SELECT STORY. THROUGH DEVIUS WAYS. BY ELLA W. PRATT. The autumn wind was laden with promise of a bleak and rainy evening.

The autumn wind was laden with promise of a bleak and rainy evening. At the door of the house the wind wailed like a wailing woman.

At the door of the house the wind wailed like a wailing woman. Within four cousins sitting together in the gray dusk were talking on a subject of the moment to them.

Within four cousins sitting together in the gray dusk were talking on a subject of the moment to them. The evening was dark, the stove had not yet been put up for the winter.

The evening was dark, the stove had not yet been put up for the winter. The musician hummed a tune at the window and the colorless walls looked like mounting sheets of mist.

The musician hummed a tune at the window and the colorless walls looked like mounting sheets of mist. They sat on the floor, and the room was filled with the sound of their voices.

They sat on the floor, and the room was filled with the sound of their voices. The land isn't worth $3 an acre, he was saying to his companions.

he was saying to his companions, "I don't know as we've got another such an offer as we've got now. We might as well sell and done with it."

"I don't know as we've got another such an offer as we've got now. We might as well sell and done with it. I never was no hand for breaking up wild lands anyhow."

"I never was no hand for breaking up wild lands anyhow. Nor I," exclaimed the girl, who was walking the floor mischievously.

"Nor I," exclaimed the girl, who was walking the floor mischievously. But to no avail, for the girl was a start down in town in the millinery or dressmaking business or something light and genteel.

But to no avail, for the girl was a start down in town in the millinery or dressmaking business or something light and genteel. Neither of 'em ain't mached 'em much."

Neither of 'em ain't mached 'em much. The girl referred to sat silent, with that irresponsiveness of which only an American woman is capable when she denures.

of which only an American woman is capable when she denures. "I don't suppose David cares much what is done with the land, but it wouldn't be right for us to close the agreement till he gets here, and he'll be here to-morrow night at the latest."

"I don't suppose David cares much what is done with the land, but it wouldn't be right for us to close the agreement till he gets here, and he'll be here to-morrow night at the latest. I thought sure he'd come to-night."

I thought sure he'd come to-night. My share will give me a boost over the winter, for I'm not in a state to sneeze at ready money. What Margaret will do with hers I can't say.

What Margaret will do with hers I can't say. "I shall endow an asylum for indigent cats," said the girl Margaret.

"I shall endow an asylum for indigent cats," said the girl Margaret. "It might give Hattie an idea, and I'm sure she's capable when she denures."

grew hot and red. She was a little shy of this dapper young college critic. Too loyal to show by word or action that she was not of the same stuff.

Too loyal to show by word or action that she was not of the same stuff. As her simple hearted country relatives, she yet felt piqued at the thought that he doubtless confounded her with them.

As her simple hearted country relatives, she yet felt piqued at the thought that he doubtless confounded her with them. "Why is it that you do not wish to sell, Cousin Margaret?" he asked at length.

"Why is it that you do not wish to sell, Cousin Margaret?" he asked at length, when Seth had finished all his story. "Because he's too anxious to buy," said she, coloring at the emphasis of her remark.

"Because he's too anxious to buy," said she, coloring at the emphasis of her remark. "I see you are a true woman," said he by the hearty positively doing up her hair in curl paper.

"I see you are a true woman," said he by the hearty positively doing up her hair in curl paper. Seth was putting the finishing touches to a harness which he had been doing.

Seth was putting the finishing touches to a harness which he had been doing. He was folding up the ironed clothes ready to be laid in the drawer.

He was folding up the ironed clothes ready to be laid in the drawer. David saw all this as he entered, and he saw, too, a glimpse of a shirt of blue, which disappeared as he opened the door.

David saw all this as he entered, and he saw, too, a glimpse of a shirt of blue, which disappeared as he opened the door. "So I have made an enemy of my untamed cousin," he said to himself.

"So I have made an enemy of my untamed cousin," he said to himself. "Well, if she declares war, all I can do is to make an honorable retreat."

"Well, if she declares war, all I can do is to make an honorable retreat. "My boy, we're made. The news is iron, iron, iron! Here, under our feet, all about us, iron—being interpreted, means gold."

"My boy, we're made. The news is iron, iron, iron! Here, under our feet, all about us, iron—being interpreted, means gold. I tell you. I've a little fortune to risk on it, and to-morrow we'll begin."

I tell you. I've a little fortune to risk on it, and to-morrow we'll begin. What do you say?" Seth's quiet face lit up with a deep flash.

What do you say? He could not speak. Success did not seem natural to him. "The man who tried to hurry through that sale represented a syndicate."

The man who tried to hurry through that sale represented a syndicate. I got a good deal of money, Hattie. Hattie ran from the room to tell Margaret, but when she told her Margaret only said: "Well, I suppose we'll find it more agreeable in some ways."

I suppose we'll find it more agreeable in some ways. "Margaret Scott!" cried Hattie, indignantly, "you are a regular stock and bond speculator."

"You are a regular stock and bond speculator. "Cox," replied Margaret, with a mysterious shrug, "I would give you this fortune if it were coming in my way."

"I would give you this fortune if it were coming in my way.
