"Many persons die of Consumption who could ensily be cared," says Dr. S. C. Clark, of Watertown, N. Y., "if Iowa, caused the death of one man they would go at it right. I have a new view of the disease. Consumption is not always of lung origin. "How so ? What is it then ""

'Many cases of consumption are secondary. The disease itself prevails everywhere, but the best practitioners refuse to attribute it entirely to in- force of a show. He has charge of all heritance or the weather. If a person the horses and wagons, as well as the heritance or the weather. If a person lives in the most favorable climate in the world and has any tendency to lung weakness, if certain conditions ex ist in the system, that climate, however late or misses a train through delay in tavorable, will not prevent develop- getting away. "Yes. "If you wash this burnt finger every second with the acid, what is the result ?

"Why, constant inflammation, festering and eventual destruction of the finger

"Precisely ! Now then for my meth od, which commends itself to the rea son and judgment of every skillful practitioner. You know certain acids are developed in the body. . Well, if the system is all right these acids are neutralized or utilized and carried out If the system is run down by excesses. anxiety, continual exposure, or over-work, these acids accumulate in the blood. If there is any natural weakness in the lung, this acid attacks it, having a natural affinity for it, and if acid is not neutralized or passed the out of the system, it buros ulcerates and finally destroys the lung. Is this clear ? "Perfectly ! But how do you pre vent the accumulation of these acids in the system ?"

"Irregularities of the liver and kidneys create this excess of acid and the supply can be cut off only by correcting the wrong action of these organs. The kidneys alone should carry out in quantity, in solution, enough of this acid daily, which, if left in the blood, would kill four men. When the stom ach, the liver and the kidneys are all conspiring to increase the acid, the wonder is that weak lungs resist death as long as they do l"

"But you have not told us how you would treat such cases."

"No, but I will. The lungs are only diseased as an effect of this acid or kid-ney poison in the blood. After having exhausted all authorized remedies to correct this acid condition. I was compelled in justice to my patients, to use Warner's safe cure : though a proprie tary remedy, it is now recognized, I see, by leading physicians, by Presi-dents of State Boards of Health and by insurance physicians, as a scientific and the only specific for those great organs in which over ninety per cent.

"The experience of Dr. Clark is not strange to us. In our correspondence we have found that many thouands of people are suffering from what they think is Consumption, whereas the real difficulty is with the liver and kidneys proven by the fact that when these organs are restored to health by the use of Warner's safe cure, the consumption disappears, and so does uremic or kidney poisoning, which causes so many symptoms of diseases that the human system is subject to. The same may be said of theumatism, caused by an acid condition of the system. We insist upon what we always have claimed, if you remove the cause, the system will soon perfect the work already be-gun. Mrs. Rev. Dr. Theodore Wolf, of Gettysburg, Pa., wife of the editor Lutheran Quarterly, said her friends thought her 'far gone with Consumption,' but after a thorough treatment with Warper's safe cure, she says: 'I am perfectly well.' # Life in a Circus Tent-

GLITTER AND SHOW ARE ON THE OUT-SIDE. ALL HANDS WORK HARD.

There is an individuality possessed by the circos man, especially in the case of the old time showman who has journeyed on wagons and horseback through the cross-roads and green lanes of the remote rural districts. He comes in contact with many sorts of people, in every condition of life, and his knowledge of the characteristics of the inhabitants of the different parts of the country is extensive. A reporter recently called upon a showman at his residence in Brooklyn and gained much information about the ups and downs of circus tent life.

"I have been out every season for twenty two years," said he, "and I believe I am able to give as many points about the business as any man you will find in Brooklyn. A circus man who follows the calling for any length of time has abundant opportunities for knowing the country as well as the habits and customs of the people he finds in it. Of course there are lots of people besides showmen who travel constantly, but the majority of these merely go from one large city to another, and their ideas of the country are such as can be obtained by looking out of car windows. There is little difference in the routine work of a show nowadays, except of course, the manner of transportation from one town to another. The first duty after unloading the cars in the morning is to get up the borse and dressing tents. This is done by the drivers and grooms. While this work is going on the cooks and belpers are employed in putting up the mess tents and preparing the break Inst

"The next act is to get ready for the s'rect parade. All have to take part except the canvas and property men, who get up the big tents. The street parade lasts less than an hour. One object of it is to draw the crowd away from the grounds so the men can have n better chance to work. The duties of workmen who travel with the rail-Saftings.
