His head was considerably bruised.

There is no grama of more power and trothfulness than T. S. Arthur's "Ten Nights in a Bar Room," now being played by Brockway, Coots and Gill's Company. It is brimtul of incidents, and holds an audience from the rise of the curtain to ts fall in the last act. Humor, pathos and entiment prevail throughout the entire piece, and elicit at once the hearty sympathy of the audience. - Brooklyn Eagle. Bloomsburg Opera House , Mouday, De cemder 19th.

A unique calendar clock was put in th Post Office on Wednesday through C. E. Savage, watchmaker and jeweler. At the base of the clock are three cylinders, which nake a quarter movement every five minutes. Upon every quarter of the cylinder is placed a business card of some mer-chant. Thus the cards of these different business firms, appear every five minutes. It is an eight day clock, and is said to b an excellent time keeper.

The following dispatch appeared in the Philadelphia Times of Tuesday: BLOOMSBURG, December 5.—Owing to the continued ill-health of Judge Elwell President Judge Pershing was called from Schuylkill to-day to hold the regular session of court. The trial list is unusually large, and it is likely that extra sessions will have to be held to finish the business. Judge Elwell's indisposition is of a serious nature, and for some time past he has had to depend on the assistance of his brethren of the bench in neighboring counties.

Judge Elwell's friends will be pleased know that the above is untrue so far as his twelve reputable men out of two hundred health is concerned. He is much better in every way, and is rapidly improving, and there is little doubt that by spring he will be able to resume his duties on the bench As will appear by the court proceedings, e presided in court all day on Monday, charged the grand jury, delivered several opinions, and heard motions Most of the cases on the argument list have been disposed of, or continued because they were not ready to be heard, and the trial list is not unusually large, in fact would be un- above named disease. BUSINESS NOTICES.

To Presence Natural Flowers.—Dip the flowers in melted paraffine, withdrawing them quickly. The liquid should be only just hot enough to maintain its flaidity and the flowers should be dipped one at a time, held by the stocks and moved about for an instant to get rid of air bubbles. Fresh cut flowers, free from motature, make excellent specimens in this way.

More and better for the old folks, too. Your task will be what to pick where so much is so good.
Book News is a key to the choice of Books. It unlocks, and attest its efficacy.

It is not white and furred, it is rough, at all events.

The digestive system is wholly out of order and diarrhora or constipation may be a symptom or the two may alternate. There are often hemorrhoids or even loss of blood. There may be giddiness and often headache and acidity or flatulence and tenderness in the stomach. To correct all this if not to effect a cure try Green's August Flower, it co-ts but a trifle and thousands attest its efficacy.
