Mr. Will Mercer, a hardware clerk for J. R. Schuvler & Co., met with a serious accident on Monday. While unpacking a box of scythes Monday afternoon he cut a portion of one of his fingers, one-half of the finger being taken off from the second joint to the tip of the finger. In drawing his hand out of the box his finger caught on one of the scythes, which took the piece off. 'The pain was so severe that Mr Mercer fainted. He was treated by Drs. McKelvy and Arment.

A Great Show in the Sky.

There is no more attractive spectacle ight from this planet at present than the elestial levee that Venus is holding in the vening sky, with the assistance of Saturn and those famous brothers, Castor and Pollux. Venus is beyond all comparison the brightest of the group, yet Saturn i some 750 times as large as Venus. But he is upward of ten times as far from the earth as Venus is, and proportionately still further from the sun, and it is the combiation of these things that makes his light o pale in comparison with hers. Both of the planets outshine their companions Castor and Pollux, and here again the ele ment of distance comes in to mislead. The fact is, if Castor and Pollux were as near to us as either Venus or Satura they would turn night into day upon the earth, for they are suns, and big ones, too. wide; weigh 4 pounds. White
