

THE COLUMBIAN AND DEMOCRAT, BLOOMSBURG, COLUMBIA COUNTY, PA.

The store and banks will be closed on Monday July 31st.

Margaret Weaver was committed to the Danville Asylum on Tuesday.

A large picnic from Luzerne borough occupied Oak Grove on Wednesday.

The report of the Fishing Creek Sunday school convention will appear next week.

F. G. Case has purchased the boot and shoe store of Ledy & Co. and continues the business at the old stand.

Geo. Aurnand, proprietor of the Central Hotel had an attack of the cramp last week, but has again fully recovered.

The machinery at the School Furnishing Company's works was started on Tuesday morning. Everything works very satisfactorily.

Jonathan Trough has built a large addition to his barn. He is an enterprising farmer, and wants to have ample room for his grain and stock.

The buildings of E. A. Rawlings, F. D. Doss and W. Hartman and numerous private residences are being connected with the Steam works.

The aquarium in Clarke's Son's store is one of the prettiest sights to be seen in a long time. It is filled with beautiful white pond lilies in full bloom.

John Shaffer who met with an accident while working on the N. & W. R. railroad, nearly opposite Ely, resulting in the fracture of his skull, is improving rapidly.

There was a grand demonstration of the Young Catholic Temperance Men of Wilkes-Barre Monday. Over five hundred of boys and young men, under thirty years of age were in line.

The Normal school grounds never looked better than at present. The lawn has the appearance of velvet, and numerous flower beds add to the general fine effect.

Judge Krickbaum recently showed us a copy of "The Boston Gazette and County Journal" dated March 12, 1770. He found it among the papers of M. L. Brown deceased of New Columbus. It is in a remarkable state of preservation.

From the statement of Bloom school district, published in some of the newspapers, it appears that Mr. Krickbaum has taken the $125 due him as secretary of the board, which he declined to take about the time he was a candidate for Prothonotary for a third term.

Several articles that were in type were prevented from appearing last week by an accident which knocked a galley into it just as we were getting ready for press. Those who looked for particular items last week were disappointed, with our usual understanding the reason.

W. F. Bolline has a very sore finger resulting from the bite of a pup. He was feeding the dog when he got it, while catching the middle finger of the left hand in his teeth, barely breaking the skin. The wound was cauterized, and it is possible that the inflamed condition of the finger arises more from this treatment than from the bite.

The Pottsville Chronicle says: Honora A. Robbins, of Bloomsburg, Tuesday filed a copy of the diploma she received this month from the Women's Medical College, of Pennsylvania, in the Prothonotary's office and was registered as a physician. Dr. Robbins is a sister of Isaac Robbins, of Shenandoah. She formerly taught school in that town. She now lives in Bloomsburg.

The commencement invitations sent out by the members of the Senior class this year are the handsomest ever issued from Northumberland. Each one consists of two cards by 5 inches, with gilt bevelled edge. On the first is the invitation engraved in elaborate design, and on the second are the names of the members of the class.

List of letters remaining in the Post Office at Bloomsburg for week ending June 22, 1886.

Miss Sarah J. Carlin, Miss Florence Edgar, Mrs. W. M. Hartman, Mrs. E. M. Hagenbuch, Mr. Samuel Hess, Thomas Metcalf, (Ship) Mr. Ernest Millard, Alfred Miller, Mr. J. H. Paine, James S. Penman, William Sider, Mr. William Stangler, CADERS.

Mr. H. A. Shaffer, H. C. Waples Esq., Chas. H. Williams.

Persons calling for these letters will please say "advertised."

Work at Oak Grove Park is going on rapidly, and when completed it will be one of the finest picnic grounds in this section.

Hot Shot.

A warm personal controversy has been carried on for some weeks between the Catawissa News Item and the Sentinel. The latter paper has charged one of the editors of the former with attending cock-fights on Sunday, and the other with dishonest practice towards a client. Whether these charges have been successfully refuted or not is a matter of course.

The buildings of E. A. Rawlings, F. D. Doss and W. Hartman and numerous private residences are being connected with the Steam works.

The aquarium in Clarke's Son's store is one of the prettiest sights to be seen in a long time. It is filled with beautiful white pond lilies in full bloom.

John Shaffer who met with an accident while working on the N. & W. R. railroad, nearly opposite Ely, resulting in the fracture of his skull, is improving rapidly.

There was a grand demonstration of the Young Catholic Temperance Men of Wilkes-Barre Monday. Over five hundred of boys and young men, under thirty years of age were in line.

The Normal school grounds never looked better than at present. The lawn has the appearance of velvet, and numerous flower beds add to the general fine effect.

Judge Krickbaum recently showed us a copy of "The Boston Gazette and County Journal" dated March 12, 1770. He found it among the papers of M. L. Brown deceased of New Columbus. It is in a remarkable state of preservation.

From the statement of Bloom school district, published in some of the newspapers, it appears that Mr. Krickbaum has taken the $125 due him as secretary of the board, which he declined to take about the time he was a candidate for Prothonotary for a third term.

Several articles that were in type were prevented from appearing last week by an accident which knocked a galley into it just as we were getting ready for press. Those who looked for particular items last week were disappointed, with our usual understanding the reason.

W. F. Bolline has a very sore finger resulting from the bite of a pup. He was feeding the dog when he got it, while catching the middle finger of the left hand in his teeth, barely breaking the skin. The wound was cauterized, and it is possible that the inflamed condition of the finger arises more from this treatment than from the bite.

The Pottsville Chronicle says: Honora A. Robbins, of Bloomsburg, Tuesday filed a copy of the diploma she received this month from the Women's Medical College, of Pennsylvania, in the Prothonotary's office and was registered as a physician. Dr. Robbins is a sister of Isaac Robbins, of Shenandoah. She formerly taught school in that town. She now lives in Bloomsburg.

The commencement invitations sent out by the members of the Senior class this year are the handsomest ever issued from Northumberland. Each one consists of two cards by 5 inches, with gilt bevelled edge. On the first is the invitation engraved in elaborate design, and on the second are the names of the members of the class.

Commencement Week.

An entertainment was given at Normal Hall Monday evening by the Model school. The programme consisted of a Greeting Song by the school. Introduction of the Little Patriots. Recitation, Drafted, by Mary Miller. Drills by the Little Patriots.

The buildings of E. A. Rawlings, F. D. Doss and W. Hartman and numerous private residences are being connected with the Steam works.

The aquarium in Clarke's Son's store is one of the prettiest sights to be seen in a long time. It is filled with beautiful white pond lilies in full bloom.

John Shaffer who met with an accident while working on the N. & W. R. railroad, nearly opposite Ely, resulting in the fracture of his skull, is improving rapidly.

There was a grand demonstration of the Young Catholic Temperance Men of Wilkes-Barre Monday. Over five hundred of boys and young men, under thirty years of age were in line.

The Normal school grounds never looked better than at present. The lawn has the appearance of velvet, and numerous flower beds add to the general fine effect.

Judge Krickbaum recently showed us a copy of "The Boston Gazette and County Journal" dated March 12, 1770. He found it among the papers of M. L. Brown deceased of New Columbus. It is in a remarkable state of preservation.

From the statement of Bloom school district, published in some of the newspapers, it appears that Mr. Krickbaum has taken the $125 due him as secretary of the board, which he declined to take about the time he was a candidate for Prothonotary for a third term.

Several articles that were in type were prevented from appearing last week by an accident which knocked a galley into it just as we were getting ready for press. Those who looked for particular items last week were disappointed, with our usual understanding the reason.

W. F. Bolline has a very sore finger resulting from the bite of a pup. He was feeding the dog when he got it, while catching the middle finger of the left hand in his teeth, barely breaking the skin. The wound was cauterized, and it is possible that the inflamed condition of the finger arises more from this treatment than from the bite.

The Pottsville Chronicle says: Honora A. Robbins, of Bloomsburg, Tuesday filed a copy of the diploma she received this month from the Women's Medical College, of Pennsylvania, in the Prothonotary's office and was registered as a physician. Dr. Robbins is a sister of Isaac Robbins, of Shenandoah. She formerly taught school in that town. She now lives in Bloomsburg.

The commencement invitations sent out by the members of the Senior class this year are the handsomest ever issued from Northumberland. Each one consists of two cards by 5 inches, with gilt bevelled edge. On the first is the invitation engraved in elaborate design, and on the second are the names of the members of the class.

Prohibition Convention.

Prohibition County Convention met in accordance to call of Thomas Seabrook, Chairman, in F. D. Dentler's hall, on Saturday, June 18, 1886, at 1 o'clock. Meeting opened with prayer by Rev. Alex. Brittain. Minutes read and approved.

The buildings of E. A. Rawlings, F. D. Doss and W. Hartman and numerous private residences are being connected with the Steam works.

The aquarium in Clarke's Son's store is one of the prettiest sights to be seen in a long time. It is filled with beautiful white pond lilies in full bloom.

John Shaffer who met with an accident while working on the N. & W. R. railroad, nearly opposite Ely, resulting in the fracture of his skull, is improving rapidly.

There was a grand demonstration of the Young Catholic Temperance Men of Wilkes-Barre Monday. Over five hundred of boys and young men, under thirty years of age were in line.

The Normal school grounds never looked better than at present. The lawn has the appearance of velvet, and numerous flower beds add to the general fine effect.

Judge Krickbaum recently showed us a copy of "The Boston Gazette and County Journal" dated March 12, 1770. He found it among the papers of M. L. Brown deceased of New Columbus. It is in a remarkable state of preservation.

From the statement of Bloom school district, published in some of the newspapers, it appears that Mr. Krickbaum has taken the $125 due him as secretary of the board, which he declined to take about the time he was a candidate for Prothonotary for a third term.

Several articles that were in type were prevented from appearing last week by an accident which knocked a galley into it just as we were getting ready for press. Those who looked for particular items last week were disappointed, with our usual understanding the reason.

W. F. Bolline has a very sore finger resulting from the bite of a pup. He was feeding the dog when he got it, while catching the middle finger of the left hand in his teeth, barely breaking the skin. The wound was cauterized, and it is possible that the inflamed condition of the finger arises more from this treatment than from the bite.

The Pottsville Chronicle says: Honora A. Robbins, of Bloomsburg, Tuesday filed a copy of the diploma she received this month from the Women's Medical College, of Pennsylvania, in the Prothonotary's office and was registered as a physician. Dr. Robbins is a sister of Isaac Robbins, of Shenandoah. She formerly taught school in that town. She now lives in Bloomsburg.

The commencement invitations sent out by the members of the Senior class this year are the handsomest ever issued from Northumberland. Each one consists of two cards by 5 inches, with gilt bevelled edge. On the first is the invitation engraved in elaborate design, and on the second are the names of the members of the class.

Council Proceedings.

Regular meeting of town council called at 8 p. m., with President and all members present.

The buildings of E. A. Rawlings, F. D. Doss and W. Hartman and numerous private residences are being connected with the Steam works.

The aquarium in Clarke's Son's store is one of the prettiest sights to be seen in a long time. It is filled with beautiful white pond lilies in full bloom.

John Shaffer who met with an accident while working on the N. & W. R. railroad, nearly opposite Ely, resulting in the fracture of his skull, is improving rapidly.

There was a grand demonstration of the Young Catholic Temperance Men of Wilkes-Barre Monday. Over five hundred of boys and young men, under thirty years of age were in line.

The Normal school grounds never looked better than at present. The lawn has the appearance of velvet, and numerous flower beds add to the general fine effect.

Judge Krickbaum recently showed us a copy of "The Boston Gazette and County Journal" dated March 12, 1770. He found it among the papers of M. L. Brown deceased of New Columbus. It is in a remarkable state of preservation.

From the statement of Bloom school district, published in some of the newspapers, it appears that Mr. Krickbaum has taken the $125 due him as secretary of the board, which he declined to take about the time he was a candidate for Prothonotary for a third term.

Several articles that were in type were prevented from appearing last week by an accident which knocked a galley into it just as we were getting ready for press. Those who looked for particular items last week were disappointed, with our usual understanding the reason.

W. F. Bolline has a very sore finger resulting from the bite of a pup. He was feeding the dog when he got it, while catching the middle finger of the left hand in his teeth, barely breaking the skin. The wound was cauterized, and it is possible that the inflamed condition of the finger arises more from this treatment than from the bite.

The Pottsville Chronicle says: Honora A. Robbins, of Bloomsburg, Tuesday filed a copy of the diploma she received this month from the Women's Medical College, of Pennsylvania, in the Prothonotary's office and was registered as a physician. Dr. Robbins is a sister of Isaac Robbins, of Shenandoah. She formerly taught school in that town. She now lives in Bloomsburg.

The commencement invitations sent out by the members of the Senior class this year are the handsomest ever issued from Northumberland. Each one consists of two cards by 5 inches, with gilt bevelled edge. On the first is the invitation engraved in elaborate design, and on the second are the names of the members of the class.

The Whole Truth.

The Wilkes-Barre Record evidently suffers from an unjust discrimination, and nearly every combined newspaper and printing office is more or less subjected to, and in a recent issue appears "right out in the open" in the following pointed but proper strain:

The buildings of E. A. Rawlings, F. D. Doss and W. Hartman and numerous private residences are being connected with the Steam works.

The aquarium in Clarke's Son's store is one of the prettiest sights to be seen in a long time. It is filled with beautiful white pond lilies in full bloom.

John Shaffer who met with an accident while working on the N. & W. R. railroad, nearly opposite Ely, resulting in the fracture of his skull, is improving rapidly.

There was a grand demonstration of the Young Catholic Temperance Men of Wilkes-Barre Monday. Over five hundred of boys and young men, under thirty years of age were in line.

The Normal school grounds never looked better than at present. The lawn has the appearance of velvet, and numerous flower beds add to the general fine effect.

Judge Krickbaum recently showed us a copy of "The Boston Gazette and County Journal" dated March 12, 1770. He found it among the papers of M. L. Brown deceased of New Columbus. It is in a remarkable state of preservation.

From the statement of Bloom school district, published in some of the newspapers, it appears that Mr. Krickbaum has taken the $125 due him as secretary of the board, which he declined to take about the time he was a candidate for Prothonotary for a third term.

Several articles that were in type were prevented from appearing last week by an accident which knocked a galley into it just as we were getting ready for press. Those who looked for particular items last week were disappointed, with our usual understanding the reason.

W. F. Bolline has a very sore finger resulting from the bite of a pup. He was feeding the dog when he got it, while catching the middle finger of the left hand in his teeth, barely breaking the skin. The wound was cauterized, and it is possible that the inflamed condition of the finger arises more from this treatment than from the bite.

The Pottsville Chronicle says: Honora A. Robbins, of Bloomsburg, Tuesday filed a copy of the diploma she received this month from the Women's Medical College, of Pennsylvania, in the Prothonotary's office and was registered as a physician. Dr. Robbins is a sister of Isaac Robbins, of Shenandoah. She formerly taught school in that town. She now lives in Bloomsburg.

The commencement invitations sent out by the members of the Senior class this year are the handsomest ever issued from Northumberland. Each one consists of two cards by 5 inches, with gilt bevelled edge. On the first is the invitation engraved in elaborate design, and on the second are the names of the members of the class.

Ladies, it will cost you but 50 cents to get a bottle of Vinegar Bitters Cordial. This Cordial is a clear, dark red color, and has a delicious taste. It is a most invigorating tonic, and is a gentle, painless, but thorough cathartic. It helps digestion, cures indigestion, bilious attacks, constipation, piles, livens, and strengthens the whole system.

PAIS Indestructible PERFECT. SWARTHMORE COLLEGE.

ASTHMA CURED! GERMAN ASTHMA CURE. DREYDOPPEL'S BORAX SOAP.

AGENTS FOR THE GREAT WESTERN, "THE WORLD'S WONDERS," WANTED! BY J. W. MUEL.

THE NEW YORK WORLD. The Greatest Newspaper On This Continent. CIRCULATION OVER 1,200,000 COPIES A WEEK.

A HISTORY OF THE UNITED STATES. BOUND IN LEATHERETTE THREE CALF, GILT, AND CONTAINING TWENTY-TWO FINE ENGRAVINGS.

DO YOU WANT IT? THE WEEKLY WORLD, The Great Agricultural and Family Newspaper.

A MILLION PEOPLE Want This Book. THE WORLD, New York, N. Y.

THE JOBING DEPARTMENT OF THE COLUMBIAN. is well stocked with material for doing all kinds of printing.

Calling Cards, and Invitations in great variety. All kinds of BLANKS, kept in stock. Special prices on large orders.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castor's. When she was a Child, she cried for Castor's. When she became a Woman, she clung to Castor's. When she had Children, she gave them Castor's.

AYER'S SUGAR-COATED PILLS. If the Liver be congested, or if the stomach fails to perform its functions properly, use Ayer's Pills. They are the best medicine for the liver and stomach.

THE BOWELS. By the advice of a friend I began taking Ayer's Pills. I was troubled with constipation, and my bowels were very dry.

LOCAL NOTICES. AT L. W. HARTMAN & SON'S. New Suits and Bachelors since last week's advertisement.

BUSINESS NOTICES. 100 Doses ONE DOLLAR is inseparably connected with Hood's Sarsaparilla, and is a most valuable argument as to strength and economy.

DEATHS. PEALER-In Fishers Creek township, June 11, 1886, at 7 o'clock, and 14 days.

Grand Hall. There will be a grand ball at the McHenry House, in Benton, on Saturday afternoon and evening, July 3, 1886.

Food for the brain and nerves that will invigorate the body without intoxicating it, and restore the vitality of the system.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castor's. When she was a Child, she cried for Castor's. When she became a Woman, she clung to Castor's. When she had Children, she gave them Castor's.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castor's. When she was a Child, she cried for Castor's. When she became a Woman, she clung to Castor's. When she had Children, she gave them Castor's.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castor's. When she was a Child, she cried for Castor's. When she became a Woman, she clung to Castor's. When she had Children, she gave them Castor's.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castor's. When she was a Child, she cried for Castor's. When she became a Woman, she clung to Castor's. When she had Children, she gave them Castor's.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castor's. When she was a Child, she cried for Castor's. When she became a Woman, she clung to Castor's. When she had Children, she gave them Castor's.