

The Columbian

BLOOMSBURG, PA. FRIDAY, JULY 1, 1887.

CORRECT RAILROAD TIME TABLE.

Trains on the Philadelphia & R. R. leave for... Trains on the D. L. & W. R. R. leave for... Trains on the N. & W. B. R. R. leave for...

Excursion trains will be run on July 1, 1887.

Excursion trains will be run on July 1, 1887, to afford those wishing to attend the celebration at Orangeville, an opportunity to do so.

TRIP TABLE FOR JULY 1, 1887.

NORTHWARD STATIONS. P. M. A. M. 4.00 9.30 7.30 D. L. & W. R. R. 4.00 9.30 7.30 D. L. & W. R. R. 4.00 9.30 7.30 D. L. & W. R. R.

Excursion trains will be run on July 1, 1887.

Excursion trains will be run on July 1, 1887, to afford those wishing to attend the celebration at Orangeville, an opportunity to do so.

TRIP TABLE FOR JULY 1, 1887.

NORTHWARD STATIONS. P. M. A. M. 4.00 9.30 7.30 D. L. & W. R. R. 4.00 9.30 7.30 D. L. & W. R. R. 4.00 9.30 7.30 D. L. & W. R. R.

Excursion trains will be run on July 1, 1887.

Excursion trains will be run on July 1, 1887, to afford those wishing to attend the celebration at Orangeville, an opportunity to do so.

TRIP TABLE FOR JULY 1, 1887.

NORTHWARD STATIONS. P. M. A. M. 4.00 9.30 7.30 D. L. & W. R. R. 4.00 9.30 7.30 D. L. & W. R. R. 4.00 9.30 7.30 D. L. & W. R. R.

Excursion trains will be run on July 1, 1887.

Excursion trains will be run on July 1, 1887, to afford those wishing to attend the celebration at Orangeville, an opportunity to do so.

TRIP TABLE FOR JULY 1, 1887.

NORTHWARD STATIONS. P. M. A. M. 4.00 9.30 7.30 D. L. & W. R. R. 4.00 9.30 7.30 D. L. & W. R. R. 4.00 9.30 7.30 D. L. & W. R. R.

Excursion trains will be run on July 1, 1887.

Excursion trains will be run on July 1, 1887, to afford those wishing to attend the celebration at Orangeville, an opportunity to do so.

TRIP TABLE FOR JULY 1, 1887.

NORTHWARD STATIONS. P. M. A. M. 4.00 9.30 7.30 D. L. & W. R. R. 4.00 9.30 7.30 D. L. & W. R. R. 4.00 9.30 7.30 D. L. & W. R. R.

Excursion trains will be run on July 1, 1887.

Excursion trains will be run on July 1, 1887, to afford those wishing to attend the celebration at Orangeville, an opportunity to do so.

TRIP TABLE FOR JULY 1, 1887.

NORTHWARD STATIONS. P. M. A. M. 4.00 9.30 7.30 D. L. & W. R. R. 4.00 9.30 7.30 D. L. & W. R. R. 4.00 9.30 7.30 D. L. & W. R. R.

Excursion trains will be run on July 1, 1887.

Excursion trains will be run on July 1, 1887, to afford those wishing to attend the celebration at Orangeville, an opportunity to do so.

TRIP TABLE FOR JULY 1, 1887.

NORTHWARD STATIONS. P. M. A. M. 4.00 9.30 7.30 D. L. & W. R. R. 4.00 9.30 7.30 D. L. & W. R. R. 4.00 9.30 7.30 D. L. & W. R. R.

Excursion trains will be run on July 1, 1887.

Excursion trains will be run on July 1, 1887, to afford those wishing to attend the celebration at Orangeville, an opportunity to do so.

TRIP TABLE FOR JULY 1, 1887.

NORTHWARD STATIONS. P. M. A. M. 4.00 9.30 7.30 D. L. & W. R. R. 4.00 9.30 7.30 D. L. & W. R. R. 4.00 9.30 7.30 D. L. & W. R. R.

Excursion trains will be run on July 1, 1887.

Excursion trains will be run on July 1, 1887, to afford those wishing to attend the celebration at Orangeville, an opportunity to do so.

TRIP TABLE FOR JULY 1, 1887.

NORTHWARD STATIONS. P. M. A. M. 4.00 9.30 7.30 D. L. & W. R. R. 4.00 9.30 7.30 D. L. & W. R. R. 4.00 9.30 7.30 D. L. & W. R. R.

Excursion trains will be run on July 1, 1887.

Excursion trains will be run on July 1, 1887, to afford those wishing to attend the celebration at Orangeville, an opportunity to do so.

TRIP TABLE FOR JULY 1, 1887.

NORTHWARD STATIONS. P. M. A. M. 4.00 9.30 7.30 D. L. & W. R. R. 4.00 9.30 7.30 D. L. & W. R. R. 4.00 9.30 7.30 D. L. & W. R. R.

Excursion trains will be run on July 1, 1887.

Excursion trains will be run on July 1, 1887, to afford those wishing to attend the celebration at Orangeville, an opportunity to do so.

Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Kamp were made happy Tuesday of last week by the birth of a little daughter.

Mrs. W. C. McKinney and daughter Martha came home from Dodge City last week, and will spend the summer with their relatives here.

Raspberries are ripening.

This week is commencement week at Lafayette College.

F. C. Eyer is putting steam in his residence on Market street.

James C. Sterner and Mrs. H. A. Maize were married on Tuesday.

Don't forget to take in the excursion to Orangeville over the B. & O. on the Fourth.

The buckeye crop this year will without doubt be the largest for several seasons.

Sleeping cars are now in use on the Reading and between Philadelphia and Williamsport.

A new patent hinge and roller gate has been on exhibition in front of the Central Hotel this week.

An act forbidding the sale of tobacco to minors under the age of sixteen has passed the Illinois legislature.

There will be a children's service in the Episcopal church next Sunday evening instead of the usual evening service.

The Sunbury Daily says there is no truth in the statement that freight trains are to be returned to the Catawissa road.

Steam radiators have been placed in the Episcopal church, and connected with the mains of the Steam Heating Company.

There will be a festival at the Asbury M. E. church in the afternoon and evening, July 23d. All are cordially invited to attend.

There will be a festival held in the grove at St. James church, Fishingcreek township, on Saturday afternoon and evening, July 9.

Most of the young folks of town, who have been away at school the past year, have returned home to spend their summer vacation.

Hot red-pepper is the newest thing for cabbage worm. It is sprinkled over the cabbage while the tea is in nearly boiling condition.

Miss Grace Neal is the owner of a handsome pony and phaeton, a gift from her grandfather. The phaeton was made by M. C. Sloan & Co.

There is a vacancy at West Point to be filled from this district. The appointment will be made by Hon. C. R. Buckle, member of Congress.

Locomotive engineers and firemen running on the P. & R. road are being examined in regard to reading train orders, and also for color blindness.

An appeal will be held by the town council sitting as a board of revision taxes, at the council room on Saturday July 23, at two o'clock in the afternoon.

The party which went up the creek to Cole's week before last on a trouting expedition, returned last Tuesday evening. They report a good time.

S. W. Caldwell, brother of our townsman, J. F. Caldwell, has been nominated for treasurer of Clinton county by the Democratic convention, by acclamation.

The summer resorts are opening. The hotels at Eaglesmead are already receiving guests from all parts of the state, and a boom is predicted there this summer.

The festival and dance, given at Oak Grove last Saturday night, by the Rescue Hose and Ladder Co., was well attended, and a nice sum of money was realized.

Everybody should be careful to direct letters fully and distinctly. Thousands of letters are sent to the dead letter office at Washington every day, because people are so careless in directing them.

John Wanick, formerly of this place, is now employed as night clerk at the Exchange Hotel, Wilkesbarre. He is an excellent young man, and is very popular among the guests of the house.

The council of the Lutheran Church on Tuesday evening voted the contract for the heating of the Church by steam to be Bloomsburg Steam Co. Work will be commenced Monday of next week.

The Eppy boat yards are overcrowded with work. All the available men are at work and earning good wages. The canal is filled with boats on all the sides of the yard waiting their turn to be repaired.

The Mountain Grove camp meeting will be held from Wednesday, August 1st, to Thursday, August 11th. Those wanting tents should apply to Z. T. Fowler, president, Willow Springs, Columbia Co., Pa.

"Culture in pond lilies," says the Boston Journal "produces lilies varying from pure white to deepest red. White and yellow are native; the purple, blue and reds come from Africa and India and South America."

Samuel Neyhard has gone to the North Mountain, where he will be engaged two or three months in surveying timber lands. Any one wishing to communicate with him should address a letter to Bloomsburg and it will be forwarded.

A fellow who can't enjoy a good joke because he happens to be the victim, ought not to laugh when other people are caught. And yet, somehow or other, it always is a great deal funnier when the joke is on the other fellow. Have you ever noticed this?

The organ grinders are beginning to put in their appearance. Last Monday's "Home was filled with the sweet strains of "Home sweet home," "Hold the fort," "Climbing up the golden stairs," and many other familiar tunes, emitted from the tuneful hand-organ.

The Bellefonte Watchman denies the statement that the snails have made such depositions upon vegetation in Centre county. It says there are some snails in the lower part of the county which are troublesome, and from this has risen the exaggerated newspaper reports.

The Phelps system of telegraphing from moving trains is now in use on Lehigh Valley passenger train No. 6 between Easton and New York. Dispatches can be sent to and received from all parts of the United States and Canada while the train is in motion, with the same facility and certainty as from any regular office.

List of letters remaining in the Post Office at Bloomsburg for week ending July 28, 1887:

Mr. G. A. Belzer, Edward Frymoyer, Miss Ada Hayman, Mr. John Kenley, John Kintley, Mr. Harry Miller, Shambarger & Orris, Mrs. Anna M. Smith, Mrs. Eliza A. Smith.

Mr. W. Kinslow. Persons calling for these letters will please say "advertised."

GEORGE A. CLARK, P. M.

The Barton flouring mill under the management of F. H. Faust, has gained a wide reputation. Last week some extensive improvements were made and new machinery added to accommodate the increasing trade. Mr. Faust has proven himself to be an excellent miller, as will be attested by the numerous families using his flour.

Parties for gathering pond lilies are now frequent occurrences. Pond Hill is the nearest place where they can be obtained. It is reached by taking an up train on the N. & W. B. railroad, and getting off at Pond Hill station. There is then a walk of about two miles to the pond, the edges of which are completely covered with water lilies.

The new one cent postage stamp consists of a profile bust of Benjamin Franklin in an oval die, the lower portion bordered with pearls, and the upper with a curved panel containing in small white letters the words, "United States Postage." The whole is engraved upon a shield-shaped tablet, with a truncated pyramidal base, bearing on it the words "one" and "cent" on either side of the figure 1.

A summer resort is to be started near Laporte, a syndicate having purchased 300 acres of land, including the swamp, three-fourths of a mile from the Court House. A stone dam will be built which will turn the swamp into an artificial lake about one and a half miles long, which will be stocked with fish. The purchase agreement requires the owners to begin operations within ten months.—Dushore Gazette.

Frank Patterson, the blind pauper, of Elmira, who lately received $13,322 back upon money from the government, was used as a tool by Dr. Mills of Elmira, to defraud the government out of the money. Patterson, his wife and daughter all died. When it became known that they had defrauded the government, Dr. Mills was indicted by a grand jury, and is now in prison.

Wilkes Miller, a citizen of Elmira, went before a justice and swore that he had been defrauded by Dr. N. Mills and John Mills to make an affidavit that Patterson had been in the army, and that the affidavit was false in every particular. The doctor has been arrested and will be promptly punished.

Ringier-Rabb. The marriage of Mr. Geo. P. Ringier and Miss Ida V. Rabb, daughter of Mr. Rabb, all of this place, which took place in the Lutheran church Thursday last week, June 23, was quite a brilliant affair. The large audience room of the church was nearly filled with invited guests. The ushers for the occasion were Messrs Wm. Cummings, George Verry, Charles Jones, and George Hunt, who very graciously attended to the seating of the guests. At promptly 9:30 the bridal party arrived and wended their way to the altar to the strains of the beautiful wedding march rendered by Prof. I. W. Niles. The ushers led by the side aisles, while the bridal party took the centre aisle, headed by the groomsmen, Mr. Ed. Buck, of Williamsport, and Mr. Geo. Hughes, of Shamokin, and bridesmaids, Miss Annie Brabant and Miss Doris Ringier. The bride, dressed in rich lavender silk and profusely decorated with flowers, looked handsome. The ceremony was performed by Rev. F. P. Manhart, pastor of the church. After the two were pronounced man and wife, the bridal party, with the best wishes of the friends, repaired to the home of the bride's father, Mr. Wm. Rabb, where a bounteous repast was served. Nothing lacked in this respect. All the delicacies of the season were prepared and gladly enjoyed by all present. At 11:45 the happy couple left for Philadelphia and other cities. We tender our congratulations with the wish for long life and prosperity.

An Old Resident Gone. Frederick Derr of Madison township died at his home on Thursday, June 23, 1887. The funeral took place on Sunday at Derry meeting house, and was very largely attended.

Mr. Derr was a good neighbor and an excellent citizen. He was born October 12, 1804 on the farm where he died. The funeral was held at the residence of his son, Mr. Nathan K. Keefe, Rev. T. H. Tubbs, of Lightstreet, officiated. Rev. S. Boone and family were also present. Not being ordained he is not legally qualified to officiate in nuptials. Many valuable presents, consisting of silver, glass and stone ware, cut-glass, and other things delighted the gladdened bride. After a beautiful repast of choice viands, the company dispersed in the late hours of a night, wishing the new made happy pair long and prosperous life. The old-time serenading band of "tin horns, tin buckets, horse fiddles and cow bells, and tinde yells of boys has not yet been consigned to the darkness of the past, but on this occasion it was not a success, beating a rather reluctant retreat, and securing neither wine nor wedding cake.

Some ungrateful watch stole pants and vest from Wells Laubach, near Benton, a few weeks ago.

A gang of horse jockies accommodated the people with trading stock at Register last Saturday afternoon.

Henry Everett's horse took fright from a sharp clap of thunder and came near running away in the corn field not long since.

The Fish Case. A habeas corpus hearing was held by Associate Judges Murphy and McHenry on Saturday last in the case of D. M. Kistner, New York, against the State of Pennsylvania, on a writ issued by G. W. Hildebrand Esq. of Benton, charging him with catching trout out of season. When taken before the justice there was no hearing, but the justice's docket shows that he allowed the defendant to go with the understanding that he would appear when wanted. Justice was next day brought before the justice on a writ of habeas corpus, and he was returned and was therefore dead. The justice had a hearing and under the testimony of witnesses found the defendant guilty of having taken trout in his possession on July 16, 1886 and fined him $300 under the act of 1878. As this fine was not paid, after waiting several months the justice issued a writ of habeas corpus, and the defendant to jail, and then a writ of habeas corpus was taken out. E. H. & K. R. Little represented the defendant, and District Attorney Billmeyer and Keler & Hering were for the Commonwealth. After argument the court continued the case until September court. Mr. Kistner entering into a recognizance in the sum of $500 for his appearance at that time.

Hotspur Remarks. "The sun duth nourish ague," is a measure in the summer months it is only a measure of common prudence to guard against malarious diseases, intermittent fevers, agues and bilious attacks.

"Many cases of fever and ague, dumb ague and congestive chills were presented and entirely banished by the use of Simmons Liver Regulator. You don't say half enough in regard to the efficacy of that valuable medicine. Believe me when I say I was a sufferer for years and only found relief by its use."—Robert J. Weeks, Batavia, Kane Co., Ill.

To close out certain lines of wedding invitations a number of bargains are offered at this office. Those wanting small lots, from 10 to 25, will save money by ordering at the COLUMBIAN office.

GRASSY VICTORIA'S CROWN. The crown of Queen Victoria consists of diamonds, pearls, rubies, sapphires and emeralds, set in silver and gold. Its gross weight is 3 1/2 lbs. It is set with 14,000 diamonds, 13,000 rubies, 12,000 sapphires, 11,000 emeralds, 10,000 pearls, and 9,000 pearls. It is set with the crown of perfect health and peace of mind. It is a crown that is a blessing to the world. It is a crown that is a blessing to the world. It is a crown that is a blessing to the world.

Persons calling for these letters will please say "advertised."

GEORGE A. CLARK, P. M.

Every evening says the proverb, makes another sorrow or late. Two more of our young people made happy by the sacred rite of matrimony. On June 21st, Mr. Benjamin Brobst and Miss Elizabeth Purcell joined wedlock at the home of the bride's parents in the presence of a number of guests. We wish them much happiness in their new field of life.

Saturday, June 25, the remains of Anthony Schwartz, were taken to Archibald, Lackawanna Co., for interment. About two months ago Mr. Schwartz and family moved to this township from Nanticoke, having purchased the P. Foulk farm in the hope that country life would improve his health. He was 76 years of age.

The same day the remains of Peter Andes of Nanticoke were brought from that place to New Columbia for burial. Mr. Andes was well known in this section and had many warm friends. He was a member of Hemlock grange, this place.

Hay-making is in progress and harvest is close on the way.

R. R. Keler lost a valuable horse Saturday afternoon of last week.

Mrs. Ella Purcell adorned her parlor with a new suit.

Mr. Winner, the new horse doctor, has had several calls from this section.

Oscar Gett of Lightstreet has charge of C. M. Terwilliger's store this week. Charlie is on the sick, and Miss Ryan, one of the last report had H. Hodge on the improve. Hope we shall soon see him about again.

An ice cream supper will be given in the yard of the M. E. church this Saturday evening. Proceeds for the benefit of the church.

The following of the Brinscreek Insurance Company's policy should see that it is paid before July 2nd.

Normal boys of this place will spend the next few weeks in the harvest field.

Mr. Samuel Appleman of Benton paid N. P. Moore's visit this week.

Our collector has his notices up. All taxes paid before Aug. 22nd, will receive a 25 per cent discount.

Candidates are making daily visits to our citizens. None say talk is afraid.

The women of this place are doing some very talk, but not politics, however.

Blessed is the woman who can slander her neighbor without her neighbor finding it out. But more blessed is the woman who has no neighbor to slander.

Special Rates to Gettysburg via Pennsylvania Railroad. On the twenty-fourth anniversary of the battle of Gettysburg many veterans will assemble on the historic field, to renew the memories of the great battle. A most interesting reunion will take place this year. The Philadelphia Brigade, which held the centre of the Union line and received the famous onslaught of Pickett's Division, will entertain representatives of the survivors of that celebrated division on the scene of the struggle. This is the most conspicuous feature of the reunion. The battle was fought, and the ceremonies between hosts and guests will be of the most interesting character. To the veteran it will be a most memorable occasion, while the general visitor will find it the best opportunity ever offered of seeing the battlefield. The field is one of the most interesting objects in the world, and there is no one to be contented with many moments. One hundred and one monuments and tablets mark the spots where the most important events of the fight occurred. For the accommodation of the public, the Pennsylvania Railroad Company will sell excursion tickets from all stations on its lines, on July 23, 3d, and 4th, 1887, good for return on or including the 5th, at one fare for the round trip.

Excursion to March Chunk Postponed. The Y. M. C. A. of Berwick, who had advertised a grand Fourth of July excursion to March Chunk and points of interest around there, have been compelled to postpone the project on account of the refusal of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company to draw over the road on that day, according to agreement. Nearly 200 tickets had been sold at Berwick, and many people from our town intended to join the excursion; there were probably many at points below us, who also intended going. Hence many people disappointed by the breaking up of the excursion. The Y. M. C. A. assures the public that the failure of the excursion was wholly due to the railroad company breaking their written engagement with them.

The Wise Young Messenger Boy. The district messenger boys of New York are daily becoming sharper and more contented. Every year the profession has to be taken in dealing with them. They consider the persons who employ them as their peculiar prey. A lady had her trunk broken open by a messenger boy, and she had to write a note that the boy could not read, and she was directed to the boy's entrance. "Take that," she said, extending the pin and the label, "and I'll see you in court, intending to add, "to the jeweler's at the corner and wait for it."

But the small tough, not much higher than the table, brose and looked at the little ruffian in amazement. "How much do you want to get on it?"

"I want you to me to pound it, don't you?"

"Pound it? Mercy no. I just stepped on it and have broken the pin."

"I want you to me to pound it, I guess you kin get twenty cents on it."

"Why, boy, what are you talking about?"

"I want you to me to pound it, I guess you kin get twenty cents on it."

The lady called for help. She had heard the messenger boy's words, and she was so angry that she could not speak. She was so angry that she could not speak. She was so angry that she could not speak.

In general debility, emaciation, consumption and wasting in children, Scott's Emulsion is the most valuable food and medicine it creates an appetite, strengthens the nervous system and builds up the body. "I have been highly pleased with it in consumption, scrofula, and wasting diseases, bronchitis and throat troubles."—A. JONES, M. D., CORNELLVILLE, TENN.

For a time my wife was despaired of. My trouble was with the kidneys, liver and bladder—also constipation. Finally I used Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy, and in my opinion it saved my life. I make this statement to save those who suffer as I did. It has been highly pleased with it in consumption, scrofula, and wasting diseases, bronchitis and throat troubles."—A. JONES, M. D., CORNELLVILLE, TENN.

MARRIED. BROBST—PURCELL.—At the bride's parlor, in Hemlock, on the 21st, by Rev. N. Spear, Mr. B. F. Brobst to Miss Mary E. Purcell, both of Berwick.

KEEFE—ASHLEMAN.—At the bride's home, by Rev. T. H. Tubbs, Thursday, June 23, 1887, Mr. Nathan J. Keefe to Miss Susan A. Ashleman, both of Benton, Pa.

Every evening says the proverb, makes another sorrow or late. Two more of our young people made happy by the sacred rite of matrimony. On June 21st, Mr. Benjamin Brobst and Miss Elizabeth Purcell joined wedlock at the home of the bride's parents in the presence of a number of guests. We wish them much happiness in their new field of life.

Saturday, June 25, the remains of Anthony Schwartz, were taken to Archibald, Lackawanna Co., for interment. About two months ago Mr. Schwartz and family moved to this township from Nanticoke, having purchased the P. Foulk farm in the hope that country life would improve his health. He was 76 years of age.

The same day the remains of Peter Andes of Nanticoke were brought from that place to New Columbia for burial. Mr. Andes was well known in this section and had many warm friends. He was a member of Hemlock grange, this place.

Hay-making is in progress and harvest is close on the way.

R. R. Keler lost a valuable horse Saturday afternoon of last week.

Mrs. Ella Purcell adorned her parlor with a new suit.

Mr. Winner, the new horse doctor, has had several calls from this section.

Oscar Gett of Lightstreet has charge of C. M. Terwilliger's store this week. Charlie is on the sick, and Miss Ryan, one of the last report had H. Hodge on the improve. Hope we shall soon see him about again.

An ice cream supper will be given in the yard of the M. E. church this Saturday evening. Proceeds for the benefit of the church.

The following of the Brinscreek Insurance Company's policy should see that it is paid before July 2nd.

Normal boys of this place will spend the next few weeks in the harvest field.

Mr. Samuel Appleman of Benton paid N. P. Moore's visit this week.

Our collector has his notices up. All taxes paid before Aug. 22nd, will receive a 25 per cent discount.

Candidates are making daily visits to our citizens. None say talk is afraid.

The women of this place are doing some very talk, but not politics, however.

Blessed is the woman who can slander her neighbor without her neighbor finding it out. But more blessed is the woman who has no neighbor to slander.

Special Rates to Gettysburg via Pennsylvania Railroad. On the twenty-fourth anniversary of the battle of Gettysburg many veterans will assemble on the historic field, to renew the memories of the great battle. A most interesting reunion will take place this year. The Philadelphia Brigade, which held the centre of the Union line and received the famous onslaught of Pickett's Division, will entertain representatives of the survivors of that celebrated division on the scene of the struggle. This is the most conspicuous feature of the reunion. The battle was fought, and the ceremonies between hosts and guests will be of the most interesting character. To the veteran it will be a most memorable occasion, while the general visitor will find it the best opportunity ever offered of seeing the battlefield. The field is one of the most interesting objects in the world, and there is no one to be contented with many moments. One hundred and one monuments and tablets mark the spots where the most important events of the fight occurred. For the accommodation of the public, the Pennsylvania Railroad Company will sell excursion tickets from all stations on its lines, on July 23, 3d, and 4th, 1887, good for return on or including the 5th, at one fare for the round trip.

Excursion to March Chunk Postponed. The Y. M. C. A. of Berwick, who had advertised a grand Fourth of July excursion to March Chunk and points of interest around there, have been compelled to postpone the project on account of the refusal of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company to draw over the road on that day, according to agreement. Nearly 200 tickets had been sold at Berwick, and many people from our town intended to join the excursion; there were probably many at points below us, who also intended going. Hence many people disappointed by the breaking up of the excursion. The Y. M. C. A. assures the public that the failure of the excursion was wholly