BLOOMSBURG, PA. FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 19, 1886.

The Times says the Democrats in the next House will number 174, the Republicans 148, and 3 Labor members. This gives the Democrats a majority over all of 23, instead of 13 as stated by that paper.

The Philadelphia Press says that the election returns have not reached the Fishingcreek country yet, since the Columnian thinks that it wasn't much of a defeat after all. The Press is mistaken. All the news gets here in due time, but we do not look to the Press for political information. We take it from reliable sources.

According to the vote by states on the 2nd, the electoral college would have stood Democratic 207, Republican 142, doubtful 52. Necessary to elect, 201. Giving the Republicans all the doubtful states, they would still not have enough to elect a President. We repeat, "it wasn't much of a defeat after all."

The total vote cast for Governor at the late election is 819,375. Beaver's vote is 61,319 less than Blaine's in 1884, and Black's is 23,151 less than Cleveland's. Beaver's plurality is 42,-857, the lowest of the Republican candidates, and Osborne's is the highest, being 47,617. Col. Ricketts received the highest vote on the Democratic

The Buffalo Courier pays a deserved compliment to Mr. Buckalew. It says: "He has had long experience in legislative bodies and is familiar with parliamentary practices. In his single term in the United States Senate Mr. Buckalew became recognized as one of the best 'and ablest men in the party and took rank with Trumbull. Thurman and other great lawyers of that body. He is a very strong de-bater. It is doubtful if the Republicans have a man who can cope with him in the discussion of great questions. Of course, he is not so ready a man as Reed and Butterworth, but he is a speaker of great force, and his will be potent when tariff and financial questions come up.'

The Three-Mill Tax.

CORPORATIONS NOT REQUIRED TO PAY 13 ON THEIR MORTGAGES.

PITTSBURG, Nov. 15 .- The State Su preme Court to day decided, in a per curiam opinion, that the three mill tax cannot be collected from corporations, but can be from individuals, thus sus taining the judgments of Common Pleas Courts Nos. 2 and 4, of Philadelphia, which were appealed from by John Hunter, Receiver of Taxes, and John G. Adair and J. B. Barry, collectors of taxes in Philadelphia. They having returned the taxable property of the Philadelphia Saving Fund So ciety and the Penusylvania Insurance company and demanded taxes upon the same, the corporations filed a bill in equity to enjoin the collection of the three-mill tax upon the mortgages held home in Canada and come to Proctorby them. On June 19 last a preliminary injunction was granted in the better progress than when Alexander courts named and has now been made permanent by the Supreme Court.

The questions presented were whether the revenue act of 1885 meant to tax the mortgages owned by individuals Yankee. He saw in Alexander's case only, and not those held by corporations, and if such was the legislative intent, are not corporations still liable to a like tax under the acts of April, to Mr. Stewart, the plea being that the 1846?
