met with many persons whom we did not expect to see at that place. Samuel and Eli Bender are employed by the planning mill firm—Frass & Bro's.

A novel work is the manufacturing of straw ropes. These are made of the flax which is spun in the spinning mill.

A new, neat, powerful and very quiet motion picture engine is used in the picture foundry for the purpose of obtaining the greatest possible speed for driving the windmill for smelting purposes.

The contrast, however, between employer and employee is very great. The employer accumulates property, and provides for himself comfortable homes.
