

The Columbian.

Bloomsburg, Pa. Friday, July 1, 1887.

Benjamin F. Butler is said to be very indignant at the proposition to return the flags captured from the rebels.

General Grant returned General Lee's sword to him when the latter surrendered at Appomattox, and yet the republican party twice made him President.

Governor Beaver has made a bad start. He has vetoed the store-order law, cut off appropriations to many very deserving charitable institutions.

Washington Letter. Queen Victoria's Jubilee was celebrated to some extent, even in this the Capitol of the greatest of Republics.

Speaking of the Queen, reminds me of the return of our own lovely, youthful, yet crowned queen, Mrs. Cleveland.

The annual reunion of the Army of the Potomac was held last week at Saratoga, and the gallant veterans of one of the most heroic armies that ever entered battle, gave a stirring rebuke to the blatant political demagogues.

Well, such an act would be regarded as the most impressive and significant thing that had happened since 1865.

Everybody would regard it as a national day of lasting peace—the last solemn burial service over the dead past.

This is just what President Cleveland suggested. No more, no less. The survivors of the great volunteer army—the first to fight, the first to forgive—are at last ready for that grand occasion.

Only a few political aspirants would object. Their occupation would be gone. They could no longer hurl their three kinds of palates or make capital out of the bloody strife.

But this country is not in their interest. It is in the interest of the people.

Berks County Crookings. For some time past allegations have been made charging the commissioners and treasurer of Berks county with official dishonesty.

The people of Berks county and the State will be surprised to-morrow morning to learn that the bottom has about dropped out of the grand jury investigation which has been in progress here at past few days.

Regarding the charge that County Treasurer Holzman received a commission from the Keystone National Bank for the deposit of county funds with that institution, Cashier Hall was called and denied the truth of the statement.

Charles V. Dauth, another of the indicted collectors, to-day entered bail in $1,000 for trial.

The members of the grand jury, who have been sitting at an expense to the county of over $150 a day, and at great personal inconvenience, are much disappointed at the result of their inquiry.

The Soldiers' Rebuks. The annual reunion of the Army of the Potomac was held last week at Saratoga, and the gallant veterans of one of the most heroic armies that ever entered battle, gave a stirring rebuke to the blatant political demagogues.

Oil For Fuel. THE RECENT EXPERIMENT ON THE PENNSYLVANIA.

oil as a fuel is concerned, it is by no means a new thing. On the Long Island Railroad an engine was run for some time as an experiment, and it was very successful.

The Pennsylvania Road has been busy making experiments with a view to using petroleum as a fuel, and if these are fully successful there is little doubt that it will be adopted generally.

The use of petroleum is a great deal less trouble and much more compact. Less room will be required for its storage, and the handling of it much simpler.

Where a large number of men are now employed as firemen, one man could do the work easily. The only thing to be done by a fireman would be to see that the flow of oil was kept regular.

Mr. Logan's Anxiety. SHE FEARS THAT THE GENERAL'S REMAINS ARE NOT SAFE IN WASHINGTON.

Mrs. General Logan arrived at Chicago June 28, to consult with the building committee having in charge the selection of a design and the erection of a monument in Jackson Park, where the remains of her husband will finally be laid to rest.

The rumor about that the condemned anarchists at Chicago are to be granted a new trial.

The fund for the celebration of the Fourth of July in Philadelphia grows larger every day. $10,000 is needed.

While an artesian well was being dug near Fort Worth, Texas, oil was struck last Friday at a depth of 240 feet.

A snake that measured 30 feet in length, and of proportionate circumference, was killed near Allentown last Friday.

The whereabouts of McCabe, the Honedale murderer, who escaped from jail here a few weeks ago, is still a matter of wonder.

Mrs. Eleanor McConnell, of Paris, Washington county, celebrated the 100th anniversary of her birth this week. She was born at Uniontown.

father, Claus Spreckels, has any connection with the disturbance. Spreckels' firm have not shipped any arms to the island but Crossman & Brothers, of New York, it is said, have sent this month seven cases of guns, ten cases of cartridges, one case of rifles and one case of revolvers.

The ship was consigned to E. O. Hall & Son, one of the missionary firms in Honolulu, which is making large importations direct from San Francisco.

Schuyler's Hardware. WIRE NETTING. We carry in stock galvanized wire netting 2 inch mesh from one foot in width to six feet wide; the low price of one cent a square foot has brought it into various uses, it makes a very cheap fence and is used largely in poultry yards, and around private residences, the narrow widths are used for training vines up porches, etc. By bending it around trees the wider sizes make excellent tree boxes at a very little cost and trouble, and prevent their injury by horses and cattle. We also keep the fine Netting for windows and doors; you can get it all widths here from 20 inches to 36 inches and save waste in cutting.
