A representative of the Columbian will be in Stillwater next week Tuesday and Benton on Wednesday if the weather is favorable.

The highest temperature at Ganoga Lake between Saturday evening and Tuesday morning was 83 degrees, and the lowest was 52 degrees.

The excursion train over the B. & S. railroad on Saturday last brought a large number of people to town, most of whom came to attend the camp-fire.

The Buffalo Courier declares that 'it is safe to say there are 75,000 people in Buffalo to-day' that have never seen Niagara Falls nor heard their roaring.

A church festival was held last Saturday evening at the Abright church, Lightstreet. A large crowd attended, and about $50 was realized. The Lightstreet band furnished the music.

The inter-state commerce commission has advised that all railroads can sell mileage to whomsoever they please. Their decision will relieve the lengthy dispute between the railroad companies.

An exchange asks: "With microbes in the drinking water, typhoid fever, cholera, malaria in watermelon, Bright's disease in beer and paralysis in ice tea, where would the thirsty soul refresh itself in summer time?"

The Bloomsburg Agricultural Works received a fine piece of machinery on Monday, in the form of a new band saw. It was manufactured at Williamsport. The machine was set up Monday afternoon, and is in fine working order.

A party of five boys started up the creek camping last Monday morning. The party consisted of Chas. Lawell, Frank Brown, Murray Crawford, George Sloan and Ed. Eyer. They expect to spend a week or two in this delightful recreation.

There will be a festival held at Canby (Millerstown) Saturday afternoon and evening Aug. 13. Supper will be served from five to nine o'clock. Proceeds for the benefit of the Lutheran church. Music will be furnished by the Light Street Cornet Band.

The "dog days" began on the 11th of July and will last until the 30th of August, forty-two days. During this time "Sirius," the dog star rises and sets with the sun, and dogs are supposed to be more susceptible to hydrophobia than at any other season.

Mr. Ira B. Stillman, patentee and manufacturer of the DeWitt Washers has sold the county right of Columbia county to Mr. B. F. Redline, of Orangeville. Quite a number of these washers have been sold in this vicinity and all speak of them in the highest terms.

Look out for the "pony man," who is on the rounds selling Shetland ponies from photographs for $5 a piece. The buyer selects a pony from a number of photographs, "ponies up" $5 and waits for the arrival of the little animals, but they never turn up. About thirty of Bloomsburg's gullible citizens are waiting for their Shetlands.

Joe Lowenberg who has been serving a three years' apprenticeship in N. J. Heenan's drug store, finished his time last week, and has gone to Philadelphia to attend the College of Pharmacy. He is a young man of excellent habits, a gentleman by nature and well as training, and is deservedly popular among all his acquaintances. Joe will make a successful druggist.

As there are an unusual number of people suffering from rheumatism the present summer, they may be interested in learning that a leading medical journal says that oil of wintergreen mixed with an equal quantity of olive oil applied externally to inflamed joints affected by acute rheumatism, affords instant relief and having a pleasant odor, its use is very agreeable.

The annual Harvest Home Services of the Orangeville Reformed Church will be held this year on Sundays as follows: August 12, 13, 14, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25, 26, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31,
