E. A. Hawlings killed a Holstein steer two years and seven months old, at Patton, Pa., which weighed 1,840 pounds. It was raised by Dr. E. W. Low. The forequarters weighed 320 pounds each, and Silas Masteller took them out of the wagon, carried them in the shop and hung them up without any assistance.

I invite the attention of parties who intend papering or decorating their walls or ceilings to the largest and most complete line of wall hangings or ceiling decorations in town. George A. Clark.

Messrs. Taylor & Rhodemeyer are making rapid progress toward completing their contract for erecting the new desk works in the time specified. They were delayed in getting the large timbers and have had very bad weather to contend with, but nevertheless, they are about ready to raise the building, after which they will soon complete it.

The governor has signed the following bills, and they have become laws: To preserve the health of female employees in manufacturing and mechanical establishments; for the protection of livery stable keepers; increasing the number of clerks employed in the State Treasurer's office; relating to judicial sales and preservation of liens of mortgages.

The Merchant Tailoring Department is now complete in Spring styles. Call and see the largest stock of Cloths, Cassimeres, &c., to select from. Suits made up in City Style at D. Lowenberg's, Merchant Tailor.

The "Ranch King" was played here in the Opera House on Monday evening, with Miss May Treat and Mr. Harry Clifton in the leading characters. The play was very well rendered by an efficient company, and was deserving of much better patronage than it received. The audience was well pleased, as was shown by the frequent "uprushes of applause." The company went to Nanticoke on Tuesday to open the new Opera House there.

List of letters remaining in the Post Office at Bloomsburg for week ending March 22, 1887: Miss S. J. Dodder, Hiram G. Girton, Miss Myrtle Gamm, Miss Hannah Hampton, Mrs. Hester Krumm, Rev. H. Riehl, Helen Tachman, (Exp.) Mrs. Jane Taylor, J. P. Thompson, Esq., B. F. Weaver, J. F. Weld, Esq.

LEO & COHEN, Miss Ella Lewis, Mr. Joseph Walter.

Persons calling for these letters will please say "advertised." GEORGE A. CLARK, P. M.

J. F. Maginnes, of Williamsport has issued the prospectus for the Historical Journal, to be issued on the 1st of May and monthly thereafter, and to be devoted to the preservation of the early history of the West Branch Valley of the Susquehanna, the Juniata region and the northwestern counties of the State. Each number will open with a portrait and biographical sketch of some prominent historical person. It is a most commendable enterprise, and there is no part of the State so replete with romantic incidents of the early settlements as the region to be covered by the new periodical.

The rush has commenced for Spring styles in Neckwear. Call and see the beautiful stock, now in—D. Lowenberg's.

The State Normal School at Bloomsburg, Pa., will begin the Spring term, Tuesday, April 5, 1887.

A full further increase of the corps of teachers will be made to meet the needs of the coming term.

The new building, containing twenty-six recitation rooms, gives great satisfaction as to ventilation, light, blackboards and furniture.

The last class was the largest ever graduated from the school. Full professional standing comes to every teacher with the diploma.

Many students are prepared for college. Tuition is almost free to those graduating within two years. Industry, perseverance and patience will carry one through.

Window shades, plain or dado, either mounted or without fixtures as you prefer, at Clark's book store.

The work at David Lowenberg's clothing store is progressing. The walls have been kalsomined, the wood work repainted, and the front will be decorated in black and gold. Winter goods have been replaced by Spring stock, and in a few days the store will present a very bright appearance.

Window fixtures, spring balance or spring stop lower than ever before at Friday afternoon.

Friday afternoon, March 11, the dwelling house of Susan Fawc, in Pine township, was destroyed by fire, being a total loss, with the exception of a little furniture taken from the first floor. The property was insured in the Briarcrest Farmer's Insurance company. The company received notice of the fire on the Wednesday following and adjusted the loss the next day.

"I believe," said a property owner, "that a good tenant should be retained at a reasonable price and when you get such a party in your house, keep him, if possible, as it is far more profitable to retain a good tenant at a little less rent than to have worthless parties moving in and out and destroying the property, making it unfit for renting at every such removal."

Danville is rejoicing over the prospect of a new steel plant. About the first of March ground was broken for the erection of buildings for a company to be known as the North Branch Steel Co. They have the possession of the old Co-operative Mill property, and will erect buildings covering over three acres of ground. It will be ready for use before the winter is completed, but when finished it will give employment to many hundreds of workmen.

In the Legislature at Harrisburg on Friday last Mr. Woodward offered a resolution that larger and more handsome buildings be erected for State Capital buildings, and that the location be Bellefonte, Centre county, because of its being more centrally located in the State and its being the home of many of our Governors, and large and suitable grounds being tendered by some of the public-spirited citizens of Bellefonte. The resolution was tabled and may not be called up again. It however, brings out the inquiry as to Harrisburg being the proper place for the Capitol buildings.

The entertainment given at Normal hall, Friday evening of last week by the Model school children, was a decided success. The drama was the best yet selected and its rendition showed thorough and systematic training on the part of the instructors. The music, under the direction of Prof. Miller, was very entertaining. The attendance was very large and should have been, but the condition of the weather and the many entertainments preceding this one was the probable cause. There is some talk of the Model school giving another entertainment in the near future when it is to be hoped that the house will be filled to overflowing, as the proceeds will be used in furnishing apparatus in the rooms of the new building, for the better instruction of the children.

Humany's Pills. Humany's pills can only be measured by humanity's wants—hence the wine press of wrath, so universally trodden by human depravity, and from which flows into the veins of humanity a crimson, which depraved humanity craves to drink to the very dregs, was founded by their own errors, and is the work of their own folly. Manifested are the ingredients that add to the gall of its bitterness. Legalized and licensed debauchery are criminal links to chain slavish misery to every heart. Incarnate demons have their workshops in every suitable place for human prostitution, spreading their nets at every corner. Too innocent once in their meshes, their ruin is almost a certainty. The lesson of experience once learned and the cup drained its reptilian is but the result of the on-movng column to the common end.

Violation of law, (a natural impulse of the heart,) against health, society, state, or deity, contributes to the enormity of its penalty, for which atonement must be made through penitence or reconciliation, either in time or in eternity. Reform is the march, but its progress is impeded at every step. The path before it, on either side, is strewn with human wrecks. Everywhere the obstructions are fortified by human depravity. Everywhere the walls of public consciences are clogged by the crying demands of folly against reform. Naturally humanity seeks its own degradation and exerts every influence to maintain its sinking condition. But there is a sphere of nobler, higher, social relations, aspiring to nobler emotions. A higher plane of life and morality; a mountain of gladness; free from contaminating guilt and crime, without accusing conscience and sublime; to which the Savior of men will lift all the world who come to Him. Study but the golden rule and comply with its requirements and you will already have won the battle of life, found the true aim of your mission and formed a connecting link that will rally and raise fallen humanity to a higher and a better destiny. ANON.

Important to Insurers. A DECISION BY THE SUPREME COURT CONCERNING ASSIGNED POLICIES.

Judge Paxton delivered an opinion in the Supreme Court Monday which is of general interest and importance, the case involving a question which frequently arises in the life insurance business and which has never before been decided in this State. Bertolo Grant took out a $3,000 policy in the Union Beneficial Mutual Aid Society of Pennsylvania, in March, 1882, and shortly afterwards assigned to his brother-in-law, Jacob Kline, to whom he owed about $300. In addition to this $300 loan, Kline had paid out about $400 for insuring Grant's life in other companies, which had become insolvent, so that his insurable interest amounted to about $700. Grant died in November, 1883, and the society paid the insurance money to Kline. Grant's administrators then brought suit against him to recover back the amount, less his debt and the premiums he had paid, claiming that the debt was so disproportionate to the amount of the insurance as to make the latter a wagering contract. The lower Court decided against them and the Supreme Court affirms the judgment.

Going to Kansas City. J. C. Youm, Esq., of Catawissa, will remove to Kansas City, Missouri, after May Court, where he will reside permanently and continue in the practice of law. Mr. Youm has acquired a large clientage in this county, and enjoys a high reputation as a lawyer of honesty and ability, and his many friends will be sorry to lose him. We understand that C. E. Geyer, Esq., will take entire charge of the law practice of the late firm after Mr. Youm's departure.

Envelopes, letter heads, card heads, blank statements, business cards, and all kinds of commercial printing at the Columbia office.

JOHN WAMMAKER. Chestnut, Thirteenth and Market streets, and City-hall square.

Catawissa's Trouble. The Reading management has diverted the freight traffic from the Catawissa rail road to West Milton, and will take it over the Shamokin, Sunbury and Lewisburg branch. The new schedule went into effect last Sunday morning at 9 o'clock. Some of the crews have been removed to Shamokin and Tamaqua and freight to Newberry. There will be but one freight train on the Catawissa road between West Milton and East Mahanoy. The Catawissa car shops gave employment to nearly 800 workmen, most of whom were men with families, and a great many were purchasing houses in Catawissa. Unless some manufactures are started, these workmen will move away with their families.

Wanamaker's. PHILADELPHIA, MARCH 21, 1887. A letter's as good as a visit to get anything we've got.

We don't keep the cheap and mean Valises. You can get them of stuff that looks like leather and wears like paste-board—but not here. Our cheapest is of split leather or canvas; $1.50 for a 14-inch Valise. The tip-top is of grained leather, leather-lined, brass-trimmed, 14 to 24 inches. $8 up.

The latest in Valises is the Cabin Bag with a top like a double shed roof. When open, all mouth. Not a waste inch inside. An appetite like a tramp. Grained leather, 12 to 18 inches, $6.50 to $10; alligator, $13.50 to $18.

Ordinary shape, made of one piece of grained leather is another newness. No seams to rip. 12 to 16 in. $5 to $7. English carryalls of waterproof McIntosh cloth; wallet shape. Next to no end to the stuff they'll carry. Little or much always just full. 18 to 26 in. $2.75 to $11.

The new Bed Spreads that look like Marcellis and weigh like Honeycomb are going with a bang. A happy medium at $1.50. Marcellis range from $1.75 to $9 and Honeycomb from 90 cents to $1.65.

Boys' clothing. Small boys' clothing. If we don't make this the place which you will prefer to all others for your boys' clothing purchases it will be nothing we don't know how. The Spring things are coming; bright, beautiful. The place in which you see the goods—gay with daylight all day long. Ease, comfort all about. Why not clothe your boys here? Why not? You'll have to give it up and come.

Spring and Summer comfortable: cheese cloth filled with pure carded cotton. The cost a trifle: better for you at this season than twice the money in blankets; $1.75 for white; $2 for pink, blue, red or yellow Tufted with contrasting colors.

Nine-tenths of the stores only dabble in linen. They buy at dabbler's prices, and even then not wisely. How can they? They don't know what to look for and what to leave. There are good linens and bad; cotton-and-linen is sold for linen. Buying linen without knowledge, either to sell or to use, is a lottery. You can depend on getting good, pure linen here. You may make a poor choice for a special purpose, but you'll not pay too much for the material. If you'll ask you can get linen hints that'll keep you from going astray. Glad to have you ask.

Stop over the flannels. Dainty wools. Do you know Simonis batiste—the lightest Woolen stuffs for men? They are known in the tropics. Many another woolen manufacturer has nearly gone crazy with envy of Simonis. But the Scotch with these flannels have almost caught the Belgians. Gingham colors toned down by the wool. Strong. That's due to cotton in the chain. You couldn't find it if we hadn't said it. You might suspect it when washing told you of the little shrinkage—or none.

Plaids, overplaids and stripes. Wish we had the whole country for these flannels, but other things are clamoring, 30 inches, 50c to 80c. Next.

Scotch gingham—twilled zephyr gingham. Look sharp. Could you tell them from English dress worsteds? Don't believe you could all by yourself. They are just nothing but cotton, only they have had a Scotch training, and that's usually thorough. Cotton like worsted, 30 inches, 40c.

Refrigerators and Ice Chests are ready. Ahead of the season, of course, but there are plenty of wide awake buyers.

This from a letter to the makers of a scouring stuff: "Why do you charge 15 cents for Electro Silicon when Wamamaker asks but 8 cents?" Sure enough, why? Peep into other mails and you'll find plenty of such queries. No matter why!

JOHN WAMMAKER. Chestnut, Thirteenth and Market streets, and City-hall square.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

Lost—"I don't know where, I can't tell when I last saw it—something of great value to me, and for the return of which I shall be truly thankful, viz: a good appetite."

FORN.—Health and strength, pure blood, an appetite like that of a wolf, regular digestion, all by taking that popular and efficacious medicine, Hood's Sarsaparilla. I want everybody to try it this season. It is sold by all druggists. 100 doses, $1.

How's your back? Hep Plasters cure weak back, rheumatism, and a rejuvenated tired party.

TO PRESERVE NATURAL FLOWERS.—Dip them in metallic preservative, withdrawing them quickly. The liquid should be only just hot enough to maintain its fluidity. The flowers should be dipped out at a time, held by the stems and moved about for an instant to get rid of air bubbles. Fresh cut flowers, free from moisture, make excellent specimens in this way. If you would preserve your health and invigorate your entire system, use Perrier's Pure Natural Mineral Water. For sale by C. B. Robbins, Bloomsburg, Pa. [cont.]

If you require a spring medicine, if you are suffering with languor, debility, pimples, boils, catarrh, chronic sores, scrofula, or any other disease arising from impure blood, take Ayer's Sarsaparilla—the safest and most economical of all blood purifiers.

Sore or inflamed eyes speedily cured by the use of DeWitt's Prothargic Fluid. It kills the sickening mucus, and restores the eye to its normal condition. It is particularly efficacious by reason of its power in cleansing and destroying all poisonous matter. Chafing, bruises, lacerations, eruptions, boils and sores and those more serious and tedious maladies, scald head, scald rashes and erysipelas, are speedily cured by its use.

It is in GREAT FAVOR.—Physicians employ Speer's Port Grape Wine in their practice in all cases where a pure wine is called for, and do all in their power to foster and encourage its use. It is the great favor among the most wealthy in New York and Washington Cities as a family and for evening entertainments. For sale by druggists.

What you need is a medicine which is pure, efficient, reliable, such is Hood's Sarsaparilla. It possesses peculiar curative powers.

FREE TRADE.—The reduction of internal revenue and the taking off of revenue stamps from Proprietary Medicines, no doubt has largely benefited the consumers, as well as relieving the burden of home manufactures. Especially is this the case with Green's August Flower and Boschee's German Syrup, as the reduction of thirty-six cents per dozen, has been added to increase the size of the bottles containing these remedies, thereby giving one-fifth more medicine in the 75 cent size. The August Flower for Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint, and the German Syrup for Cough and Lung troubles, have perhaps the largest sale of any medicines in the world. The advantage of increased size of the bottles will be greatly appreciated by the sick and suffering. Address in confidence, Green's Specific Co., 185 Race St., Cincinnati, Ohio. jan 25, 1, 3, 87, e o w

When baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a child, she cried for Castoria. When she became a man, she stuck to Castoria. When she had children, she gave them Castoria.

DEBILITY, OR LIQUOR HABIT, CAN BE CURED BY AN ASSUMPTION OF DR. HAINES' GOLDEN SPECIFIC.—It can be given in a cup of coffee or tea without the knowledge of the sick man, and it has been made temperate men who have taken the Golden Specific in their coffee without their knowledge, and to-day believe they quit drinking liquor of their own free will. No harmful effects result from its administration. Cures guaranteed. Send for circular and full particulars. Address in confidence, Golden Specific Co., 185 Race St., Cincinnati, Ohio. dec 30 1 y.

East Benton. Our public schools have closed for the season.

"Winter still lingers in the lap of Spring."

Samuel Savage, near Orangeville, died the 15th inst, and was buried at Zion's cemetery the 17th, aged about 45 years.

Passing the central railroad route would be a great benefit to the people of Western R. Co. Bendertown was up last Thursday night and had a railroad meeting. No doubt impressed with the idea, "as goes Bendertown so goes the Union," and why not the railroad?

But the Mountain Echo said last week, that "Jonestown allowed others to make hay while they slept," and Bendertown may also realize that it is not a dark night in a poor time to make railroad hay. Meanwhile there seems to be a fearful and exciting suspense concerning these competing routes.

Tommy Chapin, of Benton, dentist, is in a critical condition.

Frank Baker, a young man of Benton, may be rendered a cripple for life. From a child he has been more or less afflicted with bone crystals or white swelling.

Miss Susie Hillman and an invalid sister are visiting their uncle and aunt, Judge and Mrs. Kriekbaum.

A large load of household furniture passed this place last Saturday en route for Carey & McHenry's furniture emporium in Benton. A broad hint for new beginners in the art of housekeeping.

A large assortment of one and two-horse wagons, buggies and other vehicles of a substantial make-up, can be seen and bought at Willy Appleman's shop at Benton. For beauty and style they are not easily surpassed.

The manufacture of farming implements would we think, be a safe and profitable investment at Benton.

The question of all importance and uppermost in everybody's mind at the meeting of every gathering is, "Where will the railroad go?" The company will settle that question by consulting its best interest.

It does seem strange that a community should be under tribute to a company or town. No one can enter Shickelby from the city by means of conveyance, burdened freighted or otherwise, without paying from 5 to 24 cents turpentine toll. Hundreds of teams daily pass through the toll gate. The W. & W. railroad via Cambria will settle the turpentine toll.

A spirited contest for the various county positions may be looked for, from the tone of the Sentinel last week. Clubs, daggers and pen, as weapons for assault, battery and defence, enter the fight at an early day.

SCOTT'S EMULSION OF PURE Cod Liver Oil, With Hypophosphites. For Children and Pulmonary Troubles.

Dr. W. S. Hoy, Point Pleasant, W. Va., says: "I have made a thorough test with Scott's Emulsion of Pure Cod Liver Oil, and general debility, and have been astonished at the good results; for children with rickets or marasmus it is unequalled."

"How do you like Bernhard?" he asked. "Well, I don't exactly know; I've only seen her once. But she has a wonderful reputation." "Has she? Well, I must say the one she had on when I saw her didn't fit her at all in the back." And then it was as still as a store that never advertises.

"I don't know where, I can't tell when I last saw it—something of great value to me, and for the return of which I shall be truly thankful, viz: a good appetite."
