Mr. John Linker and Mrs. John Jacobs, of Danville, and Mrs. Henry Jacobs, of Hazleton, were visiting in town on Saturday last. David Lowenberg, R. Little, A. L. Fitz and Geo. E. R. Little accompanied the delegation to the state convention on Tuesday, as lookers on.

C. W. Funston, J. Reifnyder, J. Wells, C. W. McKinley, G. A. Clark and some other wheelmen, whose names we did not learn, went to Williamsport on Thursday to attend the bicycle meet.

George Hart, brother of William Hart, took his friends by surprise one day last week when he returned from the west after an absence of twelve years. His present home is at Edinboro, Wisconsin, where he is engaged in the zinc mines. He has done much traveling during his absence, having been in nearly all of the western states. For a number of years the Episcopal choir of this town was greatly improved by the addition of his fine voice, and we are glad to know that he has kept up his love of music. He has a rich baritone voice, and he knows how to use it. It is his intention to remain here until fall.

The squirrel season opens on September 1st. Moyer Bros. have been appointed agents for the sale of tickets by the Pennsylvania Railroad Co. A basket picnic will be held by the Bloomsburg Grove on Saturday, the 31st, in Reuben Hess' grove, at Rupert. The Berwick Democrat says that Dr. T. C. Carter of Nesquehock has purchased a half interest in the Eagle clock for $7,500. The work on the ceiling of the Law Library, executed by Coffman & Menagh, is a very fine specimen of their skill in frescoing.

Solomon Hess died suddenly at Iron Dale Monday evening, aged about 55 years. Mr. Hess had been in the employ of the Iron Dale furnace for about thirty-five years.

A large picnic from Nanticoke will be held in Oak Grove on Wednesday next. If the day be favorable it is thought the party will number between two and three thousand.

A game of base ball was played at the Park Friday last week between the Lumber City Giants (colored) of Williamsport and the Bloomsburg nine, resulting in a score of 9 to 13 in favor of the visitors. The most of the runs of the visiting club were made on account of wild throwing.

The annual Harvest Home services of the Orangeville Reformed church will be held as follows: On Thursday Sept. 2, at 10 o'clock a. m. and at Orangeville at 7.30 p. m.; on Friday Sept. 3, at St. James at 10 a. m. and Zion at 2.30 p. m.; on Sunday Sept. 5 at Briarcrest at 3.30 p. m.

List of letters remaining in the Post Office at Bloomsburg for week ending Aug. 17, 1886. Miss Alice Hittle, Hiram Tanner.

Hiram Tanner. Persons calling for these letters will please say "advertised." GEORGE A. CLARK, P. M.

Mrs. Laura King died at her home at Phillipsburg, Centre county, Wednesday morning at four o'clock of typhoid pneumonia. She was sick but a short time. Her mother (Mrs. Ebleman) went over to see her but a few days ago, and was with her at the time of her death. She leaves a husband and three children to mourn her early death. The body will be taken to Bloomsburg Friday noon over the Phila. & Reading railroad, and will be taken direct to Rosemont cemetery.

The train due here at 8.30 p. m. on the D. & W. was two hours late last Saturday. The delay was caused by an accident on the Northern Central below Sellersgrove Junction. The breaking of an axle on an oil tank car wrecked the train and the oil was fired from a "hot box." The heat was so intense that nothing could be done but wait until the track was consumed. This obstructed the track all day, and the north bound train for the D. & W. was held at Northumberland two hours late.

The new county history is evidently making progress. Some eight or ten gentlemen are already engaged in gathering data, and others will come as the work advances. Each writer has his special assignment in the general plan, and is made responsible for the accuracy and thoroughness of his department. The latest addition to the company already here, is Mr. J. McFarland, of Philadelphia, who is assigned to Benton township. Mr. McFarland is a pleasant gentleman, full of enthusiasm for his work, and will undoubtedly find much in the upper valley of the Fishing creek to make note of. We bespeak his cordial reception.

Howard Bidleman had his leg broken on Thursday last week. He had been taken to Mahanoy City in company with John Shuman, and on his return home when near Zion's Grove, one of the horses got his leg on a trace, and as Mr. Shuman got off the wagon to remedy the trouble, the horse started, and Mr. Bidleman, fearing the team would run down a steep bank, jumped off the wagon and broke his leg below the knee. The team ran but a short distance until it was caught. Bidleman was placed on a wagon and taken to Mahanoy, a physician being called to attend to the wound. A splinting could not be set, so he was obliged to be brought home, and on Saturday the limb was set.

Frances, eldest daughter of Joshua Fetterman, died at the Danville Asylum last Friday, aged 42 years. Those who knew her before she began to suffer from a clouded intellect, remember her as a young lady of lovely disposition, whose friends included all her acquaintances. Just as she had reached womanhood when all the world was bright around her, there came a high fever, and for several months her mind was so affected that she was a burden. In her case death has no victory and the grave is silent. The funeral was held on Saturday afternoon, and in the absence of Rev. P. P. Mansart the services were conducted by Rev. J. R. Dimm, and Rev. D. J. Waller.

Under the new tax law the collector is only required to make one demand and that is to be made six months after date of notice. If tax is not paid upon demand, the collector may levy after the lapse of six months. The law is so construed that the taxpayer is not annoyed by frequent calls from the collector, and according to the new law, the collector is required to make only one demand, and if not paid to him then, or within the thirty days, he is entitled to collect by levy, and he is then entitled to the same fees as a collector. Why Chewing-Gum is Injurious. From the Nashville Union. "The flavoring is usually poisonous," replied the doctor, "and by its constant presence, in however small a quantity, it sets up an inflammation. But the habit is otherwise pernicious. The unending motion of the jaws, the constant use of a superfluous dose of saliva—just as if there was always a pinch of salt on the tongue and wears out the salivary glands. Gum chewing retards digestion. If a woman fills her stomach with water or saliva she draws the gastric juices, also the intestinal juices, and the result is a watery, indigestible mass, representing not less than twenty-five States, will attend the meeting, and prominent agriculturalists, statesmen and governors will deliver lectures and addresses. The display of agricultural machinery, horticultural and farm products, stock and poultry, will be highly interesting. The grounds will be lighted with electric light in the evenings, when there will be music, balloon ascensions, and other amusements. Several restaurants on the grounds will furnish refreshments.

For the benefit of those who desire to attend the Pennsylvania Railroad Company will, on August 30th, 31st, September 1st and 2nd, sell excursion tickets to Williams Grove, good to return until September 6th, inclusive, from Catawissa at $2.70 for the round trip.

Coal! Coal! Coal!!! Now is the time to purchase your Fall and Winter coal, as we propose furnishing coal, in car lots, say five or six tons, the same as furnished on the D. L. & W. R. R., 25¢ per ton, each ton to be weighed by Fairbanks' scales. All coal from the Lee Mines—White Ash. All coal from the Lee Mines—White Ash. All coal from the Lee Mines—White Ash.

It is estimated that there are one hundred thousand sufferers from hay fever in the United States; a number about four times greater than the regular standing army. This number could be reduced to a mere regiment if it would resort to Ely's Cream Balm.

Rev. D. J. Waller, Jr., Principal. The thirteenth annual picnic and exhibition of Patrons of Husbandry will be held at Williams Grove, Cumberland county, Pa., commencing August 30th and continuing six days. The exhibition will be the largest ever held under the auspices of the society. It is expected that over 150,000 practical farmers, representing not less than twenty-five States, will attend the meeting, and prominent agriculturalists, statesmen and governors will deliver lectures and addresses. The display of agricultural machinery, horticultural and farm products, stock and poultry, will be highly interesting. The grounds will be lighted with electric light in the evenings, when there will be music, balloon ascensions, and other amusements. Several restaurants on the grounds will furnish refreshments.

Water was first supplied from Foundryville, and conducted through log pipes a distance of two miles. The present water works were built in 1848, the water being raised a height of about 100 feet to a reservoir by means of a steam pump from a large spring in the Susquehanna. Rev. J. H. Young, Dr. A. R. Wilson, Jesse Bowman and N. F. Headley were the prominent men in this enterprise. Jerseytown. The cats are nearly all housed. The crop is a good one. Many say that the corn, in a measure, will be a failure.

It is said that the Salvation Army which is now at Millville intends coming to Jerseytown soon. It cannot come too soon for some, that is many have expressed the desire to have the army here.

Mr. Wm. Gingles was somewhat seriously hurt last week by being thrown from his buggy. The carpenters are rapidly pushing the work on Mr. J. A. Fuston's new house.

Isaac Whipple's new house is nearly finished and he will move into it soon. Some of our boys attended the festival in Greenwood last Saturday.

Mr. W. Sanborn of New York has been visiting Mr. Charles Smith. Mr. Ed. Brougher of Williamsport is visiting Mr. E. W. McCollum.

Miss Bell Ther of White Hall has been visiting in town. Miss Ida Stout returned home from Washington last Sunday.

The two Misses Kreamer of Philadelphia are visiting at Mr. C. Kreamer's. Mrs. Wm. Blee of Pottsville is visiting her daughter Mrs. Jacob Wintersteen.

Among the strangers at church on Sunday were noticed Mrs. and Mr. M. L. Sheep and J. R. McVicker. Our genial young merchant J. J. Kreamer took a trip down the valley last Sunday afternoon.

Mr. A. K. Smith goes to Harrisburg this week to attend the Convention. The annual examination applicants for schools in Madison Monday next.

A small company of negroes were through here last week and amused the people for a time with their songs. Those who heard them say they get well and deserve the few pennies they get for their singing.

Every Sunday hundreds of people visit the place where the men are working on the rail road to see how the work is progressing. Of course a rail road is a costly thing to through and railroad work is wanting in interest and becoming an old story. No doubt the first few times the iron horse goes through the valley there will be a slight bubble of excitement and then the good farmers will settle down to the cultivation of their broad acres and in a short time it will be moving along again in the even tenor of their way.

Orangeville. Our little town has for the past few weeks presented an appearance of unusual activity owing largely to the working on the B. & S. R. in its immediate vicinity. We are beginning to grow accustomed to seeing and meeting the swartly sons of Italy now. The gang under supervision of Wm. Hughes is making rapid progress in excavating and grading above the iron bridge. They have given our people a fine opportunity of witnessing the power of dynamite using it for the removal of stumps etc. By placing a couple of small cartridges under a stump and exploding them it leaves nothing but the hole in which the stump stood.

A Salvation crowd from Egly have been holding meetings in Lewis' hall for some time past, but so far, without any success in making recruits. Last week for a couple of nights we were edified and humbugged by Dr. Clark's lightning bolt pulling crew. The Dr. and our local physicians and teeth pullers did not seem to affiliate. One of the Drs. asserted that the oil used by Clark to deaden pain was cocaine and Dr. Clark called him a liar.

The Orangeville academy opens on the 16th inst, with the prospect of a larger attendance than it has been favored with in several years which speaks well for the abilities and popularity of its principal, Prof. Harkins. The Prof. deserves his success as he works hard for the advancement of his pupils, while as to his ability and discipline there is no question. He is a Christian gentleman and parents sending their children to him can feel assured that he will do all he can to make them worthy citizens and scholars.

State Normal School. The State Normal School of the Sixth District, at Bloomsburg, will begin the fall term Tuesday, August 31st, 1886. The new building containing twenty-six recitation rooms greatly improves the facilities for teaching. The steam heating apparatus has been much improved and connected with the boilers of the Bloomsburg Steam and Electric Light Co. For the seventh consecutive time it is true that "the number of students last year was larger than ever before." Although the Senior class was larger than ever before it, all were approved by the State Board of Examiners. Candidates for the Senior class will be examined at the opening of the year in the Junior studies, and that examination in those branches will be final; thus the Seniors will be relieved of much anxiety, and undue pressure. Five students of last year have already been admitted to college. Students having a card from the Principal get half fare on the L. V., Reading, and D. L. & W. R. S. Full professional standing as teacher is given by the diploma. For catalogue address: Rev. D. J. Waller, Jr., Principal.

Rev. J. Zahner's Resignation and the Rev. Paul's. On Monday evening, the 19th inst., Rev. J. Zahner handed his resignation as Rector of St. Paul's church to the Vestry then in session. The resignation was accepted, to take effect November 1, and a committee was appointed to draft an appropriate answer to Mr. Zahner's communication. The correspondence appears in full below: THE RESIGNATION.

To the Vestry of St. Paul's Church, Bloomsburg, Pa. Gentlemen:—Having received an invitation to become the Rector of All Saints' Church, Omaha, Nebraska, at a salary of $2000.00 and a rectory, and having served as your Rector for almost ten years, I beg that you will accept this, my resignation, of the Rectory of which you did me the honor of calling me on November 23, 1876.

In asking you to sever this interesting relation between us, I desire to express my profound gratitude to you for the long kindness and constant support which you have given me in administering the duties of my office. I rejoice with you in the material results which have been accomplished—the consecration of the church, the building of the rectory, and the accumulation of about one thousand dollars for the building of a chapel; and I trust also that at the great day when the secrets of all hearts shall be disclosed and every man shall receive the just reward of his inheritance, the fruits of the spiritual harvest of my ministry among you may be equally abundant.

I desire my resignation to take effect on November 1, 1886. Very faithfully, Your Friend and Rector, AUGUST 9th 1886. LOUIS ZAHNER.

THE REPLY. REV. J. ZAHNER, DEAR SIR:—Your communication announcing your call to All Saints, Omaha, and asking us to accept your resignation as rector of St. Paul's, leaves but one thing for us to do, and that is to comply with your request, which we are compelled to do with great regret. We do otherwise would be of no avail, as we have no right to expect that you could be induced to remain here, when you are invited to enter upon a larger and more important field of labor in a parish where your services would be throughly better rewarded in a pecuniary way, than we have been able to offer you here.

The departure of yourself and family from St. Paul's will no doubt be a painful one to you, as it will be to us, and to the congregation which you have so faithfully served for nearly ten years. We will be glad to see you again, and you will enter upon your duties in a distant diocese with our heartfelt wishes for your success and happiness.

Under your administration a church debt of long standing, amounting to $20,000, was paid, and the church was put in a position to build a new church, which was completed in the erection of the new church, and was a burden upon the parish when you entered upon your ministerial duties here. A new Rectory was erected in 1884 at a cost of about $5,000, and for this purpose nearly $1,000 was raised through your efforts. In addition to this, a fund of $1,000 has been accumulated by the several Guilds of the parish for the erection of a chapel, under your direction, and action has been taken to secure additional funds sufficient to pay off our entire debt of about $900, upon the church debt, through your efforts.

Through your efforts, St. Paul's has assumed a prominent position in the Diocese of Central Pennsylvania, and you were recognized as one of the most active opponents to the division of the Diocese, and with your assistance the scheme was defeated. You have served on many important committees connected with our Diocese, and your work and esteem of the Bishops, and your departure will therefore be felt, not only in the parish, but in the entire Diocese.

May the Holy Spirit guide and protect you in your new home as the hope and prayer of Yours sincerely, R. H. HARRIS, Geo. E. EWELL, C. F. KNAPP, Vestry of St. Paul's Church, Bloomsburg, August 16, 1886.

East Merchant. An exciting game of base ball was played last Saturday afternoon at Cambra, between the Cambra and Shickshank clubs. After playing 9 innings, each club scored in the game. After sundown—hence too late to break the tie. There was excellent batting and some very good catches made. The most interesting feature of the day was the cheering of the many ladies who had assembled to witness the game, as the Cambra club who were behind and considered badly led, successfully brought up their little end to a tie in the last inning. This was considered a master feat on the "home stretch." On Saturday afternoon the 28th inst. it was decided to play another match game between these two clubs, at Shickshank.

There was also a game of five innings played between the Pines and the Greens, resulting in a total rout of the latter club. A festival was held in the evening for the benefit of the Cambra club, and the scheme proved a failure and was abandoned.

The first church was built by the Quakers, a long building that stood where the brick church now stands, they being the first denomination to have a church; the second was the Methodists, their original church being the second brick structure built in the town; it was abandoned to dwelling purposes, and was replaced by the present one in 1845; this was displaced in 1870 by a more modern edifice; the third church was built by the Baptists in 1842, and the fourth by the Presbyterians in 1843, these congregations having worshipped for many years in the Methodist building.

The Berwick Centennial. SOME DATA RELATING TO THE TOWN'S SETTLEMENT—NOTABLE EVENTS, ESTABLISHMENTS, BUILDINGS, ETC.

Authorities differ as to the exact time to celebrate the centennial of the Borough of Berwick, Columbia county. The people there say 1886 is the proper year. Mr. Steuben Jenkins says it should be next year. Mr. Eggle, however, by Evan Owen, whose name would indicate Welsh origin, who came from Philadelphia in a Durham boat. He built a habitation and laid out a town, which he called Owensville. He subsequently named the town Berwick, after his birthplace in Scotland, along the river Toward. His house was on a hillside a site now occupied by the St. Charles Hotel. The settlers who immediately followed were Robert and John Brown, Englishmen; Samuel Jackson, a millwright; Henry Traugh, a tanner; John Smith, a shoemaker, and John Jones, a cooper.

The first school was opened in 1780, and the first church was built in 1782. The first newspaper was published in 1800. The first bridge was built in 1800. The first mill was built in 1800. Berwick, returning via Huntington and Plymouth. The old academy was built in 1859 by Thomas Connelly, supplanting the market house in location and in its varied uses. A few years ago it was demolished and its place in Market street given up to street use, which was demanded, while a handsome new school building has taken its place further out Market street. This change took place in 1873.

Shad were seized by the wagon load and a load could be obtained for a barrel of salt, so scarce was this commodity. The best shad sold for four cents. One was caught weighing nine pounds. Butter brought six cents a pound and calico from thirty to fifty cents a yard.

The residents did their washing at the river and let their kettles along the shore the year round. The first children born were John and Anne Brown, children of Robert Amick, became the wife of Jesse Bowman. She was the first person married in Berwick. The Lackawanna & Bloomsburg R. R. was opened to Berwick in 1858.

The first National Bank was organized in 1864, with M. W. Jackson as president and N. E. Jackson cashier. The first fire in the town was in 1825. A fire in the engine and wooden works in 1857 destroyed it.

Berwick had its cannon, but little if anything has been seen or heard of it since the firing of a salute on the return of the British soldiers, who were ordered to leave the town, Sunday, June 10, 1781. The cannon was in the hands of the British soldiers, and was used in the firing of a salute on the return of the British soldiers, who were ordered to leave the town, Sunday, June 10, 1781.
