond all medical skill.

The body was taken to the house and upon physical examinations it was pronounced apoplexy. The shock was a severe one to Mrs. Bittenbender, who had several convulsions during the day. The deceased was about 38 years of age. His father, Stephen Bittenbender, of Shamokin, died about nine months ago.

The Philadelphia Weekly Times will begin next month the publication of authentic histories of the Pennsylvania volunteer regiments in the civil war. These histories will in each case be prepared by a member of the particular organization mentioned, and they will be more personal sketches of the regiments and their enrollments than a record of the battles in which they fought.

The State Normal School of the 6th district at Bloomsburg, Pa., will begin its spring term on Monday, March 29th, 1886. The attendance in the Normal department is the largest in any winter term in the history of the school.

The attendance in the Normal department is the largest in any winter term in the history of the school. The corps of teachers will be enlarged to meet the increased attendance of the coming term.

The Senate of March 5th thinks that the commission allowed the County Treasurer, 4 per cent, is too high, and quotes Northampton county, where the Treasurer receives but 2 1/2 per cent, and Wyoming county where it is 1 per cent. This statement without any explanation is unfair to our County Treasurer, as it intimates that he is taking more than he deserves; and to the Commissioners who are charged with allowing too much commission.

The merchants of Bradford, Pa., have formed an association for mutual protection and propose to show up the dead beats that the city is infested with. If a person allows a bill to run too long a time and does not pay it, and if no attention is paid to the last one his name is inserted in the dead beat list, with which the merchants are provided, which most effectively ruins his credit.

The criticism of Hamerly's Opera Company in an obituary paper was not deserved by the troupe. While their singing is not of the highest professional kind, such as heard in the cities, it is highly enjoyable, and so far as we have heard, their performances here were entirely satisfactory.

Isaac Waltman was arrested last week charged with setting fire to a building in Benton. On Thursday last week he was brought before Judge Elwell on a writ of habeas corpus, and after a hearing he was remanded to jail in default of $1,000 bail.

A real surprise was given to Mr. and Mrs. I. S. Kuhn on Monday evening. It was the thirtieth anniversary of their wedding, and Mrs. Kuhn desired to properly observe it. Invitations were hastily sent out to the neighbors on Monday, and at the evening the house was well filled, to the astonishment of both Mr. and Mrs. Kuhn.

Some relatives of Mrs. Ammerman's, in company with Mr. Harris, of Danville, are paying the Ammermans a visit.

Another new buxster in our township, E. P. Hous has embarked.

From Heterville to Peru. The undersigned wishes to write a few lines to this paper from Heterville, Pa., to relate to his recent visit to the latter place and the prospects of this part of the country.

On starting from the old familiar place and home of Heterville the weather was cold and blustering. I took the train at Heterville for Scranton and on reaching there I found the people very clever and friendly.

A Great Victory. A Terrible Case of Scrofula Cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla.

In the winter of 1879 I was attacked with Scrofula in one of the most aggravated forms. At one time I had no less than thirteen large abscesses over and around my neck, through continually exuding an offensive mass of bloody matter disgusting to behold, and almost intolerable to endure.

After three years of misery, having been treated by three physicians, I was worse than ever. Finally, on the recommendation of Dr. H. H. Huntley, druggist of Lookport, I was induced to try Hood's Sarsaparilla.
