Were I present, it would afford me great pleasure to urge upon the andience the support of the the emigrant shall settle, shall very excellent and patriotic gentlemen named by the Democratic State Con-vention for public office, for I am sure that by their election the people can secure to themselves in abundant measure the peaceable fruits of good government and honest rule.

"It is a favorite declaration of side parties and factions that our great parties are not divided upon important questions of principle and policy; that tude. the recurring struggles between them are mere straggles for the possession of power and office. By whomsoever as-serted or accepted, this is a gross error, and it is an error to be strongly denied and repelled. We hold, and have always held, that overaction by govern-ment is an evil to be guarded against with constant care and vigilance, while our opponents in the great contests of the past have inclined to enlarged gov-can workingmen find their apology in ernment action and to free construction constitutional power in order to se-re it. "Related to this point is another not of constitutional power in order to secure it.

to be omitted from mention: On both sides of the Atlantic 'home rule' is a sound rule, and it is one of the enduring and distinctive doctrines of the Democracy of the United States. They have maintained it through good and through evil report and are now more strongly than ever devoted to its defense. It is a doctrine essential to the success of free institutions and to the welfare of nations, but it requires constant support against powerful foes. "The enforcement of the Constitution of this Commonwealth by appropriate legislation is a subject for grave con-cern on the part of the people of Penn-sylvania. It is one of the distinctive ues of this campaign.

Very truly yours, C. R. BUCKALEW.

Business Men For Ricketts.

Colonel Robert Bruce Ricketts, the Democratic candidate for Lieutenant Governor, gets a well deserved sendoff in The Lumberman, of New York a paper devoted to the interests of the trade. Here is what it says : "Colonel Ricketts' fitness for the position for which he has been named is clear as is his deserving it. He is a man of varied natural talents and of excellent business qualifications. He was a member of numerous, and President of several courts martial, which had the adjudication of important cases, during the war and has kept himself conversant with the general trend of public matters at all times. Like all true soldiers he is singularly modest, but he is a man of ideas and, when occasion calls for it, is capable of giving them vigorous expression."

Three Feculiarities

Hood's Sarsaparilla, the great blood purifier and regulating medicine, is characterized by three peculiarities, namely :

Ist: The combination of the various remodiai agents used.

2d: The proportion in which the roots, herbs, barks, etc., are mixed.

3d: The process by which the active medicinal properties are secured.

The result is a medicine of unusual strength and curative power, which effects cures here-tofore unequalled. These peculiarities belong exclusively to Hood's Sarsaparilla, and are Degrading American Labor.

THE REPUBLICAN PARTY THE PIONEER IN LEGISLATION AGAINST THE WORKING-MEN.

The Beaver platform in Pennsylvanin, 1886, says : "We deprecate the nefarious work of importing foreign pauper labor, criminal and contract labor, and the products of criminal and contract labor, and demand the passage of a national law summarily and positively prohibiting such importation under any pretext whatever."

It is a curious fact not generally known, that the first and only law ever passed by Congress expressly author-izing the importation of foreigners under contract to perform labor for a stated time in place of our American workingmen, was put through the two Houses when the Republicans had an overwhelming majority in each; it is true, also, that the record fails to disclose any opposition to that atrocious measure on the part of Republicans in either House. Its champion in the Senate was the Hon John Sherman, of Ohio, and in the House the Hon. E. B. Washburne, of Illinois.

The bill is entitled "An Act to Encourage Immigration." It passed both Houses July 2, 1864, on a conference report sig . d by Sherman and An-thony on part of the Senate, and by Washburne and Windom on the part of the House, the Democratic conferees refusing to sign, and it was approved by the President July 4, 1864, which was the last of the session.

The managers of the bill exhibited hot impatience to put it through be- has flowed for freedom and the welfore the close of that session. June 27, on motion of Mr. Sherman "all courage and strength.' prior orders" of the Senate were postponed, and the bill was taken up and serve. passed, the ground of haste being as stated by the Ohio Senator, that "wages were very high" in this count-ry, and we needed importation on that account. In the House Thad. Stevens had moved to go into Committee of Mood above town. the Whole on one of the great appro-priation bills, but withdrew his motion priation bills, but withdrew his motion on Washburne's earnest appcal, and the pauper, alien, contract labor-bill was pauper, alien, word of manly oppo-cause they are clean and pure. Democrats being so few in that House that they could not enforce the demand of Mr. Pendleton, of Ohio, for a call hands, and ought te, and no doubt will saw mill dam.

The bill itself, aside from the out. prove a success. The bill itself, aside from the out-rage it proposed to inflict upon Ameri-can workingmen, in putting their labor in competition with that of imported C. W. Pohe's house and grounds aliens, is a prime curiceity. As it appresent an attractive appearance to the 'Eck. pears in the Statutes at large, section passer by.
