Fishingereek Sunday School Convention. The Sunday schools of Fishingereek township held their fifth convention at Jonestown M. E. Church on Saturday, June 12.

The first topic discussed was "The True Mission of the Sunday School." The assertion was made at the beginning of the discussion that the Sunday school is not a mere religious institution.

Second topic, "What is the Best Method of Conducting a Sunday School?" Nearly all agreed that as good a method as any was to open with singing, then responsive reading.

Third topic, "The Essential Qualifications and Duty of the Superintendent and Teacher." The superintendent should be a man of good moral character.

Fourth topic, "How to Retain the Older Scholars in the Sunday School?" The question is, why do they not remain in the Sunday school?

The afternoon session was opened at 2:00 p. m. by music. This was followed by the enrollment of delegates.

Sixth topic, "Duty of Parents in Relation to the Sunday School." They should help their children prepare the lesson during the week and on Sunday get them off in time for Sunday school.

Seventh topic, "How Should Temperance be Taught in the Sunday School?" Have one day in every year set aside for temperance.

Eleventh topic, "Benevolence in the Sunday School." Christ incited the idea of charity in the Sunday school.
