Notice to Tax Collectors.

An act of the Legislature and approved June 2nd 1881, (See pamphlet laws, page 45) requires tax collectors, township and ough officers to make return of seated and unsented hards upon which no proper-ty can be found from which to make taxes to the County Commissioners on or before the first day of January next, with a sufficlent description by boundaries or other-wise, of each separste lot or tract and about the quantity of the same. Those who fail to make returns by said day will be held for such loss. Taxes so returned become a lien against the property so re-turned. We have blacks on which these returns are to be made and will furnish them upon application of collectors. Oct 28 tf John B. CASEY, Com's Clerk.

"Any letter for me ?" The clerk sorted out a package with the negligent attention that comes of practice, then flipped one-a very small one-on the counter. The traveling man took it with a curiou smile that twisted his pleasant-looking face into a mask of expectancy. He smiled more as he read it Then oblivious of other travelers who jostled him, he laid it tenderly against his lins and actualty kissed it A loud guffaw startled him.

"Now look here, old fellow," said a loud voice, "that won't do, you know. Too vife dido't write that letter ?"

"No, she di in't," said the traveling man with an amazed look, as if he would like to change the subject. "I hat letter is from my best girl."

The admission was so unexpected that the trio of friends who had caught him said more until after they had eaten a good dinner and were seated together in chum's room.

Then they began to badger him. "It's no use, you've got to read it to us Dick," said one of them, "we want to know all about your best girl."

As many as ever, as carefully "So you shall," said Dick with great polness; "I will give you the letter and picked as ever; seem to be you can read it yourselves. There it is," prettier and cuter than ever. and he laid it open on the table. "I guess not," said the one who had
