BLOOMSBURG, PA.

FRIDAY, AUGUST 27, 1886.

Monroe county democrats will hold their primary election on the 28th.

Col. R. Bruce Ricketts will get a big vote in this, his native county.

Prof. C. E. Stowe, the husband of Harriet Beecher Stowe of Hartford, died on the 22d.

The Prohibition State Convention was held in Harrisburg on Wednesday. The attendance was very large. The proceedings come too late for this issue.

Chairman W. U. Hensel has sold his interest in the Lancaster Intelligencer. It is rumored that he will accept a position with the Philadelphia Times when the campaign closes.

The following ticket was nominated by the Montour county democrats last Monday: Congress, Charles R. Buckalew; Senator, James McCormick; Representative, Dr. J. P. Hoffa; County Treasurer, George W. Peifer; Register and Recorder, William C. Johnston; Associate Judge, John Benfield.

Montour for Buckalew.

Dr. Neubaker of Montour county, the opponent of Jesse Amerman for Congress, last week withdrew from the contest and the fight was made direct for Mr. Buckalew. The primary election on Saturday resulted in a great victory for the latter gentleman, he securing 24 out of 28 delegates. The county convention on Monday nominated Mr. Buckalew by acclamation, and appointed the conferrees named by him, viz: J. S. McBride of Anthony township, Robert Curry of Valley, and W. C. Johnston of Danville. Should his Luzerne conferrees, and the Beamish conferrees of Lackawanna be admitted to the conference. Mr. Buckalew will have four out of seven counties, and will be nominated on first ballot. If there is anything like fair play this will be the result.

Now Elect Him.

From the New York Sun.

No better Democrat than the late Jeremiah S. Black, no truer patriot, no citizen more thoroughly imbued with the American principles which the Democratic party has brought down from the days of the fathers, ever lived in Pennsylvania or in any other State of this Union.

Chauncey Forward Black is the worthy son of an honored sire, but he does not owe his nomination for Governor of Pennsylvania to the fact that he is any man's son. He is one of the coming statesmen of this generation. Of Independent mind, possessed of great administrative ability, forceful, eloquent, amiable, of incorruptible integrity, wholly in sympathy with the ideas that dignify and elevate the labor of the many, as distinguished from the policy that enriches and intrenches the few, he is the sort of a leader to lead the Democrats of Pennsylvania to victory in this one hundred and eleventh year of American Independence.

He can be elected.

Editorial Opinion.

Philadelphia Press: Mr Black * * is a most estimable and irreproachable gentleman. He had filled the perfunctory office of Lieutenant Governor with grace and dignity, and has shown the higher talents of the political thinker and orator. He is worthy of the honors which have been conferred upon him, and if he could lead a united party upon live issues he would make a strong canvass and prove a vigorous foeman.

Harrisburg Patriot: The Democratic State Convention performed a perfect work in the nomination of the ticket which will be found at the masthead of the Patriot this morning. Some of the candidates were chosen after active contests and by close margins, but all won the honors conferred on them by fair measures and are entitled to, as they will receive, the earnest and cordial support of the party.

New York Herald: The Democrats of Ohio and Pennsylvania are not ashamed of their convictions. Whatever may be said of the wisdom of those convictions, they are boldly expressed. The platforms adopted yesterday in convention at Toledo and Harrisburg are, moreover, explicit as well as courageous. And in this the Democrats of the Keystone and Buckeye States show to advantage when compared, not only with the New York Republicans, as represented by their State Committee, but, so far, with New York Democrats also.

Harrisburg correspondent N. Y. Sun: The nomination of Mr. Black is received among the Democrats in this city with great enthusiasm and satisfaction. It was made unanimous after the ballot, on motion of R. Milton Speer, seconded by Col Thompson, of Erie, and Walter Barrett, one of the delegates from Clearfield, the county in which Mr. Wallace lives, who pledged the Convention that the Democrats of that county would go into the canvass with great earnestness and vigor in order to help the ticket to success. The ticket is strong, represents the young Democracy.

Philadelphia Ledger: That being (the renomination of the present Governor) out of the question, the convention has done the next best thing by naming for the succession Lieutenant Governor Black, an unquestionably able, fit and experienced man. But few men have been so thoroughly trained in politics of the broad-gauge pattern as Chauncey F. Black. Theoretically and by close observation he has been in the atmosphere of public affairs since his infancy, having as his preceptor in that branch of human knowledge his very learned and distinguished father. Later on he has had direct and close contact with the public affairs of his own state, and is far better qualified and equipped in those respects than most nominees for the Gubernatorial chair. Intellectually he has bright gifts, which have been utilized mainly (though anonymously) in editorial writings. Many a man has read his productions without knowing the author's name.

Do Not Lose Your Vote.

An incorrect impression prevails that Sept. 3d is the day upon which the registry closes. This is an error. SEPTEMBER 20 is the last day on which you can be registered to insure you a vote at the next election. See that EVERY DEMOCRAT in your district is registered before that time.

The Democratic Platform.

ADOPTED AT THE STATE CONVENTION LAST WEEK.

1. The Democracy in Pennsylvania in convention assembled do declare that we reaffirm the Chicago platform of 1884, approved by the people in the election of Cleveland and Hendricks.

That we favor a just and fair revision of the revenue laws in accordance with the letter and spirit of that declaration of Democratic principles, and in such revision care should be taken that such changes shall be made in a spirit of fairness to all interests and without depriving American labor of the ability to successfully compete with foreign labor and without imposing lower rates of duty than will be ample to cover any increased cost of production which may exist in consequence of the higher rate of wages prevailing in this community.

2. That we endorse the Democratic reform administration of President Cleveland. It has given confidence to the business interests of the county, purged the departments of corruption, checked extravagance, discouraged class legislation and monopolies, elevated the civil service from the partisan debasement to which it had been reduced by previous administrations, and has made the people of the United States feel assured confidence in the perpetuity and safety of the nation.

3. That we endorse the Democratic reform administration of Governor Pattison. It has rescued the Commonwealth from flagrant corruption, vigilantly guarded the public treasury, scrupulously protected the rights of the people, economically administered the Government, earnestly endeavored to enforce every provision of the Constitution, reformed the management of State institutions, exposed and corrected abuse in the soldiers' orphans' schools, redeemed the Pardon Board from scandals and executed all promises made by the candidates and party in 1882.

4. That we sympathize with labor in its efforts to make industrial and moral worth, not money, the true standard of individual and national greatness and to secure to the workers the full enjoyment of the wealth they create and sufficient leisure in which to develop their intellectual and social faculties, and to this end we desire the enlargement of the Bureau Statistics, the abrogation by all laws that do not bear equally upon capital and labor, and the prevention of the hiring out of convict labor, the adoption of measures providing for the health and safety and indemnification of injuries to those employed in mining, manufacturing and building industries, the enactment of laws by which labor organization may be incorporated and arbitration extended and enforced and a suitable apprenticeship act for the purpose of creating a better class of artisans and mechanics, the prohibition of the employment of children under 14 years of age in workshops, mines and factories, the strict and exact enforcement of the laws relating to pluck-me-stores and store orders and those relating to the accounting of industrial works, the appointment of inspectors to carry out these provisions and a rigid enforcement of existing emigration laws, to exclude pauper, contract and assisted emigration.

5. That we pledge ourselves to the enforcement of articles 16 and 17 of the State Constitution relative to private corporations, railroads and canals by appropriate legislation.

6. That the State and local tax laws should be so altered and amended as to relieve farms and real estate from its present unfair and large proportion of taxation and equalize the same so that personal estate would be made to pay its just part.

Resolved, That we lament the death of the Democratic leaders who upheld their political principles through years of distrust, injustice and wrong. Death does not dissolve the tie with which their virtues bound us. Our party's inspirations and hope come from the memory of lives and labors given to the service of our country. We lament the death of him whose life was happily prolonged until the wrong done in 1876 was made right—the vice-president, Thomas A. Hendricks; from Democratic councils has been taken the presence, but not the influence of the purity of character, the lofty patriotism of the beloved soldier and citizen, George B. McClellan. We mourn the loss of the venerable statesman who elevated his party with the wisdom and integrity of Horatio Seymour. We know how Pennsylvania grieved for Winfield Scott Hancock. We cherish the memory of him in the shadow of whose death we meet, and the sentiment which was adopted by a national convention of our party gives him the best homage of free men—the pledge of our devotion to the principles and cause now inseparable in the history of the Republic from the labor and name of Samuel J. Tilden.

Soldiers' Orphan Schools.

GENERAL WAGNER SUBMITS A VERY BAD REPORT OF THEIR MANAGEMENT.

General Louis Wagner, inspector of the soldiers' orphan schools, has completed his examination of those institutions and filed his report This public document is not very voluminous, but it reveals thorough work on the part of the inspector. Every soldiers' orphan school has been visited, every feature of their internal economy scrutinized and the general management and methods of business pursued investigated with manifest impartiality and care.

The result of the examination shows that the Chester Springs School is in a very unsatisfactory condition in all its departments. The Dayton School has bad water supplied and the sanitary arrangements are bad and the girls' dormitories crowded. Harford School is reported as destitute of bath-tubs, combs, brushes, towels, and the clothing of the children is very bad. The same is stated of the McAllisterville School, the Mercer School, the Mount Joy School, Uniontown School, the Whitehall School, the Butler School and the Loysville School.

Under the statute the usual branches of a common school education are required, but an examination by General Wagner revealed the fact that certain of the branches of study called for are omitted. The Mercer, McAllisterville, Mount Joy and Chester Springs Schools are suffering from insufficient help. General Wagner reports that the pleasant fiction of the officers and teachers eating at the same table with the children, as in a home, thus securing for the latter ample and proper food, is not true, and that the officers and teachers are provided with dishes denied the children.

General Wagner's report includes a considerable mass of facts and figures. Excepting the foregoing statements, he has many commendatory things to say about the schools.

Niagara Cranks.

Cranks possessed with a mania for going through the Whirlpool rapids at Niagara are turning up every day. Capt. Webb was the first to attempt it and he lost his life in 1883, and James Scott followed him last week. Several men have recently gone through in barrels and come out with a few bruises, but the most daring attempt was made on Sunday afternoon by a Boston policeman named William Kendall, whose only protector was a common life-preserver. The following account is given of his feat

Police officers from the bridge started after the adventurer, but they only got part down the bank before they saw him enter the river. While he floated toward the rapids several hundred people gathered on the Suspension Bridge and saw the attempt to emulate Captain Webb. At the landing Kendall had quickly stripped himself and put on a life preserver similar to the ones found in ocean steamships. It was no protection against the rapids but to prevent him from being sucked down by the undertow. Saults and Walker buckled on the life preserver, and after the policeman had taken a big norn of whisky from a flask he had brought for the purpose, he jumped into the water, swam a few strokes and then floated on his back. The current was in and Kendall was carried towards the cataract fully three hundred feet. Turning over on his breast he swam for the Canada side and was soon in the swift current which directly feeds the rapids. It was just 2 o'clock when Kendall started, and five minutes later he struck the first breaker, swimming easily.

Then began a contest for life with the tumultuous waves, which lasted about three minutes, for the three-quarters of a mile. The swimmer was tossed up and down in the rapids and thrown from one wave to another until people on the bank were certain that he had been killed either by hidden rocks or smothered by the great volume of water which makes the big waves of the rapids. Several times the policeman was wholly submerged and people on the bank thought he was dead. When the breakers of the surf tossed Kendall into the whirlpool he disappeared from view and was not seen for nearly two minutes, when he came to the surface. He made a few strokes at first, as he tried to get out of the outer swirl, and then swam directly towards the shore.

The fight for life was close enough to make the few spectators at Mr. Brundage's park shudder when they occasionally saw the form of the man tossed upon the raging flood.

SAFELY THROUGH THE TORRENT.

Slowly but surely the struggler got towards the shore and finally landed on the Canadian side. He was seen on a rock, and there he lay, pretty nearly dead, until Tom Riley, a hackdriver, and George Toby, a New York comrade, pulled him out of the river. Kendall was wholly unable to walk and was carried up the stairway to Lawson Place, where he was fed on brandy. Quite a crowd congregated and shook hands with him. Later he was taken to the Waverly Hotel, at Suspension Bridge, and put to bed. Dr. Hunter made a critical examination of Kendall and found no injuries of enough importance to need his services.

An Aggressive Campaign.

The Democratic State Committee opend headquarters at the Girard House, Philadelphia, this week, in the same rooms in which the victorious Pattison campaign was organized. An immediate conference of the chairman with the candidates is to be held to outline the plan of the campaign. It is not expected there will be much of a canvass on the stump for a few weeks to come; but the work of thorough and complete organization will be begun at once, and as soon as the letters of acceptance are published the issue of campaign documents will be begun. For the present the most important work to be done is the complete registration of voters. After September 2d this cannot be attended to if neglected now. Every Democrat should register and every committeeman should see that every voter is enrolled on the assessor's books.

The Anarchists Convicted.

The jury which for several weeks has been trying the Anarchists in Chicago rendered a verdict last Friday. They find August Spies, Michael Schwab, Samuel Fielden, A. R. Parsons Adolph Fisher, George Engle and Louis Lingg guilty of murder and fix death as the penalty. Oscar W. Neebe was gived 15 years' imprisonment. This lesson should teach men who seek to break down organized society that they are not above the law, and that America is no place for the exercise of their criminal practices. The throwing of bomb shells into a crowd of policemen was the direct crime of which they were convicted.

Mayor Smith of Philadelphia occupies a very unenviable position. The Times charges him with embezzlement of the city funds, and urges him to prosecute the editor and publisher of that paper for criminal libel if the charge is untrue. To this the "dandy" mayor's only reply is that the charge of the Times is unworthy of answer. The law makes it the duty of city councils to impeach public officers for retaining public moneys, and it is probable that Mayor Smith will be tried by them. If the allegations made by the Times are true, his impeachment and removal from office, are inevitable, and his conviction and imprisonment probable.

Black at Home.

On Monday evening the Jefferson Democratic Association of York gave a reception to Chauncey F. Black at his home. Mr. Black was congratulated on his nomination. The Lieutenant Governor in his reply said:

It is hardly necessary for me to say that nothing in the events, and nothing in all the proceedings leading up to the event upon which you congratulate me, has given me such deep seated and abiding pleasure as the steady generous and unselfish support of my friends at home. I can never repay it. I know no fitting terms in which to acknowledge it, but you will not regret it, I am sure. If when called to the great office of Governor, as I have every reason to believe I will be, I shall administer that high trust with personal honor and official integrity. That I promise you I will do. Since January, 1883, the executive administration has been above reproach. No charge of official corruption, no suggestion of dereliction of moral or legal duty, no scandal like those which hung in clouds over the capital for many years before, has been known. The people secured what we promised them and what thousands of good Republicans determined by their independent action they would have—a pure administration in the interests of the people—a marked contrast with the evil rule of the monopolies and rings. Should I be elected I think I engage no more than I can perform when I say, as I do here and now, that the present state of affairs shall continue at Harrisburg. This, my fellow-citizens, is to be an aggressive campaign if I have the power to make it so. And by this term I mean that we hope to raise the people of all conditions and in all employments to an assertion of the rights of the many to the full enjoyment of their natural and lawful privileges under the Constitution of this Commonwealth.

Following Mr. Black congratulatory addresses were made by A. B. Farquhar, York's largest manufacturer, and a prominent Republican, who publicly proffered his earnest support: Ex-Congressman Jas. H. Hopkins, Dr. John Weist, Ex-Congressman Levi Maish, E. D. Zeigler, Deputy Master Gearard C. Brown, of the State Grange, and others. The demonstration was one of the largest ever witnessed in York.

100 Doses

One Dollar. Hood's Sarsaparilla is the only medicine of which this can be truly said; and it is an unanswerable argument as to the strength and positive economy of this great medicine. Hood's Sarsaparilla is made of roots, herbs, barks, etc., long and favorably known for their power in purifying the blood; and in combination, proportion, and process, Hood's Sarsaparilla is peculiar to itself.

"For economy and comfort we use Hood's Sarsaparilla." MRS. C. BREWSTER, Buffalo.

"Hood's Sarsaparilla takes less time and quantity to show its effect than any other preparation I ever heard of. I would not be without it in the house." MRS. C. A. M. HUBBARD, North Chili, N. Y. 100 Doses

One Dollar

Hood's Sarsaparilla cures scrofula, salt rheum, all humors, boils, pimples, general debility, dyspepsia, biliousness, sick headache, catarrh, rheumatism, kidney and liver complaints, and all affections caused by impure blood or low condition of the system. Try it.

"I was severely afflicted with scrofula, and for over a year had two running sores on my neck. I took five bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla, and consider myself entirely cured." C. E. LOVEJOY, Lowell, Mass.

"Hood's Sarsaparilla did me an immense amount of good. My whole system has been built up and strengthened, my digestion improved, and my head relieved of the bad feeling. I consider it the best medicine I have ever used, and should not know how to do without it." MARY L. PERRE, Salem, Mass.

LIVER COMPLAINT

SYMPTOMS: Bad breath; a bitter or bad taste in the mouth; pain in the back, sides or joints, often mistaken for rheumatism; sour stomach; loss of appetite; bowels alternately costive and lax; headache; loss of memory, with a painful sensation of having failed to do something which ought to have been done; debility; low spirits; a thick, yellow appearance of the skin and eyes; a dry cough, often mistaken for consumption.

How Cured.

"I have been afflicted many years with dyspepsia, sick headache and affection of the kidneys caused by torpid liver. I have tried a great many remedies and physicians prescriptions without success, health failing all the time. During last Fall and Winter I was obliged to suspend the most of my labor in my field of Home Missionary work on account of my health. Early this Spring I was induced to try Simmons Liver Regulator, and have had more real good health since then than for years before. I use the medicine to relive me when, by exposure or over-exertion, I discover the symptoms of my disease returning. The Regulator relieves me at once, and is more satisfactory in its effects than anything of the kind I ever tried. I have also used it with good success in my family to ward off bilious attacks."—Jos. E. WHEELER, Cumberland Pres. Minister, Lebanon, Mo.

NOTICE OF SCIRE FACIAS.

No. 75 December Term, 1885.

Millard H. Dally, admr of Eleanor Lockard, dec'd, to the use of the heirs of Eleanor Lockard, dec'd.

Maria J. Headley, surviving exrx. of Samuel F. Headley, dec'd, who was ex'r of Eleanor Lockard and the heirs of said Samuel F. Headley, deceased.

To Maria J. Headley, Exrx., Helen Thomas Headley, widow, and Wm. Thomas Headley and Helen Thomas Headley, children of I. Boyd Headley, deceased, Elizabeth Bently, widow, and Chas. Bently, Bessie Bently and Josera Bently, children of James P. Bently, deceased, and Rose Headley, widow, and Frank M. C. Headley, Lizzie Headley, Maria J. Headley and John B. Headley, children of Frank Headley, deceased.

Whereas, an Alias Scire Facias has issued out of the Court of Common Pleas of Columbia Co., as of the above stated No. and Term to revive and continue lien of judgment No. 388 May Term, 1879, and whereas it is ordered by the Court that the writ shall be served as to those residing out of the county, by publishing the substance thereof in one newspaper in the county for three successive weeks in accordance with the 3d section of Rule XX of Rules of Court, to-wit:

COLUMBIA COUNTY, SS:

The Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, to the Sheriff of said county greeting: Whereas, Millard H. Dally, admr. of Eleanor Lockard, deceased, to the use of the heirs of Eleanor Lockard, deceased, plaintiffs lately in our Court of Common Pleas, for the county aforesaid, before the Judges of the said Court at Bloomsburg, to-wit: In the term of May, No. 388 in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy-nine, by the judgment of the said Court did recover against Maria J. Headley, surviving exrx. of Samuel F. Headley, dec'd, who was ex'r of Eleanor Lockard, and the heirs of the said Samuel F. Headley, dec'd, defendants, as well a certain debt of four hundred and thirty-seven dollars and seventeen cents, as also four dollars and forty-five cents for their costs and charges, which they sustained by occasion of the detention of that debt, whereof the said defendants are convicted, &c., as appears of record, &c., commanding the said defendants that they be and appear before our Judges at Bloomsburg, at our Court of Common Pleas, there to be held on the fourth Monday of September next, to show cause, if any they have, why the said plaintiffs ought not to have execution against them and also show cause why the said judgment ought not to be revived and continue a lien on their real estate during another period of five years, according to the Act of General Assembly in such case made and provided, if to them it shall seem expedient.

Witness the Hon. William Elwell, Esq., at Bloomsburg, the fifteenth day of May, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-six.
