A GOUD WORD FOR EYERLY.

der. Mr. Eyerly has always been a faithful and consistent democrat, and his long experience in a law office has made him familiar with the duties of the office he asks for. Besides this he can talk German which is a great advantage in a public officer. He has not been all to drill his men of late, and he had accidentedly omitted a whole page of the program in the drill contest which will injure their record. In the gossip of the camp the prizes lie somewhere between the Muscatine Rifles, the two Sanantonio combeen a candidate before and when debeen a candidate before and when depanies, the Toledo Cadets, Company I feated he heartily supported the ticket. He is well qualified for the office, and would make a careful and competent official. Let us try him.

The responsibility of this failure has not been ascertained, but it is alleged that it was the fault of the message clerk of the House in not returning the bill to the Senate for President Smith's
