FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 25, 1887

Congress convenes next month.

Grover Cleveland will be renominat ed for the Presidency by the Demo-crats next year. There is no doubt about it. No one else is talked about or thought of. James G. Blaire is in Paris with one eye on the United States watching the course of events. Reports come across the water one day that Mr. Blaine is a physical wreck and his candidacy is impossible and another day he is said to be in robust health and ready to enter upon the battle. But Mr. Blaine can't beat Grover Cleveland, and he is wise enough to know it, and we predict that he will not permit the use of his name as the republican candidate.

LICENSES. As will be seen by the revised rule of Court concerning liquor licenses, the time for granting such licenses is chauged. Heretofore applicants could put in their petitions either at Februput in their petitions either at February or May Court, as they saw fit. Now every applicant for license, including hotels, restaurants, bottlers and wholesale dealers, must apply on the third Monday of January, and all licenses will be for one year, from the first day of February. The 16th day of January, 1888, is the day when petitions for all licenses will be heard, and the applications must be filed in the Clerk's office at least three weeks the Clerk's office at least three weeks before that day, so that Monday, De cember 26, is the last day for filing the

WASHINGTON LETTER

From our Regular Correspondent.]
Washington, D. C., Nov. 22, 1887.

As the time for the assembling of Congress draws nearer, the contest for the position of Doorkeeper of the House waxes warmer—that appearing to be the only subordinate position over which there is any competition, though, if certain combinations that are now being formed can be success fully carried out, the old state will b shattered and there will be a sweeping county, as is required by the Act of change. There are six candidates in the field for Doorkeeper, from all sections of the country. Heretofore, it has been the custom for the Democratic days before the day appointed for the North the sergeant-at-arms and post-master, and to the South the clerk and doorkeeper—an arrangement that will very likely be continued. The Demo-cratio members from New York havcalled a caucus to meet in this city the latter part of the week, to determine what course they will pursue in regard and on the streets, and in their usual haunts in the fashionable and aristocratic northwest quarter of the city. The Washingtonians draw the line of social distinction right through the costs and the fees of the witnesses in middle of Pennsylvania Avenue, the curred on behalf of the applicant for popular thoroughfare that leads from license shall be paid by him; and those the White House to the Capitol. If incurred on behalf of the remonstrants one's habitation is north of that line, he or she is presumed to be of respectable social status, but if they dwell south of it, they are regarded with distrust until something transpires to whether the license for the past year change that opinion. You see, dear reader, I know how it is myself, for coming here a stranger, I innocently located on the wrong side of Pennsylvanta avenue. But I have since crossed over, and am now supposed to be as good as my neighbors.

In addition to several contests for seats in the House, there will be two or three in the Senate, and one of the latter will be in general interest, as involves a constitutional question In West Virginia, the regular In West Virginia, the regular session of the Legislature, having failed to elect a United States Senator, the Governor appointed one; but at a called of the Legislature soon after ward the Governor's appointment wa-ignored as illegal, and a Senator elected So two claimants-both Democratswill appear for the same Senatorla One of the other cases that 1 refer to is that of Senator-elect Turple, of Indians. Still, it is doubtful if Ex-Senator Harrison contests the seat, as his alleged claim appears to rest upon anything but a firm foundation. Then, too, the Senate is much more impartial and conservative than the Hous in the settling of contests.

The British Fisheries Commissio having reached the Capital, it is prob able that negotiations will be in prgress before the end of this week. on the arrival of Mr. Chamberlain, the chief commissioner, he was besieged at his hotel by forty reporters of the leading newspapers of the country, but the only subjects on which the adroit di-ploma ist could be satisfactorily inter viewed were liquors, eigars, and kindred topics. The boys vivaciously pumped away over an bour, but all to no purpose further than that they were considerably refreshed internally.

Thanks to the honest, reform methods of a democratic administra-tion, the annual deficits, for defraying the expenses of the Postoffice establishment, which have, for a number of years, mounted to eight to fifteen milion dollars annually, have been steadily reduced until the last deficiency was about one million dollars, and it is confiden ly estimated that before the close of the current year the Postoffice de- their arrest was committed about Recent Postal Ruling.

PRINTING ON ENVELOPES RAISES CERTAIN THIRD-CLASS MATTER TO FIRST.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 20 .- General lissatisfaction is felt here among mer chants and grand army posts and other organizations because of the recent interpretation of the postal laws. The new reading of the law subjects thirdclass or "circular" matter, which form postage if on the envelopes is any printed matter other than the name and address of the sender. Consequently, when Meade Post, No. 1, G. A. R. sent a batch of circulars to its member yesterday with a picture of Philadel phia's soldier idol on the envelope, put ting one cent stamps on them, they were returned to the postoffice with the notification that another cent would be required.

A postoffice official took one of the envelopes, blue penciled the picture of Meade and the word "Headquariers." leaving "Meade Post, No. 1, 119 Chestutt street," as an illustration of what would go for a cent. The case has greatly disturbed merchants and organizations which have large stocks of envelopes which would not go as third class matter under this interpre tation. One firm has 500,000 such envelopes on hand and another 350,-

WILLIAMSPORT, Nov. 21 -The lice to-day arrested Leroy Gibson, William Rissel and David Grove, members of one of the boldest gangs of boy burglars that ever infested this section of the State. The boys are about 14 years old and have a long list of daring burglaries charged against them. Barnum's Big Show Burned-

TERRIBLE SCENE IN THE MAMMOTI CIRCUS AT BRIDGEPORT, CONN.

BRIBGEPORT DEPOT, CONN., Nov 20.-The main building of Barnum and Bailey's Greatest Show on Earth was entirely destroyed by fire this evening at 10:30. One of the watchmen was in the horse room. His lantern ex ploded, igniting the hay and straw. A general alarm was sounded and the entire Fire Department turned out. Thousands of people rushed in the direction of the big blaze, but in less than thirty minutes the great building was utterly consumed. The first information of the fire was from the roars of the bons and tigers. They seemed to realize approaching danger. Next the ele-phants struggled in their chains, but in an incredibly short space of time the flames were sweeping from one end of the building to the other. Before the first alarm had ceased sounding the entire affair was a mass of fire. The men dared not approach the building. being fearful of the crazed animals Three elephants were burned up and thirty-six others broke from their bandages and dashed through the sides of the burning building. Their roars and trumpetings and sounds of torment were terrific. Six elephants and a large African hippopotamus rushed about the burning building and then escaped through the streets of Bridgeport. They all presented a sickeoing appearance. The herd of elephants and one big lion have started off over Fairfield county towards Fairfield, and Easton. The greatest alarm has seized lows. a great many of the residents of the west end. The lions and tigers were kept in wooden temporary cages. It was impossible to draw these clum-y escape, the inhabitants barricaded their doors and windows and hid themselves inside their houses. The entire police force is out and a reign of terror prevails. Everybody is helpless against the roaming elephants and lions. Will-iam Newman, the elephant trainer, is out of town and the keepers are not able, in their excitement, to herd there frigt tened animals. 600 feet long, 200 feet wide and two stories high. The upper portion was filled with hay and with all the paraphernalia of the great show. In the horse-room were all the ring horsestrained stallions, ponies, &c. The e were all burned. In the upper rooms were tents, poles, seats, plumes, flags, and all the harness for the entire snow, both for street parade and ring per-formance. All were burned. In the cat.room were birds, monkeys, three rhinoceroses, hyenas, tigers, lions and all the menagerie. In the elephant pen all the huge creatures were kept. Three of them were burned to death. So quick was the spread of the flames that no attempt was made to save the building. The firemen turned their feeble water supply on the chariot buildings and car sheds, which they succeeded in saving. All the chariots and tableau wagons were run out and saved. The heat was so intense that it was with the greatest difficulty the other buildings were preserved. Before the building was down to the ground Barnum's agents were bustly making arrangements for a new lot of structures to supply the less. Mr. Brothwell, Barnum's Bridgeport agent, said the show building would be re built, but not in Bridgeport. great show will probably go to Jersey City, where greater railroad facilities can be had.
